

An Allergy for Home Plate

Sawyer Cannot Fathom Phillies' Failure at Bat

By Ralph Bernstein

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 5-(AP)—You can't win swinging like hitless wonders in the clutch is the way Skipper Eddie Sawyer summed up the World Series failure of his Philadelphia Phillies. Stripped down to a sleeveless red sweat shirt, Sawyer sat in his tiny clubhouse office and tried to figure out what's wrong with his National League champions at the bat. They have scored but 10 runs in their last 36 innings of baseball, including one in the pair of series games lost to the New York Yankees.

"We got our only run today thanks to a bad bounce over Gerry Coleman's head at second base. It looks like we need four bases on balls to score. "Well, there is one solace, we aren't any worse in the Yankee stadium. Maybe our kids will snap out of it. One thing I'm sure of, they won't let any stadium scare them. We'll play our usual game and score some runs, I hope."

The Whiz Kids weren't blaming anybody but themselves for today's 2 to 1 loss in 10 innings. Field Captain Granny Hamner, the peppery shortstop who was so dejected after the opening game 1 to 0 defeat, was plain disgusted today. Whereas yesterday he wasn't doing any talking, he had a few choice remarks this time.

"We helped Vic Raschi out in the first game by swinging at a lot of bad balls. We did the same thing again today but not as much. At least we had lots of opportunities to drive home some runs today but somehow we have become allergic to that home plate."

Hamner had a triple, double and walk and played his usually fine game afield.

Losing Pitcher Robin Roberts didn't feel like talking to anybody. He stood in front of his locker and told each reporter who came over. It was a high fast ball straight down the middle that DiMaggio hit for the homer that won the game. It was a good pitch that went bad."

DiMaggio and Roberts were in wide disagreement over the pitch that Joe hit. The Yankee said he thought it was a low slider, and, in fact, a bad pitch, Roberts insisted it was a fast ball, and the chances are that he knew what he had tossed.

"I was behind DiMaggio," he explained, "so I had to challenge him with my fast one."

But whatever it was that Giuseppe hit, there was never any doubt where it was going. There was a quick, hurt yell from the crowd at the crack of the bat, and then almost silence at the white pellet flew in a low arc toward the left-center stands. A spectator pocketed the souvenir, Joe trotted slowly around and everyone knew the second game was over.

There was a brief hope in the Phillies' half when Jack Mayo, hitting for Roberts, worked Reynolds for a lead-off walk. Waitkus sent him to second with a perfect bunt down the left line, and there was the tying run hungry to come in.

But Ashburn popped foul to Johnny Hopp, who had replaced John Mize on first for the Yankees and Sisler looked at a third strike to end the suspense.

Konstanty, who said after completing his heroic effort in the first game that he would be ready to go again today, warmed up in the bullpen when the Yanks threatened to beat Roberts out in the eighth.

With Lopat a certainty to go for the Yanks at the stadium tomorrow, Eddie Sawyer was undecided between Bob Miller, his strong young bonus rookie righthander, and Ken Heintzelman, a gray-haired lefthander.

Miller posted a 11-6 record for the season and was considered one of the most brilliant young pitchers in the game until he developed a sore shoulder last month. He won eight in a row before losing a game in the majors. Heintzelman won only three this season while dropping nine.

Yankees Grab 2-1 Victory

(Continued from Page 18)

The somewhat tainted tally -- only one scored by the Phils in the first 13 innings of the classic -- broke a string of 17 scoreless frames by Reynolds in last year's series and today. He allowed the Phils only two hits in the final five innings, one of them a bunt which Ashburn beat out to open the eighth and the other a one-out double b. Hamner in the ninth.

The Yankees pecked away fairly steadily at Roberts after scoring in the second, but the young righthander bore down with men on the sacks and looked as though he might duel Reynolds right down to nightfall until he ran afoul of DiMaggio.

