Clara Alfretha Porter
HUBBARD—Funeral services for Mrs. Clara Alfretha Porter, 77, who was killed Thursday when struck by a Southern Pacific train, will be held at 2 p.m. Saturday from the Ringo mortuary in Woodburn. The Rev. Mr. Hastie of the Hubbard Gospel church will officiate with interment at Hubbard cemetery.

Mrs. Porter was born Sept. 24, 1873, in Missouri and came to Oregon in 1934. She had resided recently with her daughter, Mrs. Pearl Hunsaker of Hubbard. She had been a member of the Baptist church for 60 years.

Survivors include a son, Earl Porter, in Arkansas; daughters, Mrs. Mertie Ellis in Missouri; Mrs. Jennie McCoy, Aurora; Mrs. Velma Rogan, Sumner, Wash.; Mrs. Gladys Critts, Canby; and Mrs. Pearl Hunsaker, Hubbard; four sisters, Mrs. Lelia Parks, Denver, Colo.; and Mrs. Laura Fisher, Mrs. Densie Hatfield and Mrs. Emma Meadow, all of Missouri; 21 grandchildren and 28 great-grandchildren.

War Veterans Study Farming Course at New High School

TURNER—On-the-farm training for war veterans is being offered for the first time this year at Cascade Union high school at Turner.

Darrell C. Shepherd is director of the new program which now includes an enrollment of 19 veterans. Five new members will be enrolled November with future enrollment dates scheduled March 1 and July 1 of 1951.

The course is designed to assist farmers in becoming acquainted with latest farming procedures. Classes are held once each week at the high school and a field trip is planned once each month. The course will include instruction in soils, fertilizers, feeds, feeding, record keeping, farm shop, weed control and marketing.

The classes are open to all veterans of World War II who either own or rent a farm or who are employed full time on a farm. Enrollees are eligible for GI bill training benefits. The local course is part of a state-wide training program.

Shepherd has been directing activities in this area since July 1. A native of Oregon, he is a graduate of Oregon State college and served three years in the army tank corps during World War II. He announced that anyone interested in the training program should contact the Cascade school as soon as possible.
