

Reece, FDR, jr., Lausche Gain Voter Support

By the Associated Press
A quick glance around the nation's political scene found many nationally-known figures leading their opponents in congressional and gubernatorial races.
Down in Tennessee former republican Rep. Carroll Reece hit the comeback trail by rolling up a substantial margin over two opponents. He is a former chairman of the republican national committee.
First returns from President Truman's home state of Missouri were calculated to cheer him, though he said he would go to bed aboard the presidential yacht Williamsburg rather than stay up listening in. Democrat Thomas C. Hennings, jr. led in his drive to unseat republican Sen. Forrest C. Donnell, an unremitting critic of Truman.
The president flew back to Washington yesterday afternoon, then left to spend the rest of the week cruising the Potomac river and Chesapeake Bay.
Rep. Franklin D. Roosevelt, jr. came through to re-election in New York City. The son of FDR beat a former Willkiete, republican Henry V. Poor.
Preacher Losing
In Oklahoma, a fighting preacher, Rev. Bill Alexander, was not doing so well in his effort to go to the U. S. senate. Alexander, republican, trailed well behind democratic Mike Monroney.
The Oklahoma governorship contest saw the democratic candidate, Johnston Murray, son of fire-eating Alfalfa Bill Murray, far in the lead. Oklahoma has never elected a republican governor.
In Connecticut, scene of bizarre campaigning by helicopters and comic books, Governor Chester A. Bowles was ahead but by a so steadily slipping margin that there were predictions of his defeat. The Hartford Courant predicted the former OPA administrator would throw to republican Rep. John Davis Lodge, of the Massachusetts Lodge. The Courant supported Lodge.
Choosing Senators
Connecticut was choosing two senators as well as a governor. The two democratic incumbents, Brien McMahon and William Benton, ran ahead of their republican foes, but the outcome was still uncertain.
Gov. Frank J. Lausche of Ohio also was ahead in his race for another term. Right up to the end he refused to say whether he had voted for Senator Taft, for whom he had expressed admiration last summer and thereby set political tongues wagging for months.
In usually democratic Kentucky, Earl C. Clements, democrat, led Charles L. Dawson for the senate.
Kansas, normally republican was giving vote margins to GOP candidates for both governor and senate on the face of early returns.
Before the returns began to come in there were estimates that upwards of 40,000,000 votes had been cast. This would be an off-year record.

CIO Puzzled Over GOP Gain In Congress

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8 (AP)—Jack Kroll, director of the CIO political action committee, said today the republicans might have captured congress in yesterday's election except for the work "we and other organizations did during the campaign."
Kroll declined to comment on the victory of Senator Robert A. Taft in Ohio—organized labor's No. 1 target—but said he was puzzled at the causes behind GOP gains in both houses.
"I can't put my finger on it," he told a reporter. "Apparently there was an undercurrent—a trend across the country—that nobody could detect in advance."
Kroll had predicted the democrats would pick up strength in the senate as well as the house.

Mrs. Skewis Succumbs at Salem Hospital

Mrs. Joyce Skewis, 36, of 1234 Allen's court, died unexpectedly at a Salem hospital Tuesday night, a few hours after she had collapsed in downtown Salem.
Mrs. Skewis had returned to Salem three months ago after living at Sequim, Wash., for a year. Before that she was a surgical nurse at Salem Memorial hospital for two years.
Deceased was born in Washington, Sept. 23, 1914, and was married to Robert Skewis at Salem on May 25, 1949.
Surviving besides the widower are her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. I. Daniel, Attala, Wash. three sisters, Mrs. Irwin F. Wedel, Salem, Mrs. Myrtle Taylor, Walla Walla, Wash., Mrs. Neil Thrasher, Los Angeles; and a brother, C. I. Daniel, Seattle.
Services will be announced later by the Virgil T. Golden chapel.

Duff Garner Large Lead in Pennsylvania

PHILADELPHIA, Wednesday, Nov. 8 (AP)—Governor James H. Duff, republican candidate for U. S. senate seat from Pennsylvania, early today took a commanding 109,000 vote lead over the senate's number two democrat, Francis J. Myers, seeking reelection.
With less than one-sixth of the state's vote still to be counted, the red-haired Duff, who established himself as one of the nation's leading republicans by his smashing victory over the state's old guard republican leadership in the May primary, had wiped out Myers' early lead gained on returns from Philadelphia and Pittsburgh.
Duff's running mate, former superior court Judge John S. Fine, was 70,000 votes ahead of democrat Richardson Dilworth, Philadelphia city treasurer in the contest for governor.
The vote from 7189 of the state's 6,356 districts, gave these totals:
For senator: Duff 1,556,755; Myers 1,447,716.
For governor: Fine 1,529,411; Dilworth 1,459,753.
Included in the total were all 1,390 districts in Philadelphia and nearly three-fourths of Pittsburgh.

