Breakfast Fetes Miss Staudinger

Miss Eleanor Staudinger, who is to be married October 28 to Jerome Sadder at St. Joseph's church, was the guest of honor at a pre-nuptial shower at the home of Miss Mary White on Sunday morning. They attended mass and then came to the home of Miss White for breakfast. Twelve of the girls were former classmates of Miss Staudinger at Sacred Heart Academy.

Present were the Misses Genny Mullen, Dorothy Kessel, Lois Schwab, Mary Anne Whelan, Georganna Burkhardt, Dolores Dornbusch, Joan Langford, Jeanne Artz, Audra Garbarino, Betty Menke, Jackie Zerzan, Mrs. John Schwartz, Mrs. Sadder, mother of the groom-elect, Mrs. Alex Staudinger, mother of Miss Staudinger, the honor guest, and the hostess.

Floor Show Is Feature of Stagette

Salem Women's Golf club members proved they could be entertainers as well as golfers at the annual stagette held Wednesday night at the Salem Golf club. . . . Over 80 attended the concluding event of the season for club members. . . .

Always a highlight of the stagette and a much looked forward to event of the evening's entertainment was the stage show presented just before dinner. . . . we are sure if some golfers had been playing on the sixth hole they would have heard the roaring laughter and hearty applause for the show girls coming from the clubrooms. . . .

"Circus Daze" was the theme of the show this year with Clarabelle Dyer the ballyhooser. . . . Dorothy Olinger and Peg Drager the clowns. . . . Bea Gerlinger, Kay Arnott and Mrs. C. A. McDevitt doing a grand take off of the flying trapeze. . . . The Siamese twins—Pauline Musser and Eloise Williams—the chorus girls. . . . Shirley Dunham, Lola Dyer and Maxine Needham. . . . Jerry Brown, the snake charmer, about had the guests off their seats during the evening. . . . Anna Hill did the strong man act. . . . much applause for the black face song and dance by the two old crows. . . . Betty Cannon and Billie Hamilton. . . . the latter responsible for the successful show. . . . even rehearsing the acts several days in advance. . . . a clever half and half act by Mary Love Allen. . . . and bringing down the house was the appearance of the family from the country visiting the circus. . . . Peg Perry was the papa, Dot Wilbur the mama and Peg Joseph the mean little brat. . . . and last but not least. . . . Margaret Heitzel, the record custodian. . . .

Awards Announced
Earlier in the afternoon the annual award of prizes was announced by Mrs. Fred Bernard, the outgoing captain. Two awards, kept a secret until the stagette, went to Mrs. Harold Olinger, who received the OWGA trophy, and to Mrs. James Sears, who came over from Hillsboro for the occasion to receive the captain's trophy awarded for the three best out of five scores, low net.

A prize for the most exceptional score during the season went to Mrs. Elmore Hill. . . . most improvement in handicaps was to 31 went to Mrs. Robert Cannon. . . . she received Mrs. George Robert Hoffman's trophy. . . . Mrs. Werner Brown's trophy for improved handicap was awarded to Mrs. Glenn Wilbur. . . . her handicap improved from 33 to 24.

Medalist for the fall tournament is Mrs. Harold Olinger. Winner of the losers' tournament is Mrs. Glenn Wilbur. Mrs. Morris Crothers won the Pomeroy and Keene trophy.

About 20 of the golfers braved the rain on Wednesday to compete for the Pomeroy and Keene trophy and finish the fall eclectic.

Rebekahs in Session

Salem Rebekah Lodge was in session Monday night. Mrs. Mary Hansen was transferred to the Salem lodge from Redmond. The ways and means committee will sponsor a card party after the regular lodge meeting next Monday. The Three Link club will meet for a one o'clock luncheon on Friday at the IOOF hall. Ladies auxiliary of Patriarch Militant will meet Thursday night at the hall at 8 o'clock and a reception will honor Mrs. Lloyd Wood, state secretary for the auxiliary.

Designing Woman

HOW MANY USES

The tea cart went out of fashion because it was no more than a fancy extra, good only for showoff once-in-a-while use. The tea cart came back into fashion for quite the opposite reasons—because good design made it a sturdy piece of furniture, ready for use every day. It's easy to chalk up more than a half dozen uses for this tea cart favorite. It's a one-piece, one-trip wonder for serving all kinds of refreshments, from afternoon tea through drinks and snacks to late party suppers. Set and ready with dessert before dinner begins, it shortens the time between courses for the maidless hostess, or serves after-dinner coffee in the living room. With its drop leaves raised, this tea cart is big enough to serve a complete buffet supper, or to be a table for two for any meal, anywhere in the house—breakfast beside the picture window on a bright morning, lunch on the terrace, or dinner by the living room fire.

