Homecoming At Willamette

By Jerzyne English
ALUMNI RETURN . . . Each day we hear of more Willamette university alumni who will be home this weekend for the annual homecoming festivities. The dedication of the new McCulloch stadium and the Willamette-Hawaii game Saturday afternoon are attracting a number of the grads back to the campus. . . . There is a full schedule of events on the agenda. . . . a preview tour of the stadium in the morning, registration, alumni luncheon at noon. . . . reception following the game for the alumni, and the homecoming dance in the evening. . . . Dr. and Mrs. G. Herbert Smith will be hosts for a dinner party following the game at University House for a group of out-of-town guests here for the stadium dedication. . . .

From Spokane . . . will come the Dwight Adams and their three children, Gordon, Dwight and Carol. . . . they are driving down and will attend their first homecoming since graduation. . . . while here they will make their headquarters at the home of her parents, the Gordon Blacks. . . . The senior Blacks have just received word that their son, Captain Gordon Black, USMC, is leaving today for a new assignment at LeJeune, North Carolina. . . . He will be accompanied by his wife and two children, Diane and Taylor. . . . They have been at Camp Pendleton, Calif. and are driving cross country. . . . Gordon will take further training in anti-aircraft at LeJeune. . . .

Also returning . . . to Willamette for homecoming will be Dr. and Mrs. G. G. Forbes and daughter, Betty, of Milwaukee. . . . After the homecoming luncheon and game they will be dinner guests of Mrs. Nora Thompson, a sister of Mrs. Forbes and Mrs. Olson. . . . The Neil Shaffers plan to be down from Kent, Wash. . . . Mr. and Mrs. George Montgomery will be here from Portland as guests of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Potts. . . . Also from Portland will come the junior Joseph Harvey. . . . he is president of the Portland Willamette alumni, the Thorne Hammonds and Kenneth Mannings, all former Salem residents. . . .

Visitors of note. . . . The Harry E. Ashfords and daughter, Sarah, of Seaside are here this week visiting her parents, the Franklin Bishops. . . . They will spend the weekend in Portland with friends and attend the Washington-Oregon State game. . . .

Expected . . . in Salem Friday to be guests of the C. W. Parkers will be the W. E. Chandlers of Bend, formerly of Salem. . . . they will stop here enroute to Portland to attend the Oregon State-Washington game on Saturday. . . .

From Boise . . . this weekend will come Donna Lockheed, daughter of the John S. Lockheads. . . . She will be here for the wedding of Patricia Hale and Dean Allport on Saturday. . . . Donna, who has been living in Boise since July, will be accompanied by her parents on the return trip. . . .

Invitations . . . are in the mail to a tea for which Mrs. George Rossman will be hostess on Friday, October 20 at her North Capitol street home in compliment to Mrs. Custer Ross who leaves on a year's trip to Africa and Europe in November. . . .

Newcomers . . . being greeted are Dr. and Mrs. James Seacat and daughter, Laura, who recently arrived in the capital from Nashville, Tenn., where he completed his residency in surgery. . . . They are temporarily residing at the home of his uncle and aunt, A. H. Nohlgrens, until they find living accommodations. . . . At the present the Nohlgrens are on an extended motor trip visiting relatives and friends in South Dakota, Tennessee, Illinois and Indiana. . . . they plan to be away until the end of the month. . . .

Tea, Dance on Auxiliary Slate
Reports of various activities of Salem Unit 136 of the American Legion auxiliary were given at a business meeting held Tuesday evening at the Salem Woman's club, Mrs. Ted Ullakko, president, presiding.

Long-lasting Relief for Itchy Skin Irritation
Here's a tip! So many people depend on Resinol Ointment to relieve itching skin of dryness, eczema, chafing, common rash, it must be used. At all drug stores. The cure is small—relief is great. 10¢

Mrs. Wilbert Ladd (Bette Jean Bradley) whose fall marriage took place at the First Congregational church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bradley of Rose Lodge and the groom is the son of Mrs. Ruth Ladd of Wichita, Kansas and Chester A. Ladd of Salem. (Steimons Studio)