Impellitteri, Dewey, Lehman Win in N. Y.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7 (AP)—Rep. Walter A. Lynch conceded defeat to Republican Gov. Thomas E. Dewey at 10:32 p. m. tonight.
Dewey, however, failed to carry Gov. Joseph P. Kamp to victory in his quest for the U. S. senate.
Sen. Herbert H. Lehman, democrat—liberal, was re-elected in another display of the vote-gaining strength that has made him New York's number one democratic campaigner for years.
Dewey's strong showing pushed him back into the thick of the 1952 GOP presidential picture. Twice defeated for president, Dewey has said he will not run again and has endorsed Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower.
But his weight will be felt in any choice of a republican candidate.
An American labor party Rep. Vito Marcantonio of New York, the minor party representative in the house, was unseated by a democratic-republican-liberal coalition formed for the sole purpose of beating him.
Marchionni's foe charged that he followed every twist and turn of the communist party line during his service in the house. The fiery East Harlem political leader, whose district includes a large number of Puerto Ricans, denied the charge.
Elected in place of "Marc" was former New York state senator, James G. Donovan, a democrat. Donovan had called Marcantonio "the last apologist for the Kremlin in congress."
The New York state campaign was complicated by a four-way tussle for New York City mayoralty, left vacant when Democratic Mayor William O'Dwyer resigned to become U. S. ambassador to Mexico.
Impellitteri, the winner, ran as an independent after the democrats failed to nominate him.

Magnuson's Lead Grows In Washington

SEATTLE, Nov. 7 (AP)—Unpredictable Pierce county was going overboard tonight for Democratic Senator Warren G. Magnuson and Republican Representative Thor Tollefson.
Snowballing for Magnuson, the Pierce county returns were threatening to make a runaway of the senator's otherwise close race with Seattle Mortgage Banker W. Walter Williams, a newcomer to politics. With 788 precincts reported, Magnuson had a 8,000-vote lead—and 6,000 of it came from the western Washington county of which Tacoma is the chief city.
Tollefson, the republican, held a 14,000 vote edge over Democrat John Coffee, a former representative trying a comeback.
It was rough sledding for two incumbent congressmen, Rep. Hugh Mitchell (D) in the first (Seattle) district and Rep. Russell Mack (R) in the third (southwest Washington) district. Mrs. F. F. Powell, Seattle city councilman, held a 2,000-vote edge on Mitchell with 402 out of 982 precincts reported. In 73 of 678 precincts, Mack was trailing Gordon Quarnstrom, young newspaperman, 825 to 874.
The vote in the 788 precincts was 63,243 for Magnuson; 55,335 for Williams.
Rep. Henry Jackson (D) was leading Herb Wilson (R) 10,825 to 5,857 in the second district; Rep. Hal Holmes (R) led Ted Little (D) 1,317 to 1,249 in the fourth district and Rep. Walt Horan (R) was in front of Robert Dellwo in the fifth district, 9,962 to 7,616.
Nutrition experts believe children should have a quart of milk a day.

Taft Opponent Admits Defeat In Ohio Contest

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 8 (Wednesday)—(AP)—Joseph T. Ferguson, democratic candidate for the U. S. senate conceded his defeat early today by Republican Senator Robert A. Taft.
Ferguson, in a telegram to Taft, said: "Congratulations on your victory. You not only handed me a licking, but also gave me the greatest surprise of my life."
Tabulation of 5,797 of Ohio's 10,386 polling places gave: Taft 840,634; Ferguson 635,353.
Taft's victory apparently was clinched when he pulled ahead in Cuyahoga county (Cleveland), a democratic stronghold which Ferguson had expected to carry by 100,000.
The vote in 1400 of the 1879 Cuyahoga polling places gave Taft 188,026 votes to Ferguson's 150,654.

