Absentee Ballot Deadline Set Next Friday

Deadline for application for absentee ballots in the November election will be Friday, Marion county clerk's office reminded this weekend. About 200 persons have applied so far, regarded as a normal number for a non-presidential vote.

Ballots may be secured at the office, for immediate return, or by mail, to be returned by November 1, when ballot boxes will be turned over to the sheriff for distribution.

Application may be made only by a person who will be out of the county all of election day or who is unable to vote due to illness. One person cannot apply for absentee ballot for another individual.

A few requests have come from servicemen, deputies said, but these can be honored only if the serviceman is registered as a voter.

Mrs. Miles, 87, Succumbs at Salem Home

Mrs. Mary K. Miles died Sunday at her residence at 454 N. 14th st. following an illness of two months. She was 87.

Mrs. Miles had lived in Salem for 47 years and was a seamstress at Miller's department store for many years until she retired in 1938.

She was the widow of Joseph J. Miles who died in 1903 shortly after the family moved here from Turner. Deceased was born in Pennsylvania, June 25, 1863, and was married at Clay Center, Kansas in 1891.

Mrs. Miles was a flower-garden enthusiast and had furnished many floral decorations for the First Evangelical United Brethren church to which she belonged.

Surviving are two daughters, Anna and Lois Miles, both of Salem; a sister, Mrs. Sadie Chase, Grasham; and a brother, P. M. Kananau, Monrovia, Calif.

Services will be announced later by the Clough-Barrick chapel. The family requests that, in lieu of flowers, friends contribute to a memorial fund to be used for mission work.

Farm-Labor Meet To Hear Review of Ballot Proposals

Members of Salem's Farm-Labor council will hear a review of Oregon's nine ballot proposals at a meeting at the labor temple tonight at 8 o'clock.

Charles A. Sprague, Statesman publisher, will discuss the measures which will be voted on at the November general election, according to council spokesmen.

Motion pictures depicting the role machinery has played in the last 100 years also are slated to be shown.

A great-grandchild and 22 grandchildren also survive.

Services will be announced later by the Ekman Funeral home.

Baptists Plan 'Roundup' at Trout Creek

The first annual men's roundup sponsored by the Conservative Baptist Men's Fellowship of Oregon will be held at Trout Creek camp, 26 miles east of Portland next Friday to Sunday, according to Ray C. Cates of Salem, president. Over 200 men from the 80 cooperating churches are expected.

Inspirational speaker for the roundup will be the Rev. Duncan McRoberts, former missionary to China. Classes will be conducted by Dr. Albert G. Johnson, pastor of Hinson Memorial Baptist church, Portland; Dr. James H. Christian, professor at Western Baptist seminary; the Rev. James Neely of Albany, and Cates.

Navy Aviators Plan Cruise at McNary Field

Ten members of Salem's naval aviation volunteer unit will begin a two-weeks "cruise" Wednesday at the naval air facility at McNary field, according to Lt. Stanley Fallender, facility executive officer.

Both flight and ground training are scheduled for the men on the annual session.

The fliers will include Lts. R. V. Lundstrom and L. H. Coe, Portland; R. T. Ableidinger, Vancouver, Wash.; A. W. Loftis, Hood River; J. H. Herrie, Troutdale; Lts. (j.g.) C. E. Frye, Albany; C. L. Dill, Salem; P. H. Everett, Eugene; J. L. Cox, Portland; C. S. Thomasson, Linslaw.

GM to Present Driving Film

Public officials and top educators from the Salem public and parochial schools will be guests of the local General Motors club Thursday at the Senator hotel for a premier presentation of a new series of films on high school driver-education, it was announced Saturday.

Aimed at the 'teen age driver problem, the films are designed as instructional aids for use in the classroom, sponsors said.

General Motors produced the films with the counsel of the National Education association which also has approved distribution of kits of the films to school systems throughout the country, said C. A. Walters, club chairman.

The USS constitution, "Old Ironsides," carried 24-pound guns, compared with the 18-pounders of British frigates of the time.
