

Valley's Prep Elevens Occupied In Heavy Football Slate Friday

Titlists Loom In Most Loops

Cards at Cascade; Jeffs at Sublimity

More heavy action is on tap for the numerous valley high school football teams Friday as such leagues as the Big Six, Willamette Valley, Yawama, Marion-Polk, Marion County B and Salem Junior high schedule important clashes.

Distinct title threats have risen

BIG SIX STANDINGS

W.L. Pct.	W.L. Pct.
Eugene 4-0 1.000 Corvallis 1-2 .333
Bend 3-1 .750 Springfield 1-2 .333
Albany 2-2 .500 Salem 0-3 .000

WILLAMETTE VALLEY

W.L. Pct.	W.L. Pct.
Woodburn 4-0 1.000 Silverton 2-1 .667
Dallas 4-0 1.000 Sandy 1-1 .500
Estacada 2-1 .667 Mt. Angel 1-2 .333
Canby 2-2 .500 Molalla 0-3 .000

MARION-POLK

W.L. Pct.	W.L. Pct.
S. Heart 1-0 1.000 S. Academy 0-0 .000
Stayton 0-1 .000 Cascade 0-0 .000

MARION B

W.L. Pct.	W.L. Pct.
Jefferson 2-0 1.000 Chemawa 1-1 .500
Sublimity 1-1 .500 Gervais 0-2 .000

YAWAMA LEAGUE

W.L. Pct.	W.L. Pct.
Banks 4-0 1.000 Amity 1-2 .333
Willamina 4-1 .800 N-Marion 2-2 .500
Sheridan 4-1 .800 Sherwood 1-2 .333
Dayton 2-2 .500 Yamhill 0-3 .000

In each circuit and, barring the ugly item known as upset should roll on to the various and coveted championships. Eugene is odds-on favorite in the Big Six and Woodburn seems to have the situation well in hand in the WV. Sacred Heart's victory over Stayton last week establishes the Cards as the big threat in the Marion-Polk. Banks high's Braves appear to be a shoo-in for Yawama honors. Jefferson's Lions are the big favorites in the Marion B, although they have a key tilt with Sublimity Friday. Another key clash that could mean title comes in the Junior high loop Friday when the unbeaten Leslie Blues and Parrish Cards get together.

Taking their league by league: Big Six—Eugene's unbeaten Axemen have a breather at home with the University high eleven, a non-leaguer. But the Albany Bulldogs will be active at Springfield and Salem at Corvallis in league mixes. Bend is finished with league commitments and plays Medford at Bend Friday.

WV—Mt. Angel is at Dallas, Sandy at Canby and Estacada at Silverton Friday night, and Molalla is at Woodburn Friday afternoon. Dallas, Canby and Woodburn should have little trouble notching wins, but the Estacada-Silverton struggle could be a whoop-de-do for fair.

Yawama—Dayton has the misfortune of having to play at Banks Friday against easily the classiest club in the circuit. Willamina is at Amity, Yamhill at North Marion and Sheridan at Sherwood for the others, with favorite's roles going to Willamina, North Marion and Sheridan.

Marion B: Jefferson is at Sublimity in the key clash and Chemawa at Gervais, both afternoons Friday. The Jefferson could cop the title with a victory over the Saints. Mill City is idle Friday.

Marion-Polk: Sacred Heart will be at Cascade for a 1:30 o'clock and Salem Academy at Stayton for a two o'clock fixture. The Cards and Eagles hold the favored roles.

Junior high: The Leslie Blues and Parrish Cards clash at 6:30 p.m. at Leslie, and in the afternoon game at 3:45 it will be the Leslie Golds at West Salem. The Salem JV's go postwar again next Monday night at Leslie with Corvallis JV's the opposition.