Warren, Nixon Share Victory In California

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 8 (Wednesday)—(AP)—James Roosevelt at midnight conceded defeat to Gov. Earl Warren in the race for governor of California.
Roosevelt, in a statement, said: "I have just sent the following telegram to Gov. Earl Warren at the state capitol, Sacramento:
"The people of California have by conclusive vote decided this election. I send you my sincere congratulations on S. Mrs. Roosevelt joins me in extending to you, Mr. Warren, and your family every personal good wish."
"In addition to the telegram to Governor Warren, I wish to extend my great appreciation and thanks to the many hundreds of thousands of voters who supported the democratic candidates and myself. I shall never forget the splendid job done by the many workers in the face of the heaviest opposition. To them I give my assurance that in my capacity as democratic national committeeman I shall continue to press forward with our program to keep building within California strong, vigorous, and progressive democratic party."
"We must remember that a good fight is never a losing fight. The principles we believe in have been proven sound and have worked for the benefit of the vast majority of the American people."
"I shall join with all those who will carry on the never-ending fight to continue and extend these principles."
Rep. Richard Nixon, California republican running well ahead of his democratic opponent, Rep. Helen Gahagan Douglas, for the U. S. senate, issued this statement early today:
"On the basis of latest returns it appears that the people of California have elected me as their new senator." He added "the immediate job ahead of us is to work for lasting peace."
California, governor, 3,080 precincts of 18,408, Warren (R) 283,811, Roosevelt (D) 149,582.
California, senator, 2,793 precincts of 18,408, Nixon (R) 198,094, Douglas (D) 125,965.

Dirkson Wins Over Lucas in Illinois Race

CHICAGO, Nov. 8, Wednesday (AP)—Republican Everett M. Dirksen defeated Democratic Eric Scott W. Lucas in the Illinois senate race. Lucas, the senate majority leader, conceded defeat at 12:40 a. m. (CST) today.
Tears welled in the eyes of Lucas as he read his statement to reporters and into a radio microphone.
"It appears that I have lost the contest," he said. "I desire to thank all my friends and especially my staff who so faithfully labored in my behalf."
"During my 16 years in congress I have done everything in my power to promote the cause of everlasting peace. In private life I shall continue devotedly in the pursuit of that noble objective."
"I desire to congratulate my opponent upon his victory."

Dean Walker Re-Elected in Benton, Polk

DALLAS, Nov. 8—Dean Walker, veteran independence state senator, was apparently re-elected senator from the Polk-Benton county district on the basis of incomplete returns reported here early this morning (Wednesday).
With 16 of 38 Polk county precincts reported at 1 a. m., Walker was leading A. E. Albertson, Corvallis democrat, 2,029 to 987 votes. With 20 Benton counties complete and 10 complete, Albertson was leading in that section by only 30 votes, insufficient to turn the tide against the Polk vote.
In the Polk county representative race, Frank M. Farmer, republican, led Joseph Singer, democrat, 2,013 to 1,018.
E. B. Hamilton, republican county clerk appointed recently, led his democratic opponent, Mrs. Harriet Enstad 1,783 to 1,161.

Local Option Beaten Soundly In Monmouth

MONMOUTH, Nov. 7.—The local option measure proposing sales of beer and wine in Monmouth stores—a "dry" city for many years, was defeated overwhelmingly here today by a 317 to 80 majority.
Incumbent Mayor H. W. Morland was voted back into office, defeating write-in candidate, Mrs. Margaret Campbell 375 to 102.
Elected to the city council were O. A. Macey with 287 votes and E. N. Stebbins with 252. Carl Fischer was runnerup with 180 votes.
A total of 509 votes were cast, setting a new record for the city.
A technical name for color television is "trichromatic," meaning three-colored.

Yamhill Kills Proposal for Local Option

McMINNVILLE, Nov. 7.—The local option proposal to permit Yamhill county to vote itself "dry" was apparently going down to defeat, late returns indicated here tonight.
With nine out of 33 precincts reporting at midnight, 1,364 voted against the measure and 727 favored it.
A proposed $90,000 a year levy to maintain county roads was also headed for defeat for the fourth time in as many elections. No votes totaled 1,096, compared with 835 for the 3-mill levy.
A neck-and-neck race, still undecided at midnight, was between Eugene Marsh, McMinnville republican incumbent state senator who had 1,103 votes compared with 1,098 for his opponent, Keith Coburn, McMinnville democrat.
With two state representatives to be elected, Carl H. Francis, Dayton republican and incumbent, led the ticket with 1,315 votes. Elliott Cummins, McMinnville republican was second with 1,080, but was followed closely by Guy Shumway, democrat, who had 980. Will Bolash, democrat, was fourth with 497.
Fred Muhs, republican incumbent assessor had 1,244 votes to lead his democratic opponent Earl M. Wisecarver, who had 865.
In the Yamhill county clerk's race, Jack Beeler, democrat, was leading A. R. McLaughlin, republican incumbent by a slender 1,074 to 1,012.
A. W. Youngberg, republican incumbent commissioner, was leading his democratic opponent, Loda E. Early, 586 to 447.