DiMaggio and Roberts were in wide disagreement over the pitch that Joe hit. The Yankee said he thought it was a low slider, and, in fact, a bad pitch, Roberts insisted it was a fast ball, and the chances are that he knew what he had tossed.

"I was behind DiMaggio," he explained, "so I had to challenge him with my fast one."

But whatever it was that Giuseppe hit, there was never any doubt where it was going. There was a quick, hurt yell from the crowd at the crack of the bat, and then almost silence at the white pellet flew in a low arc toward the left-center stands. A spectator pocketed the souvenir, Joe trotted slowly around and everyone knew the second game was over.

There was a brief hope in the Phillies' half when Jack Mayo, hitting for Roberts, worked Reynolds for a lead-off walk. Waitkus sent him to second with a perfect bunt down the left line, and there was the tying run hungry to come in.

But Ashburn popped foul to Johnny Hopp, who had replaced John Mize on first for the Yankees and Sisler looked at a third strike to end the suspense.

Konstanty, who said after completing his heroic effort in the first game that he would be ready to go again today, warmed up in the bullpen when the Yanks threatened to beat Roberts out in the eighth.

With Lopat a certainty to go for the Yanks at the stadium tomorrow, Eddie Sawyer was undecided between Bob Miller, his strong young bonus rookie righthander, and Ken Heintzelman, a gray-haired lefthander.

Miller posted a 11-6 record for the season and was considered one of the most brilliant young pitchers in the game until he developed a sore shoulder last month. He won eight in a row before losing a game in the majors. Heintzelman won only three this season while dropping nine.

With Lopat a certainty to go for the Yanks at the stadium tomorrow, Eddie Sawyer was undecided between Bob Miller, his strong young bonus rookie righthander, and Ken Heintzelman, a gray-haired lefthander.

Miller posted a 11-6 record for the season and was considered one of the most brilliant young pitchers in the game until he developed a sore shoulder last month. He won eight in a row before losing a game in the majors. Heintzelman won only three this season while dropping nine.

Miller posted a 11-6 record for the season and was considered one of the most brilliant young pitchers in the game until he developed a sore shoulder last month. He won eight in a row before losing a game in the majors. Heintzelman won only three this season while dropping nine.

Miller posted a 11-6 record for the season and was considered one of the most brilliant young pitchers in the game until he developed a sore shoulder last month. He won eight in a row before losing a game in the majors. Heintzelman won only three this season while dropping nine.

Miller posted a 11-6 record for the season and was considered one of the most brilliant young pitchers in the game until he developed a sore shoulder last month. He won eight in a row before losing a game in the majors. Heintzelman won only three this season while dropping nine.

World Series Play-by-Play down with his bare hands Reynolds walked on a 3-2 pitch. Bubba Church, a righthander, got up to warm up in the Phils' bullpen. Woodling fouled to Sisler near the boxes off left field. Rizzuto lined to Ennis in right.

No runs, one hit, no errors, two left.

Ennis raised a high pop up to Mize near first base. Hamner received Reynolds' first walk, on four pitches. Hamner got Ashburn into on Reynolds and stole second base. Sisler went down swinging. It was the first time the Yankees went out in order.

No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

Fifth Inning Yankees Coleman made a sensational glove-hand stop of Gollat's infield single between first and second. Coleman's off-balance throw sailed over Mize's head but Berra's alert backing up on the play prevented Gollat from advancing. Roberts attempted to sacrifice but popped to the mound where Reynolds made a nice catch for the out as Gollat scrambled back to first. Waitkus' sharp grounder, which was headed directly at Coleman, hit the edges of the infield grass and bounced over Coleman's head into right field for a single sending Gollat to third. Woodling in medium left, Gollat scoring after the catch to give the Phils their first run of the series and a 1-1 tie in the game. It was the first run scored by Reynolds in 17 consecutive scoreless innings in 1949. Sisler fouled to first.

One run, two hits, no errors, two left.