Seventeen color schemes—ready to put to work—are listed in Elizabeth Hiller's book, "COLOR SCHEMES FOR EVERY ROOM." Send 15c in coin and a stamped, self-addressed envelope to Miss Hiller and your copy will soon be on its way. (Copyright 1935 John F. Dille Co.)

Tea at Bishop Home Sunday

Mrs. J. N. Bishop's home at 460 Leslie st. was the scene for the preferential tea Sunday from three to five honoring new pledges to Alpha Epsilon chapter of Beta Sigma Phi. The tea table was centered with duobonnet and pink chrysanthemums and duobonnet candles on a pale blue cloth. Pouring the first hour were Mrs. J. N. Bishop and Miss Hazel Shutt, and the second hour Mrs. W. L. Morrison and Mrs. Kelsey Forstrom. Mrs. J. M. Cracraft greeted guests at the door.

New pledges honored were Mrs. Ralph Atwood, Mrs. D. G. Klein-Smith, the Misses Janice Keefe, Phyllis Stanborn, Alyce Mullen, Jean Seiber, June Haugen and Barbara Jones.

Credit Women at Several Banquets

Members of the Credit Women's Breakfast club of Salem are this week attending installations of other clubs. Mrs. Lloyd Meyer attended the Roseburg club's installation banquet Tuesday night and met Mrs. Henry Kayser, Mrs. Darrell Walker, Mrs. Gavin Hill, Miss Beverly Hartzell and Mrs. Verne Robb in Eugene where they attended the banquet of that club Wednesday night.

Tonight the Portland group holds its 20th installation, and in attendance will be Mrs. Robb, Mrs. Kayser, Mrs. Meyer, Mrs. Robert Jones, Mrs. Walker, Mrs. Marie Wilgers, Miss Hartzell, Miss Etta Sutter, Miss Velma Strain and Miss Jean Ogden.

Mr. and Mrs. William Lieske, jr. were surprised when a group of their friends gathered at their new home at 4407 Helm street for a housewarming party. After an informal evening a late supper was served and gifts presented to the couple.

Unit Schedules Activities

Mrs. Carroll M. Robinson, first vice president of Salem unit 136, American Legion auxiliary, presided at the social meeting held Tuesday evening at the Salem Women's club. Mrs. Donald Baker, chairman of the Americanism committee, spoke of the Armistice Day parade. Members are asked to ride in the parade and those who have cars to drive.

Mrs. Robert Irwin told members of the holiday and Christmas cards which the unit is sponsoring. Mrs. Harold Shoberg told of the cotton dance which will be given by the unit at the Four Corners Community hall on November 3. Members and their friends are invited to attend.

Mrs. Kenneth Taylor, chairman of the rehabilitation committee, spoke of the need of the Veterans hospital in Portland of "ditty" material to sew on at the next meeting.

Mrs. Wayne Keeney, national security chairman, reported that plans for civil defense in Marion county are going forward and the members of the unit will take an active part. Sheriff Denver Young has asked for volunteer typists and file clerks from the unit. The executive board will hold its next meeting at the home of Mrs. Leslie Beard on the evening of November 8.

Mrs. Bert Walker reported on the magazine subscription drive, sponsored by the unit. Sales thus far have made certain the purchase of three hospital beds, one to be used in the Woodburn area. Program Given

The members were entertained by the Alpha Chi Omega quintet, consisting of Misses Harriett Booth, Margaret Powell, Gloria Nandle, Jane Foshee, and Jane Finkerton. Beverly Gustafson accompanied the girls. Glen Wade, Bureau of Medical Economics, gave the address of the evening entitled "Our New Flag."

Banquet Given For Initiates

Beta Sigma Phi chapters of Salem, Eta and Alpha Epsilon, will hold a formal banquet tonight in the Capital room of the Senator Hotel in honor of the new pledges. The pledge ceremony at 8:30 p.m. will be conducted by Mrs. W. L. Morrison, president of Alpha Epsilon, and Mrs. Wayne Rose, president of Eta chapter.

Following the banquet, Mrs. Kelsey Forstrom will act as toastmistress for the program which includes welcome by Mrs. Donald Parker response, Pauline Hillpot, musical numbers by Sharon Lamkin and Clorinda Topping. Decorations will be arranged by Mrs. Howard Jenks and her committee.

