Council of Camp Fire At Meeting

Salem district council of Camp Fire Girls met Tuesday in the Camp Fire Girls office with Mrs. E. A. Carleton presiding.

Mrs. Frank Kolsky, Salem leaders association chairman, presented plans for the forthcoming months. City wide event with all Camp Fire Girls and Blue Birds participating will be scheduled.

Suggestions concerning an all city Camp Kluwan reunion to be held sometime during the Christmas season were asked.

An interesting over-all report on camping activities, finance and camp building was given by Mrs. John Synne, field director, who served as camp director during the summer season.

Mrs. S. M. Zeller of Corvallis, national council delegate of Willamette area council, discussed the over-all Camp Fire program and the Willamette area council's relation to the national program. Mrs. Zeller is the chairman of region VI this year, which comprises the states of Washington, Oregon, Montana and Idaho. As chairman of the region she will attend the National Council meeting in St. Paul, Minnesota in October. She is also a participating member of the national finance commission and national field service commission.

Miss Nora Garvin, regional field supervisor for region VI, attended the meeting as part of her three day visit to the Willamette area. Miss Garvin spoke about the outstanding growth of Camp Fire Girls in the northwest and the important part Camp Fire Girls and Blue Birds all over the nation are playing in civilian defense through service projects of all types to local and national community groups and organizations.

The Leaders association of the Salem District of the Willamette area council of Camp Fire Girls met for their first meeting of the fall at the Presbyterian church on Tuesday. After a covered dish luncheon, Mrs. Frank Kolsky, the chairman, led the discussion of the formulation of the plans for the coming year. A doughnut sale will be held about Halloween and a peanut brittle sale, to raise funds for the national building fund in the spring. It was decided to have a meeting of the leaders in the junior high school group to discuss the program as presented by national headquarters.

Miss Nora Garvin attended this also and gave a talk.

Miss Hilda Swenson, new area executive, was presented.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Donnell have arrived from Westwood, Calif., where they have been making their home the past three years, for an extended visit here with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Perry. They plan to be here until after Christmas.

Mrs. Mary Shindler of Los Angeles is visiting in the capital with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Schneider, for several weeks.

Around Town

Grid Opening, Travel Notes

By Jeryme English

Football time is nearing with the coming weekend officially opening the grid season. . . . and Salem will be right in on the festivities as Willamette university opens with Central Washington on Saturday afternoon at McCulloch field. . . . This has been designated as "Salem Day" and a feature will be the taking of movies as everyone arrives. . . . Cameras will be clicking as everyone passes through the turnstiles and candid shots will also be taken of the crowd and the game. . . . So suitably put on your best "bib and tucker" for the game as the film will be on the Elsinore screen next week. . . .

For the next ten weeks football fans will be busy attending the Oregon and Oregon State games both in Portland, Corvallis and Eugene. . . . Still others are planning to follow their favorite team to Washington and California.

Nuptial Notes

Headed east . . . George C. Huggins, jr. left Thursday for New Jersey, where he will be married to Susanne Thompson on September 30 at the Elizabeth Rodman Voorhees chapel at New Jersey College for Women. . . . The couple will drive west on their honeymoon and will make their home in Salem, where he is with the Huggins Insurance Agency. . . .

The benedict's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George C. Huggins of Coos Bay, will also go east for the nuptials and he will serve as best man for his son. . . . The couple met in Coos Bay, where she has been teaching at the Marshfield junior high school. . . . their engagement was announced in the early spring.

Scroptimists Take New Members

An induction service for four new members highlighted the first meeting of the season for Salem club of Scroptimist International on Wednesday night at the Golden Pheasant. More than 40 were present.

Following the dinner Mrs. E. G. Maison, club president, welcomed the four into membership and service with the organization, and induction service followed for Mrs. William Burghardt, Mrs. Clyde Everett, Mrs. Alex Jones and Mrs. Lena Smithson. Mrs. Harvard Moore was presented as a transfer from the Eugene Scroptimist club.

Program feature for the evening was accordion music by Mrs. Henry Captain, a newcomer to Salem from Portland. The club will hold its luncheon meeting on Wednesday, September 28 at the Golden Pheasant.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald L. Rasmussen are the parents of a daughter, Mary Elizabeth, born on Tuesday at the Salem General hospital. The little girl, who has a sister, Marjorie, is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard D. Hillis of Bronxville, New York and Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Rasmussen of Yakima, Wash.

On Etiquette

By Roberta Lee

Q. Is it proper for a woman house guest to offer to help her hostess with her household chores?

A. It is proper for her to make the offer, but not to insist upon it if her hostess seems firmly against it. The guest can show greatest consideration by keeping her own room clean and orderly.

Q. When dining at a place where the dancing is included, what should one do with the napkin when rising to dance?

A. Leave the napkin by the plate, unfolded — never on the chair.

Q. When a wedding engagement has been broken, what should the girl return to the man?

A. All gifts of jewelry, including the engagement ring, all photographs and letters.