Sixth Inning Yankees Ashburn held Brown's drive to left center to a single. Bauer fouled to Waitkus just outside the first base line. Coleman popped to Waitkus on the infield grass between the pitcher's mound and first. Reynolds hit to Ennis.

No runs, one hit, no errors, one left.

Sixth Inning Yankees DiMaggio made the spectacular running glove-hand catch of Ennis' towering smash to the right center field wall, 400 feet away. Jones lined out to short center to haul in Hamner's low looper.

No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

Seventh Inning Yankees The paid attendance was announced at 22,626, with the receipts at $17,142.36. Woodling skied to Sisler. Rizzuto walked on a 3-2 pitch. Berra filed to Ashburn who went in to catch for DiMaggio. DiMaggio fouled to Waitkus behind first base.

No runs, no hits, no errors, one left.

Seventh Inning Yankees Seminko walked on four pitches. Rizzuto walked to Ennis. Gollat hit to Berra. Church resumed warming up in the Phils' bullpen. Not a pitcher warmed up in the Yankee bullpen. With the count 2 and 2 on Gollat, Tom Ferrick, a righthander, started warming up in the Yankee bullpen. Gollat filed to Woodling in left-center. Church sat down as Roberts went in to bat for himself. Roberts laid down a neat sacrifice bunt down the first baseline and went out. Reynolds to Coleman who covered first. Waitkus sent a long liner to DiMaggio who ran back to make the catch after first misjudging the drive.

No runs, no hits, no errors, one left.

Eighth Inning Yankees Ken Silvestri went in to catch for the Phils. Mize fouled to Waitkus

Newland's Picks:

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 5-(AP)—Russ Newland's football selections:

C. of Pacific over Denver by 6. California over Penn by 16. Washington over U.C. over Washington State by 12. Oregon over Montana by 7. Idaho over Texas Western by 6. San Francisco State over Southern Oregon by 18. Northern Idaho over Central Washington by 12. Eastern Washington over Whitworth by 7. Willamette College of Idaho by 3. Lewis & Clark over Lincoln by 18. San Francisco U. over Nevada by 10.

Alderman Hunts For Good Lookers

CHICAGO (AP)—Chicago's alderman Hoellen is looking for a fence viewer. Ruth M. Peterson, a legal secretary, wrote him that she needed two fence viewers to decide who was supposed to keep up the decaying fences on her property, she or her neighbor.

Hoellen finally dug up a state statute of 1974 providing for fence viewers. He called the county board office and asked for a couple.

"Two what?" was the answer. Hoellen is still hunting.

Police Break Up Gambling, Radio

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Radio officers M. G. Hutchinson and D. K. Duggans were ordered to investigate a loud radio. "Come in," said a voice after they knocked on the specified door.

Inside, they reported, they found and arrested five men engaged in a game of draw poker. As the officers herded the men out the door en route to the jail, they thoughtfully turned off the too-loud radio.

Stylist Traces Loss of Hair to Nervousness

NEW YORK, (INS)—It seems that a hair—the kind that's on your head—can have a nervous breakdown.

This information comes from Donu Edmond, a New York hair stylist, who explains that most bald men are high-tensioned, electric types whose inability to relax tightens "feeder-line" blood vessels to the head and causes a psychosis of the scalp follicles.

"Tension is first cousin — you might call it blood relative — to anger. A sudden emergency or a constant series of them drains blood away from the brain just as in a fit of temper. Too much of that frustrates the feeding habits of the hair and causes it to leave the scalp in despair," he says.

Edmond's advice is to keep calm if you would keep a full head of hair. Failing that, he suggests that the scalp be relaxed artificially by heat. His own method consists of "boiling" the hair and scalp chemically.

He further states that, with the removal of the hyper-anxiety which characterizes the livewire, the hair not only will grow without inhibitions but may even fall into the waves that ladies reportedly love to touch.

foul to Hopp near the first base boxes. Sisler swung at and missed a fast pitch for strike one. Another fast one by Reynolds had him swinging for strike two. Sisler was called out on strikes as he made a half swing on another fast one right down the middle.