Holds Lead City Manager Plan Ahead in Albany Vote

ALBANY, Nov. 7.—The initiative measure seeking ouster of the city manager form of government here appeared to be defeated late tonight when eight of 13 precincts were reported.
A total of 826 votes were cast against the proposal to remove the year-old manager form, compared with 602 favoring its removal. Several eastside and westside precincts were yet unreported and could change the midnight results of the hottest election here in many years.
Still undecided was a close mayor's race between incumbent Jesse L. Savage, proponent of the manager form, and Lyle M. Bain, leader of the opposition. Shortly before midnight, Savage was holding a slender 779 to 721 lead over Bain.
In the ward one council race, Dan Roth had 477 votes, Donald W. Densmore, 470, Raymond Barrett 468, and Melvin DeWitt 466, Barrett and Densmore are incumbents.
In the ward one council race, Dan B. Roth and incumbent Donald W. Densmore were elected in a close contest. Roth had 477 votes, Densmore 470, Raymond Barrett, incumbent, 468, and Melvin DeWitt 468.
Frank Dooley and Harold D. Fischer were elected councilmen in the second ward, edging out Tom Dryton and Miller F. Willis.
A $500,000 bond issue to build a new sewage disposal was leading by a surprising 1,100 to 304 majority.
A measure to place city firemen and policemen under civil service was leading 876 to 547.

Local Option Beaten Soundly In Monmouth

MONMOUTH, Nov. 7.—The local option measure proposing sales of beer and wine in Monmouth stores—a "dry" city for many years, was defeated overwhelmingly here today by a 317 to 80 majority.
Incumbent Mayor H. W. Morland was voted back into office, defeating write-in candidate, Mrs. Margaret Campbell 375 to 102.
Elected to the city council were O. A. Macey with 287 votes and E. N. Stebbins with 252. Carl Fischer was runnerup with 180 votes.
A total of 509 votes were cast, setting a new record for the city.
A technical name for color television is "trichromatic," meaning three-colored.

Yamhill Kills Proposal for Local Option

McMINNVILLE, Nov. 7.—The local option proposal to permit Yamhill county to vote itself "dry" was apparently going down to defeat, late returns indicated here tonight.
With nine out of 33 precincts reporting at midnight, 1,364 voted against the measure and 727 favored it.
A proposed $90,000 a year levy to maintain county roads was also headed for defeat for the fourth time in as many elections. No votes totaled 1,096, compared with 835 for the 3-mill levy.
A neck-and-neck race, still undecided at midnight, was between Eugene Marsh, McMinnville republican incumbent state senator who had 1,103 votes compared with 1,098 for his opponent, Keith Coburn, McMinnville democrat.
With two state representatives to be elected, Carl H. Francis, Dayton republican and incumbent, led the ticket with 1,315 votes. Elliott Cummins, McMinnville republican was second with 1,080, but was followed closely by Guy Shumway, democrat, who had 980. Will Bolash, democrat, was fourth with 497.
Fred Muhs, republican incumbent assessor had 1,244 votes to lead his democratic opponent Earl M. Wisecarver, who had 865.
In the Yamhill county clerk's race, Jack Beeler, democrat, was leading A. R. McLaughlin, republican incumbent by a slender 1,074 to 1,012.
A. W. Youngberg, republican incumbent commissioner, was leading his democratic opponent, Loda E. Early, 586 to 447.

Holdings Lead City Manager Plan Ahead in Albany Vote

ALBANY, Nov. 7.—The initiative measure seeking ouster of the city manager form of government here appeared to be defeated late tonight when eight of 13 precincts were reported.
A total of 826 votes were cast against the proposal to remove the year-old manager form, compared with 602 favoring its removal. Several eastside and westside precincts were yet unreported and could change the midnight results of the hottest election here in many years.
Still undecided was a close mayor's race between incumbent Jesse L. Savage, proponent of the manager form, and Lyle M. Bain, leader of the opposition. Shortly before midnight, Savage was holding a slender 779 to 721 lead over Bain.
In the ward one council race, Dan Roth had 477 votes, Donald W. Densmore, 470, Raymond Barrett 468, and Melvin DeWitt 466, Barrett and Densmore are incumbents.
In the ward one council race, Dan B. Roth and incumbent Donald W. Densmore were elected in a close contest. Roth had 477 votes, Densmore 470, Raymond Barrett, incumbent, 468, and Melvin DeWitt 468.
Frank Dooley and Harold D. Fischer were elected councilmen in the second ward, edging out Tom Dryton and Miller F. Willis.
A $500,000 bond issue to build a new sewage disposal was leading by a surprising 1,100 to 304 majority.
A measure to place city firemen and policemen under civil service was leading 876 to 547.