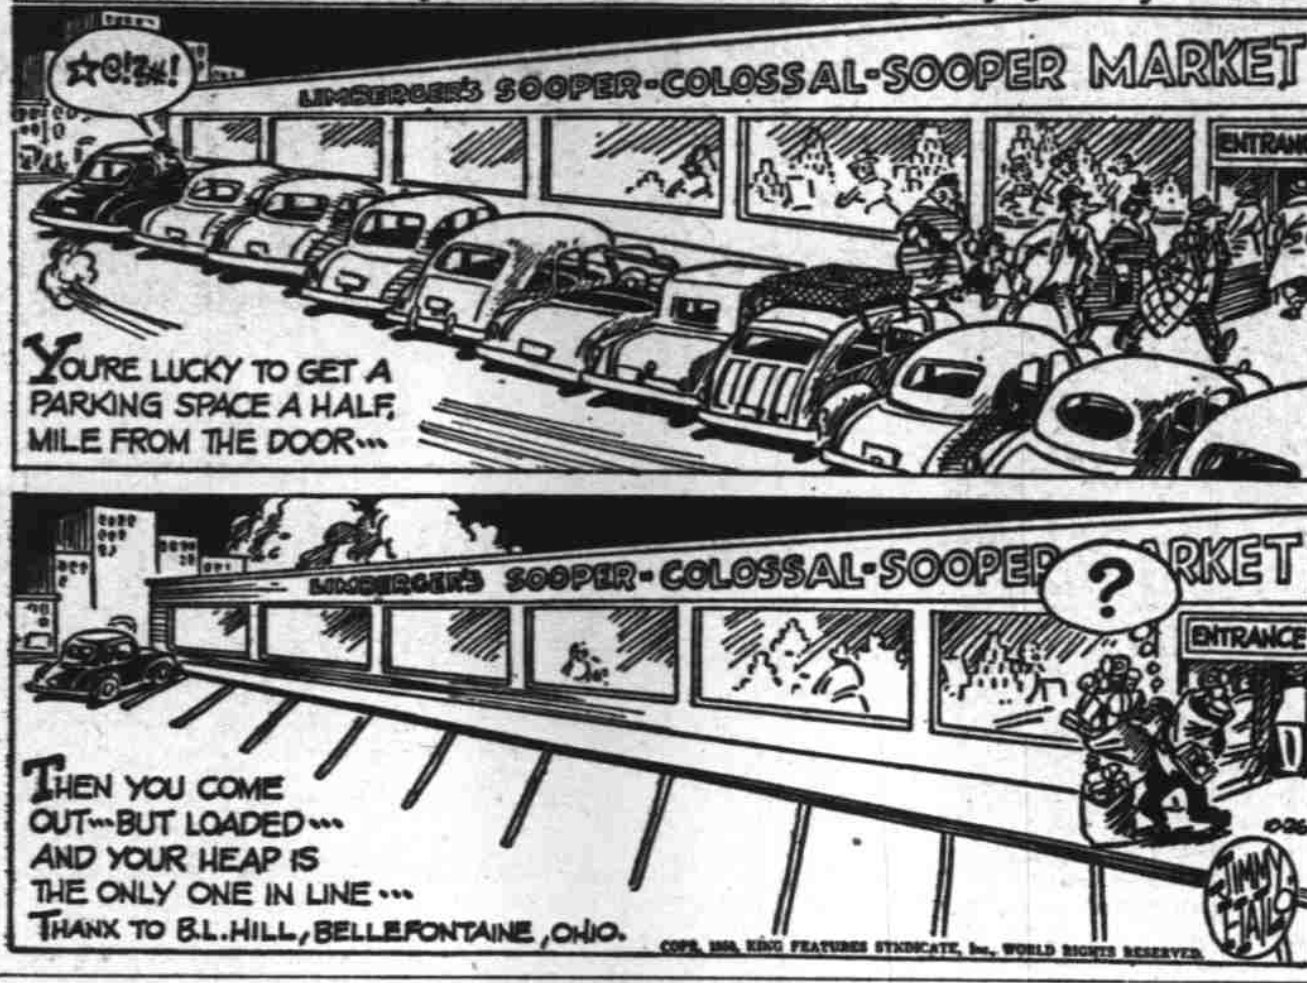

Cottage Grove plays at Lebanon Friday night, and in the collegiate round it will be Oregon College of Education and Oregon Klammath Falls in a Saturday nighter at Albany, Whitman at Pacific Friday night, College of Idaho at Linfield Saturday night and Willamette at College of Puget Sound Saturday afternoon.

UKES CONTINUE WORK
LOS ANGELES, Oct. 25 (AP)—Coach Red Sanders missed the UCLA football practice because of a chest cold today, but the Bruins turned out for a lengthy all-around drill for their inter-sectional game against Purdue at Lafayette, Ind., Saturday.

By A. L. COLLEGE

Willamette over CPS: The Bearcat spirit and determination are terrific items... OCE over OTI: Four straight for Bill McArthur & Co... Pacific over Whitman: The White "don't got it"... College of Idaho over Linfield: Wouldn't be the first time we're nuts... OSC over Montana: The Bevos are due to bust loose... USC over Oregon: Another sad visit to the Coliseum... Stanfords over Washington: Don't ask us to put $$$ on it, however... WSC over Idaho: In a donnybrook, California over St. Mary's: Next door to a cinch... UCLA over Purdue: At last, a POC win over the Big 10... Others: Army over Columbia, Georgia over Boston college, Cornell over Princeton, Harvard over Dartmouth, San Francisco over Fordham, Yale over Holy Cross, Maryland over Duke, Penn over Navy, Miami over Pitt, Illinois over Indiana, Ohio State over Iowa, Oklahoma over Iowa State, Nebraska over Kansas, Santa Clara over Marquette, Michigan over Minnesota, Michigan State over Notre Dame, Wisconsin over Northwestern, Kentucky over Georgia Tech, Texas over Rice.