No runs, no hits, no errors, one left.

No runs, no hits, no errors, one left.

No runs, no hits, no errors, one left.

Open Friday Nite Till 9
BIG 2 DAY SALE
Of Year Round Topcoats
100% Wool
GABARDINE
Long Life
 CRAVENETTE
Rain repellent, smartly tailored, dressy and light weight.
Regular $45.00 Value
Special for 3 Days Only
$32.50
In tan, grey and brown. Sizes 34 to 44 in regulars, shorts, and longs. Once you have one you will never be without one.
Open Friday Nite Till 9 o'clock
Joe's
Upstairs
Clothes Shop
442 STATE STREET
Above Morris Optical Co.—
Next to Nohlgren's Restaurant

Grid Notes
LOS ANGELES, Oct. 5-(AP)—Southern California's Trojans wound up practice for the Washington State football game today and disclosed that three top players would not make the trip to Pullman tomorrow. Center Mercer Barnes, halfback Dean Schneider and End Winston Goller will miss the journey because of injuries.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 5-(AP)—UCLA heavy its final drill today for the important Washington game at Seattle and did it on a sloppy field. Coach Red Sanders had the practice field flooded when repeated reports reached here that rain and muddy ground was possible in the northwest this weekend.

SEATTLE, Oct. 5-(AP)—The University of Washington Huskies took off the pads today as they zipped through another workout in preparation for Saturday's game with U.C.L.A. Coach Howie Odell decided against another tough scrimmage after yesterday's prolonged scramble in the good, mud or no mud, it appears the Huskies cost passer, Don Heinrich, will be thrown the ball plenty against the Bruins. He's an old hand at wet weather work, but can do okay when it's dry, too. The Bruins ran through an easy practice today, drilling with a wet ball.

BERKELEY, Calif., Oct. 5-(AP)—Pennsylvania's hard hitting football team checked in this evening, primed for Saturday's intercollegiate tilt with University of California's up-and-coming team. The Penn team played out tomorrow morning in the Berkeley stadium, California will lumber up in the afternoon.

CORVALLIS, Ore., Oct. 5-(AP)—A wet field became almost a certainty today for Stanford's opening conference game against Oregon State here Saturday. The field, drenched by three days of rain, got more showers today. The forecast is for still more tomorrow and possibly Saturday, too. Whether this would increase Oregon State's chance for an upset was problematical. Nevertheless Stanford should have the edge on weight, and a wet field is not expected to change the heavy odds favoring the California team. Oregon State ran through an easy practice today, drilling with a wet ball.

PULLMAN, Wash., Oct. 5-(AP)—The Washington State Cougars listed important names on the injured list today as they tapered off for Saturday's Coast conference football game with Southern California. Ud Johnson and Dan Fackrell, the No. 1 and No. 2 quarterbacks, headed the list of players hurt in last week's 42 to 0 loss to UCLA. Coach Forest Evashevski said he didn't know how much, if any, the two could play Saturday.

MOSCOW, Idaho, Oct. 5-(AP)—The Idaho Vandals limbered up in a routine drill today, briefly reviewed offensive and defensive tactics, and then were proclaimed fit and ready to meet Texas Western at El Paso Saturday night. Coach Dixie Howell and 35 players will leave here by plane tomorrow morning for the nonconference football clash.

Radio Column
Gov. Douglas McKay will talk over radio station KEKX at 8:30 o'clock this evening on "Some of the Major Weaknesses," pertaining to his democratic opponent for the governorship, Sen. Austin Flegel.

