

City News Briefs

WAC GAINS PROMOTION

Isolde Zitzewitz, daughter of Mrs. Augusta Zitzewitz, 1267 N. Commercial st., has been promoted to sergeant in the women's army corps at U. S. army European command headquarters in Heidelberg, Germany. A graduate of Salem high school in 1941, Miss Zitzewitz has been in the WAC all but one year since 1944. She is assigned to the medical division.

Sewing machines for Xmas, small down payment will hold any sewing machine in store for Xmas delivery. Ralph Johnson Appliances, 455 Center Street.

MUMPS LEAD DISEASE

Twelve cases of mumps in Marion county, all but one of them in Salem, led last week's list of new communicable diseases reported to the county health department, it reported Tuesday. Others listed were two cases of ringworm and one each of scabies and scarlet fever.

Johns-Manville shingles applied by Mathis Bros., 164 S. Com'l. Free estimates. Ph. 3-4642.

PHONE OPERATORS SOUGHT

Examination for appointment as telephone operator, paying $2,450 to $2,640 per year, with various federal agencies in the northwest, was announced Tuesday by U. S. civil service commission. Additional information may be secured from W. H. Fischer, civil service secretary at Salem postoffice.

Spencer corsetiere. Fit guaranteed. Ph. 35072.

GIRL ON NEWSPAPER

Appointed zone manager on the business staff of the Oregon Daily Emerald, student newspaper on the University of Oregon campus, is Jeanne Hoffman, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. C. S. Hoffman, 515 Rose st. Miss Hoffman is a junior sociology major. Drawing house plans. Ph. 3-9621.

BOYS DISCUSS DATING

For a discussion on dating conducted Monday night by Dwight Edwards Junior Hi-Y club of Leslie school, resource leaders were Joyce Frost and Barbara Remelmeier, Willamette university students.

L. G. Prescott, jeweler, has opened shop at 1717 Center St. and is ready to do watch, clock and jewelry repairing. Also has complete

MUSIC ON PROGRAM

Speaker at the Salem Optimist club luncheon Thursday noon in the Senator hotel will be Dr. Willis Gates, professor of music appreciation at Willamette university, on "20th Century Music."

ENDS BASIC TRAINING

Pvt. Ray L. Comstock, son of R. B. Comstock, 1710 Trade st., has completed his air force basic indoctrination course at Lackland air force base, Texas.

Fresh killed young turkeys 39c lb. We also sell turkeys by piece. Orwig's Market, 3975 Silverton Rd. Ph. 26128

UNDERWRITERS TO MEET

The Salem Life Underwriters Training council's class will meet Monday at 9 a.m. in the fireplace room of the public library, Winter and State streets.

3% discount to fuel oil users. Tweedie gives 3% cash discount on furnace and stove oil. Standard oil dealer. Call 24151

LECTURE NEXT TUESDAY

A free lecture on Christian Science, erroneously announced for last night, will be given next Tuesday, November 14, at 8 p.m. by Arthur C. Whitney, C. S. of Chicago, at Parrish junior high school.

Births

GROSS — To Mr. and Mrs. Isaac R. Gross, Jefferson, a son, Tuesday, November 7, at Salem General hospital.

MICHEL — To Mr. and Mrs. Arthur S. Michel, Albany, a son, Tuesday, November 7, at Salem General hospital.

TOLLEY — To Mr. and Mrs. Perry E. Tolley, Detroit, a son, Tuesday, November 7, at Salem General hospital.

SILBERNAGEL — To Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Silbernagel, Stayton, a son, Tuesday, November 7, at Salem General hospital.

BROOKS — To Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Brooks, Hoskins, a daughter, Monday, November 6, at Salem General hospital.

MINDEN — To Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Minden, Sublimity, a son, Tuesday, November 7, at Salem Memorial hospital.

DURGER — To Mr. and Mrs. Paul Durger, 425 E. Ewald ave., a son, Monday, November 6, at Salem Memorial hospital.

33 to Leave For Induction Next Week

Thirty-three men for induction and 43 for pre-induction physical examination will leave Salem next week, Marion county selective service board announced Tuesday.

