Casserole Dishes Good to Satisfy Husky Appetites Noted During Fall

By Maxine Buren
Statesman Woman's Editor

Even those persons who complain 11 months of every year about Oregon's weather (but still keep living here) have given words of praise to it this fall. And thus far, we have heard not a word against that rain which came down so heavily on Sunday, appeared several times Monday and tapered off Tuesday.

Rain is wonderful for the grass, naturally curly hair and the appetite. Casseroles are handy things to mix up these fall days, when there's lots of work to be done out of doors, but appetites have been stepped up to winter levels. Cheese happens to be in these.

Dried beef teams up with processed cheese in this recipe. This type cheese melts quickly.

DRIED BEEF CASSEROLE
2 cups (2 packages, 4 oz. each dried beef) 1/4 cup shredded cheese
4 tablespoons butter 2 cups thin white sauce
2 tablespoons diced pepper 1 8-oz. package macaroni
Cut dried beef into pieces. Frizzle until crisp in the melted butter. Add green pepper and cook 3 minutes. Melt cheese in white sauce. Break macaroni into small pieces. Cook until tender in boiling salted water. Drain. Combine all ingredients. Turn into 2-quart buttered casserole. Set the mold in a shallow pan of water. Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees) about 30 minutes. Serves 6.

Spanish Rice Supreme makes good eating on a crisp fall evening. There's some chili powder in it for extra spiciness and cheese and ripe olives make it hearty and good.

SPANISH RICE SUPREME
1 cup ripe olives 1 teaspoon chili powder
1/4 cup chopped onion 3/4 cups cooked salted rice
1 minced clove garlic 1 egg
1 tablespoon oil 2 cups grated American cheese
2 cups tomato sauce
Cut olives from pits. Cook onion and garlic slowly in oil. Add tomato sauce and chili powder and heat to boiling. Blend in rice, olives, egg and cheese. Pour into greased casserole or baking dish. Bake in moderately hot oven (375 degrees) 20 to 25 minutes. Serves 4 or more.

An economical rice loaf will help cut a little on the meat budget if it makes 1 1/2 pounds of meat make a good sized main dish.

ECONOMICAL MEAT LOAF
1 egg 1/4 teaspoon pepper
1 pound ground beef 1/2 cup milk
1/2 pound ground pork 2 tablespoons shortening
1 cup cooked rice 1 teaspoon gravy seasoning
1/4 cup finely diced onion 8 oz. can tomato sauce
1 1/2 teaspoons salt
Combine egg, beef, pork, rice, onion, seasonings and milk. Mix well. Mold by packing into a well-greased loaf pan. Then turn out on shallow greased baking pan. Blend together the shortening and gravy seasoning and brush over the outside of the meat loaf. Bake at 325 degrees about 1 1/2 hours.
Four the contents of one 8 oz. can of tomato sauce into the top of a double boiler; heat over hot water until ready to serve.

On Etiquette

By Roberta Lee

Q. Don't you think it rude for a man to take a girl to a dance, and then dance with other girls for four or five consecutive dances?

A. This is extremely ill-mannered. A man, when escorting a girl to a dance, assumes full responsibility for her and should never dance with another girl unless he knows that his companion has a partner for that dance.

Q. Which is the proper expression, "The boy was named for his father," or "The boy was named after his father?"

A. The preferred form is, "The boy was named for his father."

Q. Is it necessary for a bereaved person to return calls of condolence?

A. No; this is not required nor expected.
