

Yamhill County Youth Rally Near Willamina Draws Record Crowds

WILLAMINA — A county youth rally was held this week at the Christian church, with 154 present. Delegations were present from the Newberg, Yamhill and McMinnville churches, besides the Willamina church. There were 42 persons from Newberg which had the largest outside delegation and 60 from the Willamina church. The speaker for the meeting was William Richardson, a professor of Northwest Christian college in Eugene. Group singing was led by Kaye Shetterly with Alta Kohn acting as accompanist. Following the meeting refreshments of cookies and cider was served by Mrs. Harley Mishler, Mrs. Leo Woodruff and Mrs. Jess Myers.

The Ninety and Nine Men's group of the Christian church here will be hosts Monday night for a Mother and Daughter banquet which will be served at 6:30 p.m. The Rev. L. F. Furman, pastor of the Assembly of God church, will be the speaker of the evening. He will talk about his missionary work in Africa and show colored slides. The men's quartet of the church will sing several selections.

The PTA will put on a play soon entitled "You Can't Take It With You," and the cast is now practicing four nights a week under the direction of Mrs. Ellen Fox.

The ministers association here will give a dinner Friday evening in honor of the new ministers and their families who have arrived here in the past several months.

Mrs. George Gayken, leader of the Brownie Scouts here, announces that they will meet Saturday afternoon at the Christian church.

The Community Garden club met Wednesday afternoon, October 18, at the home of Mrs. Bessie Lamson. The president, Sadie Brock, was absent so Mrs. Thelma Edwards acted in her place. Mrs. Edwards also gave a talk on perennials, their culture and diseases. Mrs. Lida Shipley and Mrs. Blanche Yoast joined the club as new members. Mrs. Edythe Richardson and Mrs. Emma Shipley, who are on the program committee, announced that the new programs would be ready at the time of the next meeting on Wednesday, November 15.

The Past Noble Grand's club met Thursday evening at the home of Mamie Edmiston with Thelma Edwards as co-hostess. Attending were Leola Noreen, Geraldine McNamar, Mary Young, Hazel Olson, Amy Fox, Bessie Lamson, May Norris and the hostesses.

The Grand Ronde Extension unit is announcing a masquerade dance and a pie social which will be held Friday evening, October 27, at 8:30 p.m. at the Grand Ronde Agency hall. The price will be $1 a couple and prizes will be given for the best costume. The dance is arranged by the finance committee and the money will be given to the Azalea house fund.

The next regular meeting of the PTA will be held November 7 at the grade school building beginning at 8 p.m. It will be an open house and a hobby show. Hobbies will be on display in the library and will include hobbies of metal arts, handcraft, wood craft, needlework and others. There will be collector items also including shoes, cups, salt and pepper shakers, etc., and also a showing of antiques. A moving picture entitled "Pop Rings the Bell" will be shown. The membership drive of the PTA will get under way next week.

Lady and Her 'Friendly' Pet

NEW ORLEANS — Mariah Quenau, 19, Loyola university student, is shown playing with a six-month-old ocelot her father brought from Columbia, in a garden at her home here. (AP Wirephoto to The Statesman.)

Superstition Hurts Pregnant Women

SINGAPORE — (P) — Pregnant Malay women and nursing mothers in Kedah State, in North Malaya, who believe the eating of green vegetables and drinking of water make them less attractive to their husbands are causing medical authorities serious concern.

The Kedah government reports that the health of these women is seriously impaired by lack of a balanced diet. The Malay husbands also share the belief, which makes it even more difficult to prove the falsity of their fears, the report said.

TIRE MILEAGE

AKRON, O. — (INS) — Do you want to get more mileage out of your automobile tires? If so, the B. F. Goodrich company of Akron, O., advises you to: (1) use care in starting and stopping your car, (2) keep your car speed down to about 40 miles an hour (3) inflate tires properly and (4) rotate tires from wheel to wheel.

BIRD TALK

PHILADELPHIA — (INS) — The Philadelphia zoo has come up with a walkie-talkie "Wolf-Bird." The zoo said it has received in a shipment of birds, four talking Mynahs which give out with shrill wolf whistles, say "Hello Joe" and "Nighty-Night."

FOR Insured Savings

SEE First Federal Savings First Current Dividend 2 1/4% 1st Federal Savings and Loan Ass'n. 142 So. Liberty

Church Group Plans Dinner At Mt. Angel

MT. ANGEL — A ham dinner will be served in St. Mary's dining hall next Sunday, October 22, from 12 noon to 2 p.m., by the Seminary Mother's club. The public is invited.

Proceeds from the dinner will go towards the purchase of an automatic washing machine and dryer for the use of the students of Mt. Angel seminary.

Mrs. Fred Baumgartner of Mt. Angel is chairman of the committee making all arrangements. Mrs. Odella Park, president of Rockaway, president of the club, will be here to assist both on Saturday and on Sunday.

