Vikings Romp to 19-6 Victory over Lebanons

Losing Skein Now Shattered

Gene Jones Offensive Standout in Struggle

LEBANON, Oct. 20 -(Special)- Salem high's Vikings cut loose with two touchdowns in the second half tonight and wound up with a 19-6 football victory over Lebanon, their initial win of the season. The Salems led 7-6 at halftime in the mud-spattered struggle and were battling to keep the Warriors from scoring at the end of the clash while a dense fog shrouded the field.

Salem		Lebanon
228	Yards gained rushing	180
17	Yards lost rushing	34
0	Passes attempted	3
0	Passes completed	0
0	Passes had intercepted	2
13	Total first downs	10
40	Yards lost penalties	0
0	Avg. length punts	34
0	Yards punt returns	0

The win brought to a finish a four-game losing streak for the big Salem eleven.

Midway in the first quarter the Vikings drove hard to the Lebanon 16 before being held. But in the Warrior series of plays Sammy Gilbert fumbled and Salem recovered. Captain Dick Peterson of the Viks then tore over right guard and went the 16 yards to score. Burt Harp placekicked the point and Salem led 7-0.

The Warriors fought back in the second frame with a drive of their own. It was right halfback Dean Smith who finally went over from the 1-foot line to make it 7-6. The conversion try, a running play, failed.

Lebanon's Gilbert had in the first period ripped off a 48-yard run through the Salem defense, but the Vikings held on their 12 yard line.

Halfback Gene Jones took over most of the Salem offensive in the third period and scored on a 12-yard scamper around right end after taking a handoff from Quarterback Buzz Covalt. Harp's try failed.

Salem again opened a drive in the fourth period and it was Jones doing most of the carrying again as the Viks displayed their best offensive of the season. Jones went 21 yards to score, but a penalty nullified it. Then after starting from the Lebanon 26, Deb Davis made 10 yards, Johnny Gundran nine, Jones three and one, and Gundran three. Jones again scored but another penalty pushed the Salems back.

Burt Harp finally plunged over for the Salem touchdown but missed the conversion try.

The last four minutes of the game was played in a dense fog, so bad the 800 spectators could hardly see the action. Lebanon was on the Salem four when the gun sounded.

So much mud was mixed in with the clash that Salem tried nary a single pass. Also, the Vikings never were forced to punt in the struggle. Lebanon tried three passes but had two of them intercepted.

Salem outgained the Warriors in total yardage gained, 223 to 180.

Indians Liked In Bruin Mix

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 20-(AP)- Triumphant four times this season over mediocre foes, the Stanford Indians face their first bonafide opposition tomorrow against the UCLA Bruins in Memorial coliseum.

The Stanfords arrived yesterday and staged a brisk workout at Brookside park in Pasadena.

For the first time this year, an assortment of injuries has consigned some regulars to the limited duty list, but the Indians are still favored to whip the twice-beaten Bruins by at least a touchdown.

The weather man promised sun and smog for the contest, billed as the foremost attraction in the Pacific Coast conference this week.

UCLA will take the field with its first string in better shape physically, but Stanford has a decided advantage in reserve strength.

Winning Ways Finally Stopped . . .

Rangers Fight Woodburn To Scoreless Deadlock

ESTACADA, Oct. 20-(Special)-Woodburn high's all-victorious march through the Willamette Valley football league was finally stopped tonight by a fighting Estacada Rangers team which held the favored Blue Bulldogs to a scoreless tie. The game was played in much mud and fog, and despite no touchdowns had its thrills.

Woodburn scored in the second quarter when Andy Rice scrambled over from four yards out.

WILLAMETTE VALLEY LEAGUE	W	L	T	Pct.		W	L	T	Pct.
Wodbrn	4	0	1	1.000	Dallas	3	2	0	.600
Silvertn	3	1	1	.750	Sandy	1	3	1	.250
Estacada	3	1	1	.750	Mt.Angel	1	4	0	.200
Canby	3	2	0	.600	Molalla	0	5	0	.000

But an offside penalty nullified the score. The Bulldogs had driven to the Estacada five in the first period and were held there. Another drive bogged down on the 10 later in the game.

Estacada got within Woodburn's 10 only once, but to no avail.

Then with 40 seconds left in the game Monty Nicholson's Estacada pass was intercepted by Len Pavlicek of the Bulldogs on the Woodburn 38. The big Woodburn halfback ran clear to the Ranger 16 before he was brought down by Dwayne Meeker in a game-saving tackle.