Local Option Beaten Soundly In Monmouth

MONMOUTH, Nov. 7.—The local option measure proposing sales of beer and wine in Monmouth stores—a "dry" city for many years, was defeated overwhelmingly here today by a 317 to 80 majority.
Incumbent Mayor H. W. Morland was voted back into office, defeating write-in candidate, Mrs. Margaret Campbell 375 to 102.
Elected to the city council were O. A. Macey with 287 votes and E. N. Stebbins with 252. Carl Fischer was runnerup with 180 votes.
A total of 509 votes were cast, setting a new record for the city.
A technical name for color television is "trichromatic," meaning three-colored.

Yamhill Kills Proposal for Local Option

McMINNVILLE, Nov. 7.—The local option proposal to permit Yamhill county to vote itself "dry" was apparently going down to defeat, late returns indicated here tonight.
With nine out of 33 precincts reporting at midnight, 1,364 voted against the measure and 727 favored it.
A proposed $90,000 a year levy to maintain county roads was also headed for defeat for the fourth time in as many elections. No votes totaled 1,096, compared with 835 for the 3-mill levy.
A neck-and-neck race, still undecided at midnight, was between Eugene Marsh, McMinnville republican incumbent state senator who had 1,103 votes compared with 1,098 for his opponent, Keith Coburn, McMinnville democrat.
With two state representatives to be elected, Carl H. Francis, Dayton republican and incumbent, led the ticket with 1,315 votes. Elliott Cummins, McMinnville republican was second with 1,080, but was followed closely by Guy Shumway, democrat, who had 980. Will Bolash, democrat, was fourth with 497.
Fred Muhs, republican incumbent assessor had 1,244 votes to lead his democratic opponent Earl M. Wisecarver, who had 865.
In the Yamhill county clerk's race, Jack Beeler, democrat, was leading A. R. McLaughlin, republican incumbent by a slender 1,074 to 1,012.
A. W. Youngberg, republican incumbent commissioner, was leading his democratic opponent, Loda E. Early, 586 to 447.

Local Option Beaten Soundly In Monmouth

MONMOUTH, Nov. 7.—The local option measure proposing sales of beer and wine in Monmouth stores—a "dry" city for many years, was defeated overwhelmingly here today by a 317 to 80 majority.
Incumbent Mayor H. W. Morland was voted back into office, defeating write-in candidate, Mrs. Margaret Campbell 375 to 102.
Elected to the city council were O. A. Macey with 287 votes and E. N. Stebbins with 252. Carl Fischer was runnerup with 180 votes.
A total of 509 votes were cast, setting a new record for the city.
A technical name for color television is "trichromatic," meaning three-colored.

Yamhill Kills Proposal for Local Option

McMINNVILLE, Nov. 7.—The local option proposal to permit Yamhill county to vote itself "dry" was apparently going down to defeat, late returns indicated here tonight.
With nine out of 33 precincts reporting at midnight, 1,364 voted against the measure and 727 favored it.
A proposed $90,000 a year levy to maintain county roads was also headed for defeat for the fourth time in as many elections. No votes totaled 1,096, compared with 835 for the 3-mill levy.
A neck-and-neck race, still undecided at midnight, was between Eugene Marsh, McMinnville republican incumbent state senator who had 1,103 votes compared with 1,098 for his opponent, Keith Coburn, McMinnville democrat.
With two state representatives to be elected, Carl H. Francis, Dayton republican and incumbent, led the ticket with 1,315 votes. Elliott Cummins, McMinnville republican was second with 1,080, but was followed closely by Guy Shumway, democrat, who had 980. Will Bolash, democrat, was fourth with 497.
Fred Muhs, republican incumbent assessor had 1,244 votes to lead his democratic opponent Earl M. Wisecarver, who had 865.
In the Yamhill county clerk's race, Jack Beeler, democrat, was leading A. R. McLaughlin, republican incumbent by a slender 1,074 to 1,012.
A. W. Youngberg, republican incumbent commissioner, was leading his democratic opponent, Loda E. Early, 586 to 447.

