Crowds Pack Parish to Enjoy Food at Jordan.

JORDAN — Pictured are a part of the more than 1,000 persons who crowded into the Lady of Lourdes parish at Jordan Sunday to attend the annual Jordan bazaar. Despite a drenching rain, the event attracted the largest attendance in history. Proceeds will go to the parish school building fund. It was the fifth annual bazaar held since the end of World War II. (Statesman-Robert Veness photo.)

Jordan Bazaar Attracts Nearly 1,000 to Lady of Lourdes Parish

Statesman News Service
JORDAN — Despite a drenching, day-long rain, the 1959 Jordan bazaar attracted about 1,000 persons to the Lady of Lourdes parish here.

It was the fifth annual bazaar held since the end of World War II and the largest crowd ever to attend the dinner consumed hundreds of pounds of chicken, roast-beef, cakes, pies and vegetables prepared by farmers in this area. Food was served on a "production-line" basis and a steady stream of customers passed through the building.

Proceeds of the dinner will go toward the school fund of the Jordan parish.

The Rev. Leander Schneider was in charge of the affair, assisted by the Rev. Bernard Neumann. Day's activities, besides the dinner, included dozens of carnival games and mass at 6:30 and 10:30 a.m. at the church.

Committee chairmen who helped to arrange the dinner included Anna Saizl, Josephine Thomas, Rose Silbernagel, Susan Doerfler, Anna Heubeger, Marie Duman, Rose Schwindt, Anne Pietrock, Grace Weeder, Cecilia Courney, Syl Silbernagel, Andrew Silbernagel, John Ziglinski, Henry Thomas, John Silbernagel, Henry Riester, Ben, Gerald, Lawrence and Ray Silbernagel, Lucille Posvar, Madeline Lackner, Hattie Gerard, Grace Silbernagel, Hanna Duman, Stella Foltz, Rita Ziglinski, Julia Silbernagel, Anna Thom-