HEAP BIG VALUES!
Indian Summer
SPECIALS!
GRADE AA EGGS 49c
GREEN BEANS No. 2 CAN 10c
FRESH PRODUCE
School Boy Apples Delicious & Jonathans 1.75 Bu. Box
Grapefruit 6 for 5c. doz. 49c
Cauliflower lb. 10c
Spuds No. 2 50 lbs. 85c
Green Peppers Each 1c
Grapes Concord lug 1.98

MEAT DEPARTMENT
Fresh Colored Hens lb. 35c
Picnics Swift's Premium, Fully Cooked No Fats. No Musc lb. 49c
Sliced Bacon Swift's Broken Slices, No. 1 Cello lb. 37c

Libby's TOMATO JUICE
4 4oz. Tin for 99c
Campbell's SOUPS
6 cans 80c

FRESH SEAFOODS
FRESH RAZOR CLAMS
FRESH ALBACORE STEAKS
FRESH EASTERN OYSTERS
FRESH OLYMPIA OYSTERS
FRESH PACIFIC OYSTERS
FRESH LITTLENECK CLAMS
FRESH CRABS AND CRAB MEAT
FRESH SHRIMP MEAT
FRESH PRAWNS
FRESH CHINOOK SALMON
FRESH SILVERSIDE SALMON
FRESH HALIBUT
FRESH LING COD
FRESH FILLET OF SNAPPER
FRESH FILLET OF SOLE
FRESH CATFISH
FRESH BLACK COD
SALMON TROUT
BROOK TROUT
FROG LEGS

FITTS MARKET
FISH WHOLESALE & RETAIL
216 N. Commercial
POULTRY
Phone 3-4424

SAVING CENTERS $ STORES
1/2 MILE NORTH OF UNDERPASS
PRICES EFFECTIVE THURSDAY, FRIDAY, SATURDAY, SUNDAY
WEST SALEM AT FOOT OF BRIDGE

BANISH MY D.O.*
Sunday Shower
IT CLEANS WITHOUT WASHING
Not only does SUNDAY SHOWER banish D.O., Doggy Odor, but it stops itching and scratching on your money back. Just sprinkle it on. Rub it in. Wipe clean. Kills fleas, lice, mange mites. Pine scented. At your favorite store.
CAPITAL DRUG STORE
State at Liberty "On the Corner"

RECIPE OF THE WEEK
By Mary Lee Taylor
American Cream Soup
1/2 cup finely cut onion
2 tablespoons hot shortening
2 tablespoons flour
1/2 cup milk
1/2 cup cream
4 teaspoons chopped parsley (can omit)
2 beef or chicken bouillon cubes
1 cup diced carrots
1 cup diced celery
2 cups ground American Cheese
1 1/2 cups Fat Milk
Cook onion slowly until yellow in shortening. Blend in flour, salt and pepper. Stir in water; bring to boiling. Add bouillon cubes, carrots and celery; cover and boil 20 min. or until vegetables are tender. Then add cheese and milk. Stir over low heat until cheese melts and mixture is steaming hot, but do not boil. Add parsley and serve. Makes 4 servings.
You Will Need:
Pet Milk, American Cheese, Onion, Beef Bouillon Cubes, Carrots and Celery.

ONCE IN A LIFETIME VALUE!
matched set of 3
knives with lifetime edges
Certified $5.00 Value $1.00
with 2 wrappers or handles from any Lover soap
LIFEBUOY - LUX TOILET SOAP
RINSO - LUX FLAKES - SWAN SILVER DUST - SURF

RINSO 59c Large Size
RINSO 29c Large Size
LUX TOILET SOAP 23c Bath Size
LUX TOILET SOAP 23c Regular Size
SWAN 27c Large Size
LUX FLAKES 29c Large Size
LIFEBUOY 27c Health Soap
Silver Dust 29c Large Size
SWAN 25c Regular Size
Surf 29c Large Size
Buy MJB Coffee Today!
Pet Milk
2 tall cans 23c
"You can't make a bad cup of MJB"
OPEN EVERY DAY FROM 9 A. M. TO 9 P. M.