Local Option Beaten Soundly In Monmouth

MONMOUTH, Nov. 7.—The local option measure proposing sales of beer and wine in Monmouth stores—a "dry" city for many years, was defeated overwhelmingly here today by a 317 to 80 majority.
Incumbent Mayor H. W. Morland was voted back into office, defeating write-in candidate, Mrs. Margaret Campbell 375 to 102.
Elected to the city council were O. A. Macey with 287 votes and E. N. Stebbins with 252. Carl Fischer was runnerup with 180 votes.
A total of 509 votes were cast, setting a new record for the city.
A technical name for color television is "trichromatic," meaning three-colored.

Yamhill Kills Proposal for Local Option

McMINNVILLE, Nov. 7.—The local option proposal to permit Yamhill county to vote itself "dry" was apparently going down to defeat, late returns indicated here tonight.
With nine out of 33 precincts reporting at midnight, 1,364 voted against the measure and 727 favored it.
A proposed $90,000 a year levy to maintain county roads was also headed for defeat for the fourth time in as many elections. No votes totaled 1,096, compared with 835 for the 3-mill levy.
A neck-and-neck race, still undecided at midnight, was between Eugene Marsh, McMinnville republican incumbent state senator who had 1,103 votes compared with 1,098 for his opponent, Keith Coburn, McMinnville democrat.
With two state representatives to be elected, Carl H. Francis, Dayton republican and incumbent, led the ticket with 1,315 votes. Elliott Cummins, McMinnville republican was second with 1,080, but was followed closely by Guy Shumway, democrat, who had 980. Will Bolash, democrat, was fourth with 497.
Fred Muhs, republican incumbent assessor had 1,244 votes to lead his democratic opponent Earl M. Wisecarver, who had 865.
In the Yamhill county clerk's race, Jack Beeler, democrat, was leading A. R. McLaughlin, republican incumbent by a slender 1,074 to 1,012.
A. W. Youngberg, republican incumbent commissioner, was leading his democratic opponent, Loda E. Early, 586 to 447.

Local Option Beaten Soundly In Monmouth

MONMOUTH, Nov. 7.—The local option measure proposing sales of beer and wine in Monmouth stores—a "dry" city for many years, was defeated overwhelmingly here today by a 317 to 80 majority.
Incumbent Mayor H. W. Morland was voted back into office, defeating write-in candidate, Mrs. Margaret Campbell 375 to 102.
Elected to the city council were O. A. Macey with 287 votes and E. N. Stebbins with 252. Carl Fischer was runnerup with 180 votes.
A total of 509 votes were cast, setting a new record for the city.
A technical name for color television is "trichromatic," meaning three-colored.

Yamhill Kills Proposal for Local Option

McMINNVILLE, Nov. 7.—The local option proposal to permit Yamhill county to vote itself "dry" was apparently going down to defeat, late returns indicated here tonight.
With nine out of 33 precincts reporting at midnight, 1,364 voted against the measure and 727 favored it.
A proposed $90,000 a year levy to maintain county roads was also headed for defeat for the fourth time in as many elections. No votes totaled 1,096, compared with 835 for the 3-mill levy.
A neck-and-neck race, still undecided at midnight, was between Eugene Marsh, McMinnville republican incumbent state senator who had 1,103 votes compared with 1,098 for his opponent, Keith Coburn, McMinnville democrat.
With two state representatives to be elected, Carl H. Francis, Dayton republican and incumbent, led the ticket with 1,315 votes. Elliott Cummins, McMinnville republican was second with 1,080, but was followed closely by Guy Shumway, democrat, who had 980. Will Bolash, democrat, was fourth with 497.
Fred Muhs, republican incumbent assessor had 1,244 votes to lead his democratic opponent Earl M. Wisecarver, who had 865.
In the Yamhill county clerk's race, Jack Beeler, democrat, was leading A. R. McLaughlin, republican incumbent by a slender 1,074 to 1,012.
A. W. Youngberg, republican incumbent commissioner, was leading his democratic opponent, Loda E. Early, 586 to 447.