The two teams fought on fairly even terms most of the tilt.

Foxes, Sandy Deadlock 7-7

SANDY, Oct. 20 - (Special)- Silverton's Silver Foxes got a surprise tonight as they were held to a 7-7 tie by Sandy's Pioneers in a Willamette Valley league contest.

In fact the Foxes were lucky to gain a deadlock as they squeaked over the tying touchdown in the last two minutes after Sandy had tallied earlier in the final quarter. Jim Louce plunged over from the two for the Salverton TD and also bucked for the extra point which brought the tie score. Jim Cythers got the Sandy score on a plunge and Bob Farmer collected the conversion via a pass from Weiselfer.

Sportsmen Want 'Burn' Closed

McMINNVILLE, Oct. 20 -(AP)- A recommendation that the Tillamook burn be closed to gun hunting of deer will be presented to the Central Willamette Sportsmen's council at a meeting in Albany Oct. 30. The proposal was made here last night at a meeting of the Yamhill County Sportsmen's association in an effort to build up the dwindling deer population.

Three Special Hunts Okayed

PORTLAND, Oct. 20 -(AP)- The state game commission today authorized three special deer hunts in areas where agriculture damage by deer has been reported.

One is in the Silverton Hills area east of Silverton. Eight hundred permits will be issued for the hunt, which will be Dec. 3-5. Applications must be made by Oct. 27. Both does and bucks will be hunted.

The Burnt river district south of Baker also will have a special season, Dec. 3-5, with 300 permits issued for antlerless deer.

The third hunt will be Dec. 2-5 in the White river country of northern Wasco county, where 300 permits for does will be issued.

Rooks Larrup Ducklings 23-7

CORVALLIS, Oct. 20-(AP)-The Oregon State Rooks, sparked by Halfback Dave Mann, defeated the Oregon Frosh 23-7 here today.

Mann of Oakland, Calif., raced 67 yards to score one touchdown and 42 yards for another. Hogan Garesi, Boston, Mass., scored the other OSC touchdown on a quarterback sneak. Kaye Booth, Portland, kicked the three extra points. George Cockerton, Walnut Creek, Calif., blocked an Oregon punt to score a safety for the Rooks.

Oregon's only touchdown came two minutes before the end of the game on a 58-yard pass play from Barney Holland, Coos Bay, to Jack Morris, Medford.

Vik, Molalla Harriers Win

JEFFERSON, Oct. 20-(Special) -Salem high runners won the senior division of the Jefferson Cross-Country meet here Thursday and Molalla copped the junior division.

The first 10 finishers (in order) in the senior division were Adams, Salem; Casebeer, Salem; Childs, Corvallis; Hamman, Salem; Dye, Jefferson; Glasgow, Salem; Sialer, Molalla; Wallace, Molalla; Tierce, Jefferson, and Specht, Jefferson. Winning time was 10:20.

Rickey of Salem was first in the junior division in 12:13. Team scores: Senior division—Salem 25, Molalla 55, Jefferson 75, Corvallis 94, North Marion 184. Junior division — Molalla 26, Salem 32, Jefferson 69 and North Marion 98.

Central Punches Concordia 39-0

INDEPENDENCE, Oct. 20— (Special) — Central union high school racked its third win of the grid season tonight with a one-sided 39-0 whipping of Concordia of Portland. Allan Posey, Gordon Hinshaw and Mel Lytle each picked up two touchdowns for the winners and Posey and Hinshaw each added a couple of extra points.

Longest scoring run of the day was Hinshaw's 34-yard romp in the third quarter.

Loop Again to Fight Major Draft

PCL Chieftains Decide To Clamp Down on TV

By Russ Newland

OAKLAND, Calif., Oct. 20-(AP) Pacific Coast league directors agreed today to either clamp restrictions on television or eliminate it entirely in their baseball games next season unless they reach "an equitable" financial solution with video interests.

The league moguls, concluding their annual winter meeting, thus paved the way for a clear field in future negotiations for the licensing of television rights. They will continue the discussion at the major-minor leagues meeting in St. Petersburg, Fla., Dec. 4.

Coast league games the last season were televised to some extent in the Los Angeles-Hollywood area and in lesser degree in the Oakland-San Francisco sector. The directors, while expressing the belief that the telecasts had hurt their business at the gate, were believed to be eyeing the future in their decision to arrange suitable terms, by next season.

An overall agreement for the league may be proposed. At present, each club makes its own television deal.

