Grains Rush Higher During Wild Trading

· CHICAGO, Nov. 6-(AP)-Grains rushed upward on the board of trade today in an active and sometimes slightly wild trade.

Heavy buying followed official recognition of reports which have helped to sustain prices for about three weeks-that Chinese Communist troops had joined with their idealogical brothers in fighting United Nations forces in

All grains did not hold onto their best gains. There was plenselling toward the close, ch of it coming from local traders who wanted to be out of the market over the election day holiday tomorrow. That clipped sizable chunks off the advance in all but soybeans.

Wheat ended 1½ to 4 cents higher, corn 3%-5% higher, oats 2½-4½ higher, rye 3½-4½ higher, soybeans 10 cents higher and lard 62 to 92 cents a hundred pounds higher.

These gains were certainly sub-stantial, but they were a good deal less than those recorded at and shortly after the opening when buying orders poured into the pits from commission houses. At one time wheat was up as much as 6%, corn 7%, oats 6 cents (the daily limit) and rye 8 cents.

The upward surge sent all corn, oats and soybean deliveries to new seasonal highs. Also at new peaks were July wheat, May and July rye, and March and May

Since the close on Saturday, Oct. 14, at the time the Chinese Communist reports first started circulating, wheat has gained 7% to 12% cents, corn 16½ to 18% cents, oats 10¼ to 11½ cents, rye 13% to 15½ cents, soybeans 56¼ to 58 cents and lard $2.95 to $3.67 a hundred pounds.