Holdings Lead City Manager Plan Ahead in Albany Vote

ALBANY, Nov. 7.—The initiative measure seeking ouster of the city manager form of government here appeared to be defeated late tonight when eight of 13 precincts were reported.
A total of 826 votes were cast against the proposal to remove the year-old manager form, compared with 602 favoring its removal. Several eastside and westside precincts were yet unreported and could change the midnight results of the hottest election here in many years.
Still undecided was a close mayor's race between incumbent Jesse L. Savage, proponent of the manager form, and Lyle M. Bain, leader of the opposition. Shortly before midnight, Savage was holding a slender 779 to 721 lead over Bain.
In the ward one council race, Dan Roth had 477 votes, Donald W. Densmore, 470, Raymond Barrett 468, and Melvin DeWitt 466, Barrett and Densmore are incumbents.
In the ward one council race, Dan B. Roth and incumbent Donald W. Densmore were elected in a close contest. Roth had 477 votes, Densmore 470, Raymond Barrett, incumbent, 468, and Melvin DeWitt 468.
Frank Dooley and Harold D. Fischer were elected councilmen in the second ward, edging out Tom Dryton and Miller F. Willis.
A $500,000 bond issue to build a new sewage disposal was leading by a surprising 1,100 to 304 majority.
A measure to place city firemen and policemen under civil service was leading 876 to 547.

Local Option Beaten Soundly In Monmouth

MONMOUTH, Nov. 7.—The local option measure proposing sales of beer and wine in Monmouth stores—a "dry" city for many years, was defeated overwhelmingly here today by a 317 to 80 majority.
Incumbent Mayor H. W. Morland was voted back into office, defeating write-in candidate, Mrs. Margaret Campbell 375 to 102.
Elected to the city council were O. A. Macey with 287 votes and E. N. Stebbins with 252. Carl Fischer was runnerup with 180 votes.
A total of 509 votes were cast, setting a new record for the city.
A technical name for color television is "trichromatic," meaning three-colored.

Yamhill Kills Proposal for Local Option

McMINNVILLE, Nov. 7.—The local option proposal to permit Yamhill county to vote itself "dry" was apparently going down to defeat, late returns indicated here tonight.
With nine out of 33 precincts reporting at midnight, 1,364 voted against the measure and 727 favored it.
A proposed $90,000 a year levy to maintain county roads was also headed for defeat for the fourth time in as many elections. No votes totaled 1,096, compared with 835 for the 3-mill levy.
A neck-and-neck race, still undecided at midnight, was between Eugene Marsh, McMinnville republican incumbent state senator who had 1,103 votes compared with 1,098 for his opponent, Keith Coburn, McMinnville democrat.
With two state representatives to be elected, Carl H. Francis, Dayton republican and incumbent, led the ticket with 1,315 votes. Elliott Cummins, McMinnville republican was second with 1,080, but was followed closely by Guy Shumway, democrat, who had 980. Will Bolash, democrat, was fourth with 497.
Fred Muhs, republican incumbent assessor had 1,244 votes to lead his democratic opponent Earl M. Wisecarver, who had 865.
In the Yamhill county clerk's race, Jack Beeler, democrat, was leading A. R. McLaughlin, republican incumbent by a slender 1,074 to 1,012.
A. W. Youngberg, republican incumbent commissioner, was leading his democratic opponent, Loda E. Early, 586 to 447.

Local Option Beaten Soundly In Monmouth

MONMOUTH, Nov. 7.—The local option measure proposing sales of beer and wine in Monmouth stores—a "dry" city for many years, was defeated overwhelmingly here today by a 317 to 80 majority.
Incumbent Mayor H. W. Morland was voted back into office, defeating write-in candidate, Mrs. Margaret Campbell 375 to 102.
Elected to the city council were O. A. Macey with 287 votes and E. N. Stebbins with 252. Carl Fischer was runnerup with 180 votes.
A total of 509 votes were cast, setting a new record for the city.
A technical name for color television is "trichromatic," meaning three-colored.

Yamhill Kills Proposal for Local Option

McMINNVILLE, Nov. 7.—The local option proposal to permit Yamhill county to vote itself "dry" was apparently going down to defeat, late returns indicated here tonight.
With nine out of 33 precincts reporting at midnight, 1,364 voted against the measure and 727 favored it.
A proposed $90,000 a year levy to maintain county roads was also headed for defeat for the fourth time in as many elections. No votes totaled 1,096, compared with 835 for the 3-mill levy.
A neck-and-neck race, still undecided at midnight, was between Eugene Marsh, McMinnville republican incumbent state senator who had 1,103 votes compared with 1,098 for his opponent, Keith Coburn, McMinnville democrat.
With two state representatives to be elected, Carl H. Francis, Dayton republican and incumbent, led the ticket with 1,315 votes. Elliott Cummins, McMinnville republican was second with 1,080, but was followed closely by Guy Shumway, democrat, who had 980. Will Bolash, democrat, was fourth with 497.
Fred Muhs, republican incumbent assessor had 1,244 votes to lead his democratic opponent Earl M. Wisecarver, who had 865.
In the Yamhill county clerk's race, Jack Beeler, democrat, was leading A. R. McLaughlin, republican incumbent by a slender 1,074 to 1,012.
A. W. Youngberg, republican incumbent commissioner, was leading his democratic opponent, Loda E. Early, 586 to 447.