The league heads reaffirmed their opposition to the major league draft, which now permits the taking of one eligible player for $10,000. Leslie O'Connor, legal representative of the Coast circuit, turned in a private report on his negotiations to eliminate this triple A loop from the draft.

O'Connor and President Clarence Rowland will press the matter again in a meeting with a committee from the major leagues in Cincinnati Oct. 31. The Coast league has been turned down several times already.

In fact there have been so many refusals that three club directors Clarence Laws, Oakland; George Norgan, Portland, and Paul Fagan, San Francisco, voted yesterday to operate as an independent league unless the majors agreed to eliminate the draft. They were outvoted by the other five directors who urged that negotiations be carried on until "the cause was hopeless."

Mustang-Rice Mix Feature Today; Cadets, Oklahoma Face Mild Threats

By Will Grimsley

NEW YORK, Oct. 20-(AP)- Army and Oklahoma subject their unbeaten streaks to only mild pressure tomorrow while conference battles hold the attention of college football fans.

West Point's Black Knights, unconquered in 23 games, throw their awesome attack at deemphasized Harvard in Cambridge, Mass.

Oklahoma's Sooners, boasting a 24-game winning string, play battered Kansas State at Norman, Okla. Several Oklahoma bench warmers figure to get their suits dirty for the first time.

While the nation's No. 1 and No. 2 powers are thus occupied, other ranking teams will be sweating out difficult conference and intersectional assignments.

This is a big week-end for league play with the southwest again providing the headliner in the night conflict at Houston between Southern Methodist's third - ranked Mustangs and Rice's defending Southwest conference champions. Both are unbeaten and untied.

The Mustangs and Rice are favored to battle it out for conference honors along with Texas, the well-heeled giant that lost in the fading minutes last week to Oklahoma. Texas entertains Arkansas. Another southwest game has Texas Christian at Texas A. and M.

The Big Ten, which furnishes the Pacific coast opposition in the Rose Bowl, offers three league games that will go a long way toward determining the 1950 choice for Pasadena. Michigan, stunned by Michigan State and then walloped by Army outside the conference, will open its league campaign against Wisconsin, winner of three in a row, at Ann Arbor. Purdue will play at Iowa and Ohio State at Minnesota.

Notre Dame, the eleventh ranking team in the country—the first time in years the Irish have been rated so low—tackles Indiana of the Big Ten. Frank Leahy's South Benders will be out to make up some of the prestige they lost when they dropped a decision to Purdue two weeks ago.

Illinois will take on one of the Pacific coast's titans—unbeaten, untied Washington—at Champaign, Ill., in one of the several good intersectional frays. The Huskies, featuring Fullback Hugh McElhenny, have won four games, scoring more than 20 points in each.

Kentucky's Wildcats, No. 4 in the national rankings, come north to engage Villanova. Southern California sweeps all the way across the continent to meet thrice-whipped Navy at Baltimore. Penn State travels to Nebraska.

Alabama and Tennessee, each beaten once, tangle at Knoxville in a game that generally rocks the countryside for miles around and often produces a major bowl candidate.

The Southeastern conference has a heavy schedule with Florida at unbeaten Vanderbilt, Auburn at Georgia Tech, Georgia at Louisiana State and Mississippi at Tulane. Over in the Southern conference, two passminded teams—Wake Forest and George Washington—clash with the league lead at stake. Each has won three of four games. Neither is beaten in the conference. Duke is at Richmond, VMI at Virginia, North Carolina State at Maryland, William and Mary at Virginia Tech and Washington and Lee at Davidson. Virginia is non-conference.

Cornell, favored for the Ivy league title, plays surprising unblemished Yale at Ithaca, N. Y., to feature an attractive eastern schedule. Powerful Penn invades Columbia while unbeaten, untied Princeton goes to Brown.

Huskies Face Strong Illini

Big Ten Grid Club Rated Slim Favorite

CHAMPAIGN, Ill., Oct. 20-(AP)- A powerful University of Washington offense meets one of the nation's best defenses tomorrow when the Huskies play slightly favored Illinois in an intersectional football game.

Coach Howie Odell's crew comes to the midwest with a record of four straight victories and a scoring average of slightly more than four touchdowns a game.

The Illini attack has been erratic through two wins and one loss but they've held opponents to 99 yards in rushing gains and 43 yards from passes.

The power running of versatile Hugh McElhenny and the passing of T-Quarterback Don Heinrich have featured Washington's offense. Coach Ray Eliot's Illinois quarterbacks Fred Major and Don Engels have been working on improving their passing this week. A forecast of rain, however, may keep both teams on the ground.

