Nuptials Are Performed Monday

Gold and white chrysanthemums flanked by white tapers provided the setting in the fireplace room of the First Presbyterian church for the wedding of Miss LaVelle duBuy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis duBuy, and Allen Craig, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Craig, on Monday night.

The 6 o'clock nuptials were performed by Dr. Chester W. Hamblin before members of the immediate family and a few friends. Ronald Craven was the soloist.

For her wedding the bride selected a blackberry suit, the fitted jacket styled with a peplum and a straight skirt. She wore a dusty rose hat with black veiling and feather and black accessories. Pinned to her suit was a corsage of orchids.

Miss Jeanne duBuy was her sister's only attendant and she wore a forest green suit with black accessories and corsage of pink roses. Leonard Martin stood with the groom as best man. Ushers were Joseph Mapes and Rudy Frykberg, cousin of the groom.

Mrs. duBuy attended her daughter's wedding in a grey suit with gold accessories and a corsage of pink carnations. Mrs. Craig wore a rose beige suit with black accessories and corsage of pink carnations.

A reception followed at the duBuy home on North Capitol street. Mrs. Glenn Gordon of Gates and Mrs. Donald Miller of Eugene, aunts of the bride, cut the cake. Mrs. Leonard Mayfield, also an aunt from Coos Bay poured and Mrs. Leonard Martin, sister of the groom, presided at the punch bowl. Assisting were Misses Marilyn Reay, Marilyn Linsler, Virginia Beall and Mrs. Frederick Sproule.

After a week's honeymoon, the couple will return to Salem to reside temporarily until the groom reports for army duty later in the month.

Mrs. J. R. McCready of Forest Grove, state organizer of PEO, will make her official visit to members of Chapter G, PEO at a dessert luncheon meeting on Thursday afternoon at the Fairmount Hill home of Mrs. Estes Morton.

Mrs. Homer L. Goulet will entertain her club at luncheon this afternoon at her country home.

Brides-Elect Honored at Showers

Early November brides-elect are sharing in much of the entertaining this week.

Sunday morning Miss Rita Lancaster was hostess for a breakfast and bridal shower at the Marion hotel in compliment to Miss Barbara Albrich, who will be married on Saturday to James Brunelle.

Covers were placed for the honor guests, Mrs. Thomas Morley, Mrs. Gene DiLoreto, Misses Theresa Thomas, Miriam Rom, Kathleen Emmons, Mary Toohy, Rita Schwartz and the hostess.

Miss Gloria June White, who will become Harold Littke's bride on Friday, was feted at two showers last week.

Honor Miss White

Miss White's great aunt, Mrs. Nona White, was hostess for a miscellaneous shower at her Mill street home on Friday night.

Honoring the bride-to-be were Mesdames E. B. White, M. Jarvis, Thayne Olson, A. J. Trojan, Albert Halseth, Charlotte McWain, A. L. McDowell, M. A. Dierks, Phillip Little, William Franzwa, Henry Tate, Frances Ramsden, Oren Kellogg, Sylvia Shreve, Robert Faris, Kathleen Caplan, Miss Hazel Shutt and the hostess.

Miss Eleanor White entertained at a miscellaneous shower at her home on the Liberty Road for the pleasure of her sister, assisted by her mother, Mrs. L. R. White.

Feting the bride-elect were Mesdames Clarence Cherry, Leonard Crisler, Emel Ped, James Zwaska, Clyde Gardner, Sidney Smith, Robert Wall, M. C. Professional and amateur flower growers of Oregon are receiving special recognition in Oregon this week as National Flower week is being observed throughout the nation. Mrs. Douglas McKay, wife of Oregon's governor, thought the observance was a good one—she received two dozen long-stemmed Oregon roses from Mrs. B. O. Schucking, left, owner of the Eola Acres Florist shop. Statesman photo.

To Sing with Choir

Tacoma—Mary Holmquist of Salem has been chosen by Gunnar J. Malmin to sing with the Choir of the West at Pacific Lutheran college. It was announced Saturday. Miss Holmquist is a freshman at the college. In March the group of 55 voices will make an 18-day tour of the west, going as far south as San Diego.

Anniversary Meeting

The Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Leslie Methodist church will be hostess to the Turner society at 1:30 Wednesday for a program and dessert luncheon to be held in the parlors of Leslie church. The meeting is in observance of the tenth anniversary of this organization in the Methodist church and a birthday cake will be featured with candles to be lighted in recognition of the progress of the society. Hostesses for the social period are Mesdames T. O. Adams and Letha Stripling. The program topic is "Health in A Rural Community" and will be presented by Mrs. Arlie Largent with Mrs. C. W. Stacey in charge of the devotional period.

Stephen Epley's Fifth Birthday

Stephen Epley celebrated his fifth birthday at a party on Saturday at the home of his parents, the Keith Epleys. The Halloween motif was used in the table appointments and favors.

Special guests were Stephen's grandmother, Mrs. Joe E. DeWitt, who assisted, and Mrs. F. L. Epley, an aunt. Youngsters attending were Sheri Anderson, Joy and Ric Fortune, Bobby, Ivan, Connie May and Dixie Phillips, Mike Simmons, Mike Scott, Billy Whitmore, Jimmy, Florence and Gloria Epley and Marlee Jo Epley.

Supervisors of Music to Meet On Campus

Willamette University — Some 200 elementary, junior and senior high school music supervisors throughout the state will arrive in Salem this Friday for the annual fall meeting of the Oregon Music Educators Association to be held on the Willamette university campus this weekend.

New on the agenda this year is the banquet scheduled to open the convention on Friday evening, 7 o'clock, in the University's Baxter hall. Featured speaker will be Dr. Stanley Chapple, Dean of Music at the University of Washington.

Entertainment will be the University of Oregon string quartet, composed of Music School faculty members: George Boughton, Mrs. Mary Alton, Edmund Cykner and Milton Deterick. Josephine Albert Spaulding, well-known contralto of Salem, will sing a group of numbers, accompanied by Mrs. A. A. Schram.

Dean Melvin Geist of the Willamette Music School, will serve as toastmaster for the banquet, and women of the Willamette chapter of Mu Phi Epsilon, national music honorary, will be hostesses. Karl Ernst, program chairman and supervisor of Portland Public School Music, is arranging for informal singing.

Saturday's program for the OMEA meet will include the annual business meeting, with election of officers for the coming bi-annum; a general session of vital interest to all Oregon music educators; sessions on music appreciation in the secondary classes, and marching bands; and a concert by the Benson Polytechnic band of Portland, with Norman Street conducting.

Afternoon session for elementary teachers is planned around problems of homeroom music, with demonstrations by Louise Grant, of Pasadena, California, who is being sponsored by the Boston Music Company in a series of clinics and workshops throughout the western states. Miss Grant was former music supervisor at Schenectady, N. Y. and later taught music education at New York University.