Local Option Beaten Soundly In Monmouth

MONMOUTH, Nov. 7.—The local option measure proposing sales of beer and wine in Monmouth stores—a "dry" city for many years, was defeated overwhelmingly here today by a 317 to 80 majority.
Incumbent Mayor H. W. Morland was voted back into office, defeating write-in candidate, Mrs. Margaret Campbell 375 to 102.
Elected to the city council were O. A. Macey with 287 votes and E. N. Stebbins with 252. Carl Fischer was runnerup with 180 votes.
A total of 509 votes were cast, setting a new record for the city.
A technical name for color television is "trichromatic," meaning three-colored.

Yamhill Kills Proposal for Local Option

McMINNVILLE, Nov. 7.—The local option proposal to permit Yamhill county to vote itself "dry" was apparently going down to defeat, late returns indicated here tonight.
With nine out of 33 precincts reporting at midnight, 1,364 voted against the measure and 727 favored it.
A proposed $90,000 a year levy to maintain county roads was also headed for defeat for the fourth time in as many elections. No votes totaled 1,096, compared with 835 for the 3-mill levy.
A neck-and-neck race, still undecided at midnight, was between Eugene Marsh, McMinnville republican incumbent state senator who had 1,103 votes compared with 1,098 for his opponent, Keith Coburn, McMinnville democrat.
With two state representatives to be elected, Carl H. Francis, Dayton republican and incumbent, led the ticket with 1,315 votes. Elliott Cummins, McMinnville republican was second with 1,080, but was followed closely by Guy Shumway, democrat, who had 980. Will Bolash, democrat, was fourth with 497.
Fred Muhs, republican incumbent assessor had 1,244 votes to lead his democratic opponent Earl M. Wisecarver, who had 865.
In the Yamhill county clerk's race, Jack Beeler, democrat, was leading A. R. McLaughlin, republican incumbent by a slender 1,074 to 1,012.
A. W. Youngberg, republican incumbent commissioner, was leading his democratic opponent, Loda E. Early, 586 to 447.

Local Option Beaten Soundly In Monmouth

MONMOUTH, Nov. 7.—The local option measure proposing sales of beer and wine in Monmouth stores—a "dry" city for many years, was defeated overwhelmingly here today by a 317 to 80 majority.
Incumbent Mayor H. W. Morland was voted back into office, defeating write-in candidate, Mrs. Margaret Campbell 375 to 102.
Elected to the city council were O. A. Macey with 287 votes and E. N. Stebbins with 252. Carl Fischer was runnerup with 180 votes.
A total of 509 votes were cast, setting a new record for the city.
A technical name for color television is "trichromatic," meaning three-colored.

Yamhill Kills Proposal for Local Option

McMINNVILLE, Nov. 7.—The local option proposal to permit Yamhill county to vote itself "dry" was apparently going down to defeat, late returns indicated here tonight.
With nine out of 33 precincts reporting at midnight, 1,364 voted against the measure and 727 favored it.
A proposed $90,000 a year levy to maintain county roads was also headed for defeat for the fourth time in as many elections. No votes totaled 1,096, compared with 835 for the 3-mill levy.
A neck-and-neck race, still undecided at midnight, was between Eugene Marsh, McMinnville republican incumbent state senator who had 1,103 votes compared with 1,098 for his opponent, Keith Coburn, McMinnville democrat.
With two state representatives to be elected, Carl H. Francis, Dayton republican and incumbent, led the ticket with 1,315 votes. Elliott Cummins, McMinnville republican was second with 1,080, but was followed closely by Guy Shumway, democrat, who had 980. Will Bolash, democrat, was fourth with 497.
Fred Muhs, republican incumbent assessor had 1,244 votes to lead his democratic opponent Earl M. Wisecarver, who had 865.
In the Yamhill county clerk's race, Jack Beeler