

Detroit PTA Hears Basic School Talk

Statesman News Service
DETROIT — Otis White, Detroit high school principal, discussed the proposed increase in the basic school support fund in a talk before the Detroit Parent-Teachers association this week.
 The proposal, referred to the voters by the 1949 legislature, will be on the ballot in the November election. Mrs. Richard Hanson reported on the Parent-Teachers instruction school held in Albany September 14.
 Mrs. Hoyt's second grade won the attendance prize. Mrs. Robert Steele's first grade furnished refreshments with Mrs. Albert Snyder acting as chairman.

Willamina's Extension Unit At Conference

Statesman News Service
WILLAMINA — Those from here attending an officers training meeting of the home extension service in Dallas this week were Mrs. H. C. Rydell and Mrs. Harold Calligan from Willamina, and Mrs. John Forrest and Mrs. Ralph Reid of Grand Ronde.
