Parties of Note, Weekend Doings

By Jermye English
FOR A NEWCOMER . . . Mrs. Henry A. Meyer and Mrs. Paul Wilson were tea hostesses on Wednesday afternoon for the pleasure of Mrs. Charles McGinn, Jr., who recently moved here from Portland. The affair was held at the attractive home of Mrs. Meyer's sister-in-law, Miss Agnes Meyer. . . The McGinns will soon be moving into their new home on Mountain View Drive . . . they have four children, Catherine, a student at the University of Oregon, Mary Jo, Sally, and Charles, III. . . Mr. McGinn is a hop broker. . . the hostesses invited a few friends to meet the charming newcomer. . . The tea table decor carried out the violet and pink color scheme of the living and dining rooms. . . A pink linen cloth covered the table and the centerpiece was of violets.

Birthday tea . . . on Thursday afternoon for Mrs. May Christenson, who is the honor guest at an informal party for which Dr. Mary B. Purvine and Mrs. L. K. Lawrence were hostesses at the Purvine home on University street. . . Fourteen friends called to wish Mrs. Christenson a happy birthday. . .

Reception tonight . . . for Myra Albert Wiggins, native of Salem, whose oil paintings are on exhibit at the Elfstrom Galleries. . . guests are being invited through the press to view the paintings and greet Mrs. Wiggins in the gallery between 7:30 and 9 o'clock. . . Thursday afternoon members of the Salem Art Association invited a few of Mrs. Wiggins' long time friends to tea at the gallery and to see her show. . . Assisting were Miss Elizabeth Reid, Mrs. Chester Cox and Mrs. William Everett Anderson. . . Dr. and Mrs. Bert Brown Barker came down from Portland for the occasion. . .

Here for wedding . . . Mrs. Budd Coons is down from Pullman, Wash., for the marriage of her brother Bill and Janet Lindley on Sunday afternoon. . . she expects to remain until the first of the week and at the home of her parents, the Glenn Parsons. . . From the University of Oregon campus will come Josephine Caughlin, who will be Janet's honor attendant, Crystal Huntington and Irene McLeod. . . and from Oregon State college there will be Jean Pickett and Nancy Snyder. . . The girls have all been friends since early school days. . .

Change of address . . . for Mrs. Henry H. Marsden, who has taken an apartment at 677 North Summer street, formerly occupied by Coe and Lois Roberts, who have moved into their newly built home on Vista avenue. . . Salem friends of Jim and Jean Hague, who formerly lived here, will be interested to learn that they recently moved to Manhattan Beach, Calif., where he is with the American Gypsum Co. . . The Hagues have been living in Claremont, Calif., since leaving Salem. . .

Weekend doings . . . Hunting down in the Lakeview country for several days are the F. D. Quisenberry, Breyman Boises, Axel Eoff, Daniel J. Fry and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Huggins. . . To Portland . . . tonight for the Ballet Russe will be the Merrill Ohlms and daughter, Sara Ann. . . the latter will then go on to Grand Rapids for the weekend to visit with friends. . . The John F. Mauldings will be in Portland Saturday to attend the wedding of Gloria Merten and Bill Gash at the Central Presbyterian church with a reception following in the Junior ballroom of the Multnomah hotel. . . They will be joined in Portland by Lawrence and Marjorie Christian. . .

Spending the weekend . . . at their cabin on the Little North Fork of the Santiam will be the A. A. Schramms and their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Schramm who are coming down from Portland. . . Home from Seattle . . . are the Floyd W. Shepards, who went north for the Washington-California game last Saturday. . . They had a grand time seeing their old friends at parties preceding and following the game. . . they also visited in Tacoma with friends.

Number New Sewing