

Marquam PTA Plans Meeting For Thursday

MARQUAM — At the Butte Creek school auditorium Thursday at 8 p.m., Charlie Lucht will show pictures and talk on his trip to England. Reorganization of the 4-H groups will be planned and all parents urged to attend.

A large crowd gathered at the Butte Creek school to hear Paul Biggs, Oregon City, speak on the basic school fund.

Weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Joerg were Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Joerg, Silver Falls, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Joerg, William, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Joerg, Portland.

Harold Olsen has returned to Newport after visiting his mother, Mrs. Gladys Olsen and his family. PTA women have canned 318 gallons of fruit and vegetables for the school.

Mrs. George Gensen and her mother, Mrs. Laura McCracken, Westport, spent a few days in Molalla visiting friends and relatives.

A benefit card party sponsored by the PTA group will be given October 23 at 8 p.m. in the Butte Creek school auditorium.

Mrs. Mary Shoemaker and Christina Pederson were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Shoemaker, Molalla.

Brownie Troop Formed By Auburn Mothers

They are learning their pledge, making their own Halloween decorations for a party and baby scrap books for some hospital at Christmas time.

Valley Obituaries

Fred J. Dove
BROOKS — Funeral services for Fred John Dove, 78, were held at the chapel of the Weddle funeral home in Stayton, Sept. 25, at 2 p.m. Rev. Nick Neufeldt officiated. Burial in the Lone Oak cemetery near Stayton.

Dove suffered a stroke and passed away at a Salem hospital Sept. 22. He was born in Sheboygan county, Wisconsin, Sept. 16, 1872. Was married to Maude Sears, who died two years ago. He had been a resident in and near Brooks for over forty years. Following the death of his wife he moved to Stayton.

Survivors are two sons, Lester Dove of Aumsville, Charles Dove of Albany; one daughter, Mrs. Hazel Lavett of Seaside, California; one son preceded him in death; nine grandchildren and five great grandchildren.

Edgar F. Smith
SWEET HOME — Funeral services were held at Portland Tuesday, conducted by Rev. Howard Smith, pastor of the Presbyterian church at Lebanon, for Edgar F. Smith, 80, who died at his home here Sunday.

He is survived by a niece, Dr. Ruth Barnett, Portland, and a sister in New York.

Edgar F. Smith came to the Sweet Home community around 20 years ago and built a sawmill on the old Oliver McClure ranch on Ames creek. Later he was associated with Bert Smith in a sawmill east of Cascadia. Since retiring from the sawmill business he had made his home here.

William James Standish
SWEET HOME — Funeral services were held here at the Howe-Huston chapel Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock for William James Standish, 60, who died at his home here Friday. The Rev. Sam Kimball officiated. Interment was made in the Union cemetery at Crawfordsville.

Standish was born in Brownsville August 4, 1890 where he resided until coming to Holley more than 30 years ago where he engaged in farming until moving to Sweet Home six years ago where he had since resided.

He was united in marriage with Dona Rice, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Rice, August 28, 1917.

Surviving are the wife; a daughter, Mrs. Hilda Myers, Portland; a sister, Mrs. Catherine Lyons, Seattle, and a grandson.

Albert Martin Jacobson
SWEET HOME — Funeral services were held Wednesday, conducted by Rev. Harry Benton, Eugene, pastor of the First Christian church there, for Albert Martin Jacobson, 52, who died while on a hunting trip on the upper Calapooia east of Holley, Sunday.

Jacobson was born at Aleso, Ore., Dec. 31, 1897. He had lived in the Holley area for the past nine years and was employed by the Gilbert-Eaton Logging company.

Survivors are his wife, Laura, of Holley; a son, Luther; four daughters, Mrs. Peg Smith, Mary, Betty and Philena, all of Ashland, and a step-son, King Hufford, Holley. Three brothers, Carl and Lewis Jacobson, Aleso, and E. S. Jacobson, Shelton, Wash., and two sisters, Mrs. Elsie Williams of Idaho, and Mrs. Mary Pope, Jewell, also survive.