Helping with the serving and work will be the mothers of seminarians from Mt. Angel, Salem, Portland, Woodburn, Tillamook, Beaverton and Forest Grove.

The seminarians enrolled at Mt. Angel seminary this year numbers 150 students, the largest number in the history of the school.

Fifth Graders Hosts at Party In Jefferson

JEFFERSON — The pupils of the fifth grade invited their mothers and friends to a get-together party last Friday afternoon. Two tables with floral arrangements of book titles were prepared by committees of two pupils for each arrangement.

Although there was no competition, many seemed to like the way "Mrs. Wizard of Cabbage" Martha Ann Wynd used four stalks of the Red Hot Poker plant with a Chinese figurine, silk drapery and real fire crackers to show "The Magic Firecrackers."

Moving pictures were shown by Mrs. C. R. Watts, assisted by Harold and Ed. Refreshments were served after the pictures. Mrs. W. F. Gulvin was assisted by Mrs. N. D. Bradley and Mrs. Clarence Page, and a committee of girls.

Used Property Up for Bids At Detroit

DETROIT — Seven lots of used property located at the Detroit dam project have been offered for sale to the highest bidders by the Portland district, corps of engineers.

The property includes 327 electrical fittings; 200 two by four-foot floor rugs; several hundred plumbing fittings and windows of various sizes; telephone equipment; five drills, axes, loading anchor chains; oil burning heating stoves and other items; six drawing boards, chairs and desks and 80 mattresses.

Bids for the property will be opened at 11 a.m. October 30 in room 678, Pittcock block, Portland.

Greta Garbo Loses War of Billboards

VIENNA — (P) — Greta Garbo has lost to the Russians an east-west war of billboards in Vienna. Garbo's anti-communist film "Ninotchka" recently was announced as coming to Vienna for the first time to show the Viennese what communism is like.

A Soviet officer marched into Vienna's only billboard firm. He demanded 38 huge advertising spaces. The firm, threatened with reprisals, agreed. Two days later, the spaces displayed Russian announcements of the anti-west film, "The Fall of Berlin."

"Ninotchka" western promoters relied on newspaper announcements. Tickets for Garbo, an old favorite of the Viennese, already are sold out for weeks in advance.

CAR HOME

LONDON — (INS) — British auto manufacturers have launched a powerful drive for the dollar markets with new-type luxury commercial vehicles. At an exhibition in London, airliner comfort for motor coach passengers highlighted the show with cocktail bars, push-button radio and toilet facilities.

SAFETY

PHILADELPHIA — (INS) — An intensive two-month community safety program, which last year was credited with cutting highway deaths in Pennsylvania by 17, is underway in the Quaker City.

THE VALLEY NEWS COLUMNS

From The Oregon Statesman's Valley Correspondents

BOSTON — Roland P. (Rolly) Randall appears about to adjourn to the floor as his chair starts to buckle under his 400 pounds at a fat man's hobby meeting here. Ominous creaks of the suffering chair warned Rolly in time to shift his bulk before he "got the floor" at the conference. (AP wirephoto to The Statesman.)

Mt. Angel Knights Set Sunday for Annual Initiation

MT. ANGEL — The Mt. Angel council of the Knights of Columbus set the date for the annual initiation of new members for Sunday, November 12. The initiation will be held in the clubroom with a banquet slated to follow that night in St. Mary's dining hall.

A special meeting on Tuesday, November 7, will complete plans and pass on the candidates applying for membership. The Columbus Day dance was reported a success and a vote of thanks was extended to Matt Wagner and his committee.

Grand Knight John Jennings announced that the public speaking classes will be ready to start next Monday and all interested should contact him immediately.

The members agreed to serve breakfast to the Catholic Daughters on the day they observe the "Day of Recollection" Sunday, October 29. The grand knight also requested that some member volunteer to act as a manager for the volley ball team to be organized here and entered in the league.

Synthetic Rubber Worries Far East

SINGAPORE — (P) — Three rubber scientists from Malaya, Indonesia and Indochina will visit the United States in October to promote natural rubber in the face of present synthetic competition.

The mission will tell United States consumers the ways in which natural rubber may be improved. They will also find out what qualities of rubber are preferred. The U. S. has repeatedly complained that Southeast Asian rubber producers have been supplying undergrade rubber.

POWER ABROAD

LONDON — (INS) — It looks like Tyrone Power is in for another long stay abroad. The talk is that after he finishes the stage play "Mr. Roberts," he'll stay for another European film.

COW WINS AWARD

WOODBURN — Tessie Oxford Isabel, owned by Catherine M. Fick of Woodburn, has been rated as a tested dam by the American Jersey Cattle club in Columbus, Ohio.