Rainbows Whip Coyotes 43-14

CALDWELL, Idaho, Oct. 20-(AP) The University of Hawaii Rainbows ran wild in the last half to crush the College of Idaho football team 43 to 14 tonight.

After a sluggish first period, both teams erupted with two touchdowns in the second period. But the islanders poured it on in the third period, counting 22 points and adding another touchdown in the final period. Jimmy Asato broke loose on a 65-yard gallop early in the second quarter and the Hawaiians counted again a couple minutes later when Ken Kahooie passed to Dick Carpenter on a 45-yard pass play.

The Coyotes took the kickoff and capped a 69-yard touchdown drive with Lavon Scott's 29-yard touchdown gallop.

Dallas Pounds Molalla 41-0

MOLALLA, Oct. 20-(Special)- The Dallas Dragons surged to a 41-0 victory over the hapless Molalla Indians tonight in a Willamette Valley league fracas. It was Molalla's fifth straight setback.

The Dragons scored in every quarter, notching two in both the opening and last heats.

Ed Brandli registered three of the Dallas touchdowns as a climax to long drives. Other Dragon TD scorers were Lynn Luthe, Wes Ediger, Bruce Sjolund, Don Fischer and George Curtis. Brandli, Ediger, Sjolund, Fischer and Tilgner also got conversion points.

The only Molalla threat of the game carried to the enemy nine in the second quarter.

Cascade Eleven Tops Vik JV's

TURNER, Oct. 20 - (Special) Cascade union high's footballers nosed out the Salem high Jayvees today, 6-0, on the strength of a last-minute aerial from Orville Speer to Marvin Shafer. Breaking the scoreless deadlock, Speer passed to Shafer from the Salem 12 for the lone touchdown. The Vik seconds uncorked a couple of strong threats during the tilt, getting to the five once and to the eight another time.

Crusaders End Losing Skein

GASTON, Oct. 20—(Special)— Salem Academy's Crusaders, now under the mentorship of Dale Parnell, today ended a losing streak which had carried over three seasons and 17 games as they soundly trounced Gaston high's crew, 25-7.

The Crusader gang, which had long since forgotten what a win looks like, started creeping toward their first one in many a moon in the second quarter when Chester Schmidt went over from 20 yards out on a Statute of Liberty play. In the third heat Schmidt, a torrid man today, intercepted an enemy aerial and romped 50 yards to paydirt. That offset a TD Gaston got in the same quarter. Harvey Wall got the third Crusader score on a short line plunge and a 30-yard pass from Dave Doerksen to brother Jim Doerksen brought the finale in the fourth chapter. Dave Knupp picked up the lone Crusader conversion point.

Willamette Coaches Not Superstitious But---

Sacred Heart Gridders Snare 13-7 Win Over Stayton Outfit

Sacred Heart's Cardinals made an auspicious start in Marion-Polk league grid action last night at Waters park as they snared a 13-7 victory over Stayton's Packers, one of the pre-season favorites to cop the loop bunting.

Don Vandervort's Cards tallied touchdowns in the first and final quarters and Stayton pushed over its lone TD in the third.

The initial SHA score came as End Jim Dempewolf flopped on a Packer fumble in the end zone. The Cards had driven 60 yards to the enemy five where they lost the ball on downs but on the following play a Stayton back bobbled the ball and Dempewolf was Johnny-on-the-spot.

The Staytons came back to tie in the third quarter as Don Kirsch jaunted 25 yards to cap a 75-yard march. Cox's conversion made it 7-7.

But then in the last heat, with two minutes left, Captain Terry Cooney of the Cards passed 30 yards to John Hoy for the winner.

The result left the Cards with three wins, two losses and a tie in six starts.

Eugene Downs Albany 25-13

ALBANY, Oct. 20-(Special)- Albany's Bulldogs got off to a 13-0 first period lead tonight in their Big Six football classic with Eugene's undefeated Axemen, but then succumbed to a four-touchdown assault and went down 25-13.

Cub Sexton of the Bulldogs went over for both Albany touchdowns after Eugene fumbles were recovered on the one and 25-yard lines, respectively. John Tobin made the lone conversion.

Sharp passes from Quarterback Wally Russell to Hank Hudspeth and Al Ruhlman gave Eugene two touchdowns in the second quarter, but neither conversion try clicked and Albany led 13-12 at halftime.

Swift Merritt Barber took care of that at the start of the second half, however. He took the kickoff and ran it to a touchdown. Then in the fourth frame Jerry Aiken ran over the final score.

