number one in three league goes. Salem had been tied with the Mil-lers for the bottom spot before last night's game.

Viking scoring was concentrat-ed in the final quarter, as Coach Loren Mort's charges tried vainly to overcome a 12-0 Miller lead built up in the first half. Initiating the scoring for the locals fell in the hands of safety-man Burt Harp who raised the Salem stock con-siderably by returning a Spring-field punt 52 yards for a touchdown, early in the fourth quarter. Harp took the punt on his own 46 and charged straight up the field to the Miller's 30 where he was apparently stopped. But at the last moment he spun out of the grasp of several would be tacklers, broke for the sidelines and raced unmolested into the end zone.

Team captain Dick Peterson laid the key block that set Harp on his way. Harp also added the extra point that made the count stand at 12-7 with about ten minutes remaining in the game.

With some five minutes left to play the Viks got a real threat brewing when they gained possession of the ball on a Springfield fumble that was recovered by Pe-terson on the visitor's 37. Gene Jones tore off gains of 32 and 5 yards with a two-yard plunge by Johnny Gundran sandwiched in between, placing the ball on the Miller eight yard line.

On the next play Jones fumbled and Springfield made the recovery.

After three line plays failed to gain for the Millers, they indulged in some fancy strategy, purposely giving Salem's safety, rather than giving the Vikings a chance at blocking a punt for a TD.

The Millers dominated the play in the first half, scoring once in ach of the first two periods. Saeach of the first two paring kickoff and after rolling up two first downs was forced to punt. Spring-field took over the ball on its own 16 yard line and in 10 plays marched 84 yards to a touchdown.

The drive was higlighted by a 17 yard pass and run play from 17 yard pass and run play from Ployd Burright to J. C. Johnson, putting the ball on the Salem 22. Four plays later they had driven to the Vik four, and a quick pass from Burright to quarterback Carl Burright to quarterback Carl Bour connected for the score. Burright's placement try was short.

Late in the second quarter Harp was rushed badly on a punt and had it partially blocked, resulting in Miller possession of the ball on the Viking 32 yard line. Once more Springfield took to the air, this time a 26-yard aerial play from Doug Bridges to Bour gain-ed a first down on the six. George Bilderback skirted right end on the next play for the score, with the same bothersome Mr. Bour laying the key block. This time Burright's kick was wide.

third. Odgers again passed to Pav-licek, this time for eight yards, to give the Bulldegs a 24-0 margin at the half. The aerial combine Salem was never able to put a at the half. The aerial combine sustained drive togther all eve-ning, never placing more than two in the fourth and Merie Schultz climaxed the Woodburn seoring with a 55-yard return of a punt. Odgers and Hal De Shon got the first downs in any one single ef-fort. Happiest moment of the eve-ning for the more than 1500 home fans was the fine halftime entertainment put on by the Salem High band.