The inductees will report at 3 p. m. Tuesday, following at 1:30 farewell party at the YMCA, to be given by Associated Services. Refreshments and a program are planned.

In the induction group will be William J. Harris, Roger Emery Loe, Hubert Duane Graham, John Henry Singer, Floyd Howe, Ellis Elmer Sanders, James Wesley Hilborn, Everett Albert Schroeder, Paul Richard Widowsky, Vergene Robert Luke, Richard Bennett Richter, James Leroy Basl, Norbert Joseph Schaefer, Oscar Clinton Meyer, Albert Edward Salchenberg, James Leroy Abbott, Even D. Gregush.

Those leaving from here also will include Francis Dale Salisbury, transferred in from Tacoma, and Roger R. Wilson, from St. Johns, Ariz. Herbert D. Ford was transferred to Medford.

School News

by Gilbert Bateson

SALEM HIGH SCHOOL
Jim Humphrey and Bob Riggs will represent Salem high school in the city "I Speak for Democracy" contest to be held in the KSLM studio at 3 p. m. Wednesday. The speeches are five minute radio scripts written and read by the contestants telling of the desirability of democracy. The two speech students were chosen as a result of inter-school competition. Winner of the city contest will represent Salem in the state contest.

Senior Council Meets
The senior class council of Salem high held its first meeting of the year Tuesday. Class President Jim Kleen announced that senior graduation announcements from three companies will be on display in the near future. The class will vote on the style of announcement to be adopted. Kleen also told the group that class pins and rings are available and that a movie sponsored by the seniors will be shown January 11. Activities suggested at the meeting were a dance and dinner.

F. S. Bynon, jr. Succumbs to Long Illness

Frederick S. Bynon, jr., 47, well-known Salem businessman, died at his home on Wallace road Tuesday following a lengthy illness.

Bynon was born Nov. 16, 1902, in Hollywood, Calif., but spent most of his life in Salem. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick S. Bynon, sr., moved here with the family in 1908. The deceased attended Salem public schools and Willamette law school.

Bynon was a veteran of army infantry service in World War II. He was a member of the American Legion, Capital post 9. He operated a farm at Salem route 1, box 308 and was engaged in the insurance and collection business here.

He is survived by his wife, the former Eunice Helen Frewing, of Salem; a son, Frederick S. Bynon III, of Salem; daughter, Mrs.

MISS DRAGER HOST

CLOVERDALE—Rae Hardesty, grand worthy advisor of Rainbow Girls, Seaside, spent Friday and Saturday as a guest of Karleen Drager. Miss Hardesty is spending a two weeks with Mrs. Sue Tuel, mother advisor of Acacia Order of Rainbow, at Stayton. Saturday night and Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Tuel, Rae Hardesty, Karleen Drager and Shirley Hennies made a trip to Cottage Grove and Drain where they attended meetings of the Rainbow Orders at those places.

The new site, bounded by High, Liberty and East Myers streets, was occupied formerly by the old Lincoln school. The church will erect a church and parish house and prepare parking facilities. Much of the fund for the project is already on hand. The church's present property at Church and Chemeketa streets will not be sold until the congregation knows when it can move to the new edifice, said Young.

Basin Meeting Called

Willamette Basin project committee has been called to meet here December 6. Elmo Chase of Eugene will preside with speakers including Gov. Douglas McKay, Ronald E. Jones, president of the Oregon Farmers Union, and Col. D. S. Burns, district engineer.

New Episcopal Church Plans Expected Soon

Planning will proceed immediately for the new St. Paul's Episcopal church in south Salem, but construction will await stabilization of the building situation, officers said Tuesday.

Completion of purchase from the school board is expected this week, as the deed is in escrow and the church vestry has the $50,000 price in cash.

James Payne of Salem has been secured as architect, according to Donald A. Young, chairman of the building committee, which includes Dr. W. W. Baum and Dr. Charles D. Wood.

The new site, bounded by High, Liberty and East Myers streets, was occupied formerly by the old Lincoln school. The church will erect a church and parish house and prepare parking facilities. Much of the fund for the project is already on hand. The church's present property at Church and Chemeketa streets will not be sold until the congregation knows when it can move to the new edifice, said Young.