HIGH SCHOOL

Salem over Corvallis: Vikings liked that win of last week... Eugene over Uni-Hi: Easy... Albany over Springfield: Ditto... Medford over Bend: High scoring duel... Cottage Grove over Lebanon: Guessing... Woodburn over Molalla: No reason why not... Estacada over Silverton: Good chance to lose "baiting average" to... Canby over Sandy: Easy-like... Dallas over Mt. Angel: The same way... Others: Banks over Dayton, Willamina over Amity, North Marion over Yamhill, Sheridan over Sherwood, Jefferson over Sublimity, Gervais over Chemawa, Sacred Heart over Cascade, Stayton over Salem Academy...

Baiting average to date: College—82 right, 29 wrong for .738. High school—39 right, 19 wrong for .672.

Technicality Threatens Rickey Ball Career as Brook Job Ends

NEW YORK, Oct. 25 (AP)—An involved deal and a section of small print in the Major league rules rose up today to confuse Branch Rickey's future in baseball.

It was learned today that Rickey, in disposing of his 25 per cent stock in the Brooklyn club, agreed to accept the $1,050,000 purchase price in installment payments covering a 10 1/2 year period.

Major league rule 20 reads: "No club or stockholder or official of a club shall, directly or indirectly, own stock or have any financial interest in any other club in its league."

This brought up the question of how the Brooklyn general manager could, by following this type of contract, go through with his plans to remain in baseball.

Rickey has been reported headed for an executive role with the Pittsburgh Pirates, whose owner, John W. Galbreath, is a long time friend. Other rumors have had him buying into the St. Louis Browns.

Asked about this fine legal point, Rickey said: "I have no ownership in the Dodgers now."

Ford Frick, president of the National league, said, "I have not seen the contract and I know nothing about the terms."

Baseball Commissioner A. B. Chandler, at his home in Versailles, Ky., declined comment.

The involved deal could keep Rickey out of baseball, if he chose to take a spot elsewhere.

The major league rule could be circumvented by Rickey selling his rights to the debt to a bank or through discounted notes. This way Rickey could step completely out of the Brooklyn picture.

Ball Meetings Scheded Soon

The annual draft meeting will be held here Nov. 16. On the same day, the owners will determine whether players shall share in the $975,000 paid for radio and television rights for the 1956 world series.

The money in the past has gone into a central fund, from which player pensions are paid.

Elimination or modification of the bonus player rule also will be considered Nov. 16.

Dousing the Senators' move with cold water many have given Gregory and his Portland Beaver a chuckle. But we're sure the day will come when he'll eat those words, after they're thrown in his face by 800 owners of the same Senators...

Mr. Sick Congratulates Salem for Move

On the other hand, we have a telegram from another influential man, Emil Sick. Owner of the vast Sick's Brewing domain and the Seattle Rainiers, Mr. Sick throws nothing cold on the corporation. His telegram: "Dear Al: My congratulations to you and my friends in Salem on your fine progressive move in taking over the Salem baseball franchise. I wish you all good luck and feel you will have it." Signed Emil Sick.

To us that one piece of paper from Mr. Sick far overshadows the elongated effort by Gregory. And knowing that a man of Mr. Sick's caliber is pulling for the local corporation gives it a real boost. (Who knows? He may send a ballplayer or two in his organization this way.)

Final Tabulations on Monday's Election

Final tabulations on Monday night's election reveal the following totals, all having been doubly checked: Don Young 1491, Ben Pade 1076, Tom Holman 899, Bob Klstrom 771, Russ Bonesteel 683, (those five going on the board of directors) and Bruce Williams 628, Ken Long and Cliff Parker in a tie at 318, Harry Collins 250, Charles Prigge 101, Vern McMullen 65, Harold Busick 62, Howard Wicklund 52, Cliff Taylor 31, Darrell Donaldson 19...

Seems to be some mixup on the special deer hunting seasons recently adopted by the Game Commish. The commission's official proclamation goes like this: The first two of the three seasons will be held November 3-4-5 in the Burnt river district of Baker county and the Silverton hills district of Marion county. A total of 399 permits will be issued for the taking of antlerless deer in the Burnt river season and 800 permits will be issued for the taking of deer of either sex in the Silverton hills. Applications for these two seasons must be in the game commission office by 10 a.m. October 27.

The third special season will be in the White river area in Wasco county. This season will be held December 2 through December 5 and there will be 300 tags issued for antlerless deer. Applications for same must be made by 5 p.m., November 15.

Applicant's name, license number, type of license, area in which he wishes to apply and the $5 fee will serve as an application.
