

Rubinstein Concert Financial, As Well as Artistic, Success

By Maxine Buren
Statesman Music Editor
A new era in music for Salem, we are convinced, was begun on Tuesday night with the complete success of the concert by Artur Rubinstein. This was the first appearance here of a great artist before other than the closed membership of the Community Concert series in many a day. The Salem high school auditorium was completely full, and an overwhelming proportion of the concert goes were those we seldom see at such performances.

Slavs, India Ask Korean Compromise

By A. I. Goldberg
LAKE SUCCESS, Oct. 3-(AP)—Communist Yugoslavia joined India today in asking the United Nations to try to find a compromise solution between east and west programs for Korean peace. But a succession of other delegations in the general assembly 60-nation political committee piled up support for an eight-nation plan to unite the country as an independent nation.

Australia told the committee that North Korean resistance must be smashed and the entire country occupied by the U.N. to guarantee peace and unity. Canada and the Philippines agreed generally with this and the statement found wide support from other speakers. Canada's Lester B. Pearson also said that Andrei Vishinsky, Soviet foreign minister, had rejected any idea of compromise in a statement last night.

Rubinstein's playing was superb, he was just the right artist to attract those who love music but must select carefully the musicians they will hear in a season. He did not let his audience down, every listening moment was charged with intense interest.

Opening with the Bach-Busoni, Chaconne, the pianist followed with four Bach numbers, Scherzo in C sharp minor, Mazurka in D major, Nocturn in D flat and finally Sonata, B flat minor op. 35 in which he displayed the perfection of his artistry.

Then followed three Debussy numbers, La Cathedrale Engloutie, La Plus Que Lente and L'Isle Joyeuse. Granados' The Maiden and the Nightingale and Mephisto Valse by Liszt concluded the program. The sincere applause brought the pianist back for several encores, ending with the showpiece Fire Dance.

Civil Defense to Cost $250,000

PORTLAND, Oct. 3-(AP)—Oregon's civilian defense needs will require $250,000 from the state legislature next year, Louis E. Starr estimated today. Starr, head of the state civilian defense program, said a more exact estimate would be made in a few days. He has just returned from a Washington, D.C., conference on civilian defense with other state heads. He reported Oregon ahead of most states in planning.

10 Fairview Inmates Back

Ten inmates of Fairview home who strayed from the institution Monday night were back Tuesday. But two who walked off Sunday night and another who left last night were missing. A state policeman picked up seven of the inmates, all youngsters, near Turner about noon. Three others were returned early Tuesday after they inadvertently stopped at the home of an employee of the institution to get in out of the rain.

U.S. Admits F-51s Strafed China Airport

LAKE SUCCESS, Oct. 3-(AP)—The United States acknowledged to the U. N. today that the two U. S. F-51 fighter-bombers in the United Nations airforce in Korea fired by mistake on a communist Chinese airstrip near Antung August 27. Red China protested to the security council immediately afterward that U. S. planes had violated Chinese territory.

Motorist Charged With Driving Over Hose at Blaze

A charge of driving over a fire hose was filed against a Salem motorist, James C. Armstrong, 545 Norway st., by city police Tuesday. Armstrong was cited to appear in municipal court this morning. The citation was issued while the city firemen battled a blaze at the Capital City Laundry and Cleaners about 6 p.m.

Cardinals to Replace Dyer

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 4-(AP)—Eddie Dyer will be replaced as manager of the St. Louis Cardinals, the Associated Press learned today. Dyer's successor will not be chosen from among the present members of the Redbirds. But it definitely will be a man in the Cardinal organization, a reliable source revealed.

Standard Raises Gasoline Price

Gasoline prices increased two-tenths of a cent per gallon Monday at the five Standard oil service stations in Salem, C. V. Mooney, Salem area manager, announced. The increases had been announced Monday by the oil company. Boosts of three-tenths of a cent a gallon were reported in Portland. Similar action from other companies was expected to follow.

Halloween Clinic Opens Sessions

Representatives of a dozen church and school groups attended a "clinic" for Halloween hosts at the Salem YMCA Tuesday night. Three more of the party schools are slated for the next three Tuesdays. Mrs. Gertrude Ayres conducted last night's class. She suggested ways to get people acquainted at the start of a party and other methods of getting parties started smoothly. Halloween party games will be outlined at the next meeting.

'Deer Hunter' Finds Quarry in Garage

PORTLAND, Oct. 3-(AP)—Walter Carl Mass, 26, went clear to eastern Oregon to get his deer. When he got home, he learned someone else knew how to get a deer without leaving town. The trouble was the someone else took his deer—went in his garage and carted away the antlers and 20 pounds of choice cuts. The crater of volcanic Mt. Katmai, Alaska, is three miles wide.

KOREA CASUALTIES ADDED

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3-(AP)—A defense department casualty list issued today contained the names of 307 men, of whom 11 are dead. Of the remainder, 149 were wounded, 25 missing, 22 injured in accidents in the war zone.