Mrs. Bjarne Erickson entertained at a dessert bridge Wednesday night at her South Cottage street home for members of her club.

Another "Week" Cranberries Featured During Week In Cakes, Gingerbread, Other Hints

By Maxine Buren
Statesman Woman's Editor

Cranberry week, just past, is one of the many periods set aside by producers to live up to the sale of their products. Cranberries have become a more important item in the family menu since the growers and packers have promoted their use these past few years.

One of the recipes which is being promoted this season is that of Festival Cake, which utilizes a prepared cake mix and a canned cranberry sauce. It's a good idea and might be converted to use with an inexpensive one-egg cake of your own choice:

CRANBERRY FESTIVAL CAKE
1 package instant cake mix 1 can whole cranberry sauce
1/2 cup orange juice
Prepare cake mix according to directions on package. Combine cranberry sauce and orange juice and spoon over bottom of 9-inch round, 2-inch deep cake pan. Spoon cake batter carefully over cranberry-orange mixture. Bake at 375 degrees for 40 to 50 minutes. When cake has cooled thoroughly, cut in wedges and serve with or without whipped cream.

Another recipe uses prepared gingerbread mix:

GINGERBREAD-CRANBERRY CREAM PIE
1 package gingerbread mix 1/4 1-pound can jellied cranberry sauce
Cream filling (recipe below) berry sauce
Prepare gingerbread mix according to directions on package. Pour batter into well-greased and lightly floured 9-inch pan. Bake 35 minutes in moderate oven. Spread 1/4 can jellied sauce (crushed) over bottom layer; spread cream filling over cranberry sauce, cover with top layer and sift confectioners' sugar over top. Place in refrigerator for custard to become firm. Cut in wedges. Serves 8.

Cream Filling

2 teaspoons unflavored gelatine 1/4 cup cold milk
3 tablespoons cold water 1/4 cup scalded milk
1/4 cup sugar 1 egg, slightly beaten
2 tablespoons cornstarch 1 teaspoon vanilla
Soak gelatine in cold water to soften. Combine sugar, cornstarch, and salt in top of double boiler. Stir in cold milk. Cook mixture over hot water to thicken (about 10 minutes). Gradually add a small amount of hot mixture to beaten egg; stir into remaining hot mixture. Cook 3 minutes. Remove from heat; add gelatine and vanilla. Place in pan of ice water to chill until firm enough to spread.

Soroptimists Hear Of Convention

Soroptimist club, meeting at the Golden Pheasant for business and luncheon on Wednesday, received a detailed report of the regional convention which took place recently in Great Falls, Montana, then gave its attention to the many projects and activities for the year. These include collection of college text books for the University of Manila, a regional plan formulated by the Ashland club, and a share toward the education of a young Filipino boy in the use of audio-visual equipment and in the fund $2500 for purchase of such equipment.

A rummage sale will be held November 2, 3 and 4 at 339 Court street, collection for which will be made November 1. Members are asked to call Mrs. Glenn McCormick concerning this pickup.

Program chairman, Mrs. James Stone, introduced the guest soloist, Mrs. Robert F. Anderson, who sang. Other guests were Mrs. Vernon Wiscarson, Mrs. Ralph Moody and Miss Sue Booch. Mrs. L. Johnson, vice president, presided in the absence of Mrs. H. G. Malson.

Salem Toastmistress club will meet Thursday night at 6 o'clock at the Golden Pheasant for its regular meeting. This will be a surprise meeting with assignments to be handed out at the door to members. Miss Amanda Anderson and Miss Constance Weinman attended a council meeting in Bend last week end, with representatives from nine toastmistress clubs attending.

Party for Auxiliary

Meadowlark auxiliary, 6102, VFW, will hold a Halloween party Friday night at the Kingwood Legion hall at 8 o'clock. Games and dancing will be enjoyed with refreshments following. Guests are asked to come in hard times costumes. Mrs. Billy Kelso is general chairman of the party.

Navy Band to Play at OSC

OREGON STATE COLLEGE—The United States navy band will play two concerts Friday, November 3, matinee and night, in Gill Coliseum under the auspices of the educational activities board.

Tickets for both performances are now available in the educational activities office, Memorial Union 110, Corvallis.

The 2 o'clock matinee concert will be devoted to popular music, especially for students.

The night program is one which Lt. Cmdr. Charles Brendler, the band conductor, has selected with the view of pleasing genuine music lovers of all ages.