Public Records

MUNICIPAL COURT
LeRoy Evan Beals, Silverton route 2, charged with following too close, posted $10 ball.
Hilare A. Hoodley, 560 N. 19th st., charged with reckless driving, cited.
John Temple Houser, Salem route 8, box 868, charged with reckless driving, posted $75 bail.

Shepard, Zumwalt Buy Newmyer Farm Supply Store

Paul Shepard and Bob Zumwalt, both native Oregonians and grandsons of Oregon pioneers, have bought the Newmyer Farm Supply store at 324 N. Commercial st.

Shepard is the son of Ralph Shepard of Spring Valley in Polk county, and Zumwalt is the son of W. Lynn Zumwalt, prominent dairyman in Lane county. The two men are opening the store under the name of Shepard-Zumwalt Equipment company.

Shepard was for four years agricultural fieldman with the First National Bank at Salem and Zumwalt has been customer-relations man for the Salem Credit Bureau.

"Just Good Furniture Pleasingly Priced"

BRADLEY FURNITURE MART

1978 North Capitol

You Are Very Welcome to Look Around

Nothing Down Pay Monthly

VENETIAN BLINDS

SHADES DRAPE RODS ALUMINUM AWNINGS Ever-Tile Frameless Screens BAMBOO SHADES

We also wash, retape, paint and re-slat your old Venetian blinds.

ELMER, the Blind Man

Call Anytime For Free Estimates

Phone 3-7328

1425 Ruge St. West Salem

We Give S&H Green Stamps

SALE!

BIG 42 GALLON AUTOMATIC Electric Water Heaters

$84.95

Other Sizes and Styles Available

Judson's PLUMBING-HEATING

279 N. COMMERCIAL PHONE 3-4141

Salem's Mayoralty Candidates Cast Ballots

Turning from their voting booths where they had just marked their ballots are Harry V. Collins, candidate for Salem mayor, and Mrs. Collins. They voted at the Center street grocery, polling place for precinct 27. (Photos by Don Dill, Statesman staff photographer.)

Handing in ballots after voting Tuesday are Alfred W. Loucks, candidate for Salem mayor, and Mrs. Loucks. They voted at precinct 41. Receiving the ballots here is Mrs. Clifford Harold. (left), 1628 Fir st., election board chairman. Loucks is the next Salem mayor, election returns indicated Tuesday night.

Edith Wells of Seattle, Wash.; mother, Mrs. Fred S. Bynon, sr., of Salem; sisters, Mrs. F. C. Von Gortler of Seattle, Mrs. L. N. Stewart of Klamath Falls and Mrs. Charles E. Low of Brookings, and a granddaughter, Mary Louise Wells of Seattle.

Funeral services will be held Thursday, November 9, at 10:30 a.m. at the Clough-Barriok chapel with the Rev. Lloyd T. Anderson officiating and with Capital post in charge. Private concluding services will be held at Belcrest Memorial park.

LADIES' SUITS

NEW FALL

OUT THEY GO AT ONE PRICE

5.88

ALL SUITS MUST GO Regardless of Cost!

Values up to 35.00 Savings up to 20.00

Choice of 400 Suits All Styles & Colors

ANITA'S STATE and LIBERTY

With this PIN you can HEAR a pin drop!

... It's the new movable microphone of the new SONOTONE, and looks like a lovely jeweled brooch. No dangling outside cords! No muffling clothes-rub noise.

see it TODAY! Or WRITE NOW

SONOTONE

W. F. DODGE Certified Sonotone Consultant will be at

SONOTONE HEARING CENTER HOTEL SENATOR Salem, Oregon

Thursday, November 9, 9 a. m. to 7 p. m.

Investigate the "Movable Ear" SONOTONE'S NEWEST Hearing Improvement SONOTONE OF PORTLAND

AN OIL FLAME:

PREMIUM STYLE!

Call 3-7721 and order initial supply of Union 76 Fuel Oil

Receive free MILLER's Gift Bond. Make one call . . . 3-7721 . . . that's all! Constant-check, full-level service from then on!

George Barza

UNION 76

Capitol Fuel Oil