JV Player Gets Fractured Leg

Harry Epperly, performer on the Salem high Jayvee football team, sustained a leg fracure in the Vik seconds' losing venture against Cascade union high school's team on the enemy grid Friday.

The lad was injured near the midway point of the tilt but because of lack of an ambulance couldn't be moved to a Salem hospital until nearly an hour after the windup of the tilt. He was reported resting well last night.

Battered WU Club Underdog In Key Clash

Willamette's Bearcats face their toughest test of the season and at the same time see their unbeaten streak placed on extremely thin ice as tey today collide with Joe Huston's formidable Lewis and Clark Pioneers, 2 o'clock, at Portland's Vaughn Street park in a fracas which will probably be the big factor in determining the 1950 king of the Northwest Conference.

Willamette Mentor Chester Stackhouse announced late last night that neither Captain and Guard Chuck Bowe nor Guard Jim McHale will be in uniform for today's tilt with Lewis and Clark. A special cast has been made for the bad ankle of Tackle Art Beddoe and if it proves satisfactory the WU line bulwark may see some action today.

At full strength Coach Chester Stackhouse's Bearcats would have been rated underdogs to the power-packed and reserve-loaded Pioneers—so WU chances against the Portlanders appear mighty slim when considering that the Stackhouse gang is burdened by its longest injury list of the season to date.

Two big men in the forward wall, Tackle Art Beddoe and Guard and Captain Chuck Bowe are destined for little or no action today because of stubborn leg and ankle injuries. A physician's report Friday gave Beddoe, perhaps the top bulwark in the 'Cat line, little chance of making much trouble for the Huston crew.

The forward wall picture is further darkened by late injuries to Jim McHale and John Skimas who were slated to start at the guard and flank positions today. Skimas is reportedly definitely out with a bad leg and McHale may possibly start but won't be at his best because of a knee injury. Tackle Don Hosford is on the rebound from an ailing hand and should see some major duty against the Pioneers.

Up to last night Stackhouse was not certain as to who his backfield starters will be today. Al Minn and Keith Sperry, two of the Bearcats' standout ball carriers, are on the bounce-back from injuries to knee and ankle and should get in their whacks against the L-C's but may not start. In the event Stackhouse holds back on 'em the opening backfield lineup likely will be Freshman star Rick Bingham at the quarter slot, Paul Jewell at fullback and Bob Taylor and Bill Ewaliko at the halves.

Willamette's hope against the Pioneers will be to out-touchdown the Portlanders via speed and Bingham's aerials.

The Pioneers will field a pulverizing power attack as carried in the legs of Little All-America candidate Reuben (The Tank)

Blues, Cards Still Unbeaten

The Leslie Blues and the Parrish Cardinals stormed over opponents Friday for their third straight wins in Junior high football action. The Blues, mentored by Walt Dickson, whipped the Salem Giants, 34-0 and Bob Metzger's Cardinals handed it to the Parrish Greys a 31-7 count.

The two leaders clash next week in the final round of the regular schedule, after which a five-team playoff will be launched.

The Blues pounded over a pair of touchdowns in both the first and second quarters as they amassed their big margin over the Giants. Mike Campbell got the first two on runs of 25 and seven yards and Floyd Trussell romped for the other three, one via a 78-yard dash. Trussell Gene Johnson and Chuck Puhlman hit the conversions, the latter getting two. A 71-yard scoring scamper by Campbell in the fourth period was nullified by a penalty.

The strongest West Salem threat came in the closing minutes on a 65-yard pass play from Bill Barnett to Jim Turner which carried to the enemy 10. The Giants couldn't push the ball over, however.

Little Eddie Costello was big gun in the Cardinal win, chalking three six-pointers on runs of 20, 40 and 60 yards. A Ron Whitaker to Paul Beck pass brought another and Gordon Elwood accounted for the final Card tallies. Doyle Porter got the lone Card conversion.

Junior Pearce scored the only Greys TD on a five-yard plunge in the third quarter and David Tom bucked for the point.

Dayton Trounces Sherwood, 32-0

DAYTON, Oct. 20-(Special)- Dayton stormed over Sherwood, 32-0, today in a Ya-Wa-Ma league grid tilt, with 19 of the tallies coming in the second quarter. Passes from Jerry Allen to LaMont Mathews accounted for two of the victors' touchdowns, Kay Ames, Howard Putnam and Allen tallied the other Dayton TD's, Allen's coming on an aerial from Bill Sherman.