'Catnapping' Cat Creates Chow Crisis

By Mrs. Louis Kurth Statesman News Service

LIBERTY — Is it kidnapping or just fatherly love? That's the problem being pondered by Mr. and Mrs. Roland Seeger of Liberty. The Seegers' tomcat, "Tiger," has developed the habit of bringing home baby kittens and hiding them in the hay loft.

Last summer he brought home the first which he brought home found, fed and cared for. A short time later he brought another which was unable to feed itself. Their daughter, Sharon, L., donated her doll bottle and nipple to the cause.

The kitten takes the nipple, wraps both paws around the neck of the bottle and nurses as Tiger lays by keeping it warm. "It must be fatherly love," the perplexed Seegers remarked.

Aurora Man Injured In Accident Near Mulino

AURORA — E. C. Diller, 56, Aurora, is recovering in an Oregon City hospital from painful chest injuries suffered in a fall at a logging camp near Mulino Tuesday.

He was rushed to Canby by Howard and Virgil Giger in the emergency car and then taken to Oregon City. Physicians Friday reported Diller was out of danger.

JEFFERSON HEAVY PRODUCER

JEFFERSON — Come Lorette Rose, registered Jersey owned by Rex Ross of Mt. Angel, has been rate a tested dam by the American Jersey Cattle club for having three offspring with official production records.

Basic School Support Bill Discussed by Hubbard PTA; Carl, Byers Speak at Meet

HUBBARD — Talks were made on the children's bill by Mantone Carl, chairman of the school board and Charles Byers, principal of the grade school at the Hubbard Parent-Teachers meeting Monday night.

A general discussion of the bill followed. Others speaking were Mrs. Ralph Sippell of Salem, county council president; Wade Patterson of the Marion county health department, and Dr. Horace Miller, psychiatrist, who held a discussion with the group. Mrs. Al Barendse, president, was in charge of the meeting.

Merger Ballot At Jefferson Set Nov. 18

JEFFERSON — A special school meeting of Jefferson District 14-C is called for Thursday night, November 18, at 8 o'clock in the school house. The meeting is instigated by DeVaney school district No. 23 who this week filed petitions to consolidate with this district. DeVaney school is in Linn county about five miles southeast of Jefferson.

Provisions of the consolidation are that the schools involved shall not remain liable for the present bonded or other indebtedness of each such district, but the bonded or other indebtedness shall be assumed and become the debt of the consolidated district.

That the lower elementary grades shall continue in the present schools, as long as this plan of operation meets the needs of the children in the rural location.

In event of relocation of DeVaney school now occupied, that neighborhood will be given first chance at obtaining it for local organizations' use.

Salem Heights Mothers Plan Teachers Party

SALEM HEIGHTS — Teachers of the Salem Heights school will be honored at a reception by the Salem Heights Mothers club Tuesday, October 24, at 8 o'clock at the home of Dr. and Mrs. John Ramage on Croisan Creek road.

Mrs. Floyd McClellan is the chairman and Mrs. Fred Cords co-chairman. Mrs. Kenneth Zwicker and Mrs. Carl Harris are in charge of the corsages and decorations.

The reception is for all parents who have children attending the Salem Heights school.

Middle Grove Couple Return from Journey

MIDDLE GROVE — Mr. and Mrs. Harry Phillips returned home this week from a 5,800-mile trip to Liberal, Mo., where they visited relatives.

The Women's Society of World Service will meet Tuesday, October 24, at 11 a.m. in the home of Mrs. Leonard Malm.

Mrs. Richard Miller returned home Tuesday from Salem Memorial hospital.

Mrs. Florence Wright was taken to Salem General hospital Thursday following a heart attack.

Mari-Linn Co-Op Votes to Change Name

JEFFERSON — At a special meeting of the membership of the Marion-Linn Farmers Union cooperative here Wednesday, it was voted to change the co-operative name to Marion-Linn co-operative.

It was voted to change the by-laws, putting the cooperative on a preferred and common stock basis. Although this was accepted by the members, it now needs final approval by the state corporation commissioner.

PRESTIGE . . .

Now in its One Hundredth Year of publication The Oregon Statesman enjoys high prestige among papers of the Northwest.

With its roots in pioneer days The Statesman has been a great constructive force in the development of the Oregon country. Its character as a reliable newspaper is universally recognized. Generations of children have learned their letters from its headlines. Generations of Oregonians have been guided in their thinking by its editorial pronouncements.

PERFORMANCE . . .

The Statesman of 1950 does not coast on the laurels of its near-century of publication. Its young, alert staff are diligent in making it a better paper, rendering better service to readers and advertisers than ever before.

The Statesman is now a Seven-Day paper, published every morning of the year, the only paper printed and delivered throughout its area the day of publication. Only The Statesman gives complete and fresh news coverage Every Day of the Year.

The Oregon Statesman

for GOOD beer just say "Bohemian"

"never used such fine fuel..."

"Pres-to-logs," of course!

CAPITOL LUMBER CO. N. Cherry Ave. Salem, Oregon