

Scouts Given Financial Aid

Republicans Take Aim at Truman's Policy in Far East

Republicans trained their big guns on President Truman's foreign policy—in the Far East especially—yesterday as the president made ready to fire his own campaign barrage next Saturday night.

The GOP national committee picked Harold E. Stassen, sharp critic of the Truman policies in China and elsewhere in the Far East, to go on the air immediately after the president's broadcast and give the republican answer.

And GOP National Chairman Guy George Gabrielson declared at Charleston, W. Va., that "the democrat administration must share with communist imperialism the responsibility for the 30,000 known American casualties—so far—in Korea."

"Bold Statesmanship" Gabrielson's speech followed a Tuesday night broadcast in which Democratic National Chairman William M. Boyle, jr., said Mr. Truman's "quick and bold statesmanship has opened a new chapter in history for this country and for mankind."

Vice President Barkley is expected to enlarge on this theme in a mutual network broadcast from Chicago at 10:30 p.m. (7:30 p.m. PST) tomorrow night.

The rival party leaders agreed on only one point—that everybody should vote in next Tuesday election of a new congress and of 32 state governors.

President Truman and his aides were reported well along on the five-network radio and television speech which the chief executive is to deliver at 10 p.m. (7 p.m. PST) Saturday. White House sources indicated the St. Louis speech, an avowed campaign talk, would stress foreign affairs.

Republicans had some trouble lining up a reply to the president. Admittedly short of money, they finally contracted for time—10:30 p.m. Saturday—over a single network, mutual. That will cost around $15,000, compared with more than $100,000 for the Truman radio-TV time.

Stassen, president of the University of Pennsylvania, was selected as the speaker after Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich.), who has been ill for months, said he couldn't fill the assignment. Vandenberg has been the GOP's chief spokesman on foreign affairs.

87 ON CASUALTY LIST
WASHINGTON, Nov. 1—(AP)—The defense department has identified as killed in action 14 officers and men previously reported missing in Korea. Casualty list No. 139, released today, reported a total of 87 casualties. This included 12 killed in current action, 39 wounded, 11 injured and 11 missing in action.

Ira S. Smith, 91, Former State Senator, Dies

COOS BAY, Nov. 1—(AP)—Ira Seldon Smith, 91, former state legislator and republican leader, died at his home here today.

He represented Coos and Curry counties in the house in 1895 and 1896 and in the senate from 1913 to 1921. In 1904 he was a delegate to the republican national convention in St. Louis.

Born on a land claim near Falls City, he was in business in Dallas, Monmouth, Independence and Vale before coming here in 1905. He was in the real estate business here for 25 years.

He married Sarah Agnes McNary in Salem in 1888. Funeral services will be held here Friday. Burial will be in the City View cemetery in Salem Saturday.

Survivors include two daughters, Mrs. Roy R. Clark, Portland, and Mrs. Leo Ball of Coos Bay, and a son, Hugh I. Smith of Atlanta, Ga.

Rosedale Community Plans Dinner Nov. 4

Statesman News Service
ROSEDALE — The Community club's Thanksgiving dinner will be Saturday, November 4, at the school house. It is to be a covered dish dinner with each family bringing what they want and their own table service. Mrs. Albert Brownlee is in charge of the dinner. Mrs. Howard Largent is chairman of the decorating committee. The Garden club from Sweet Home spent Wednesday afternoon, visiting Mrs. Howard Largent's chrysanthemum garden. They were especially interested in the early English imported varieties of which she has about 35 different kinds. Tea was served to the club in the afternoon by the hostess.

Ones viewing the garden were: Winifred Russel, Carrie Emery, Lenore Keeney, Rebecca Taylor, Georgian Muntz, Ernestine Williams, Mary Ferguson, Cathryn Draga, Margaret Harrang, Ruth Conklin, Edna Kessel and Jasmyn Ladd.

MILL WORKER INJURED

ALBANY — Following a 35-foot fall at the M & M plywood mill Saturday, Leonard Pugh is in the Albany General hospital with a broken leg and dislocated elbow. A physician said he is not critically injured. The accident occurred while Pugh was working on top of a log chute, and a log hit him, hurling him off the structure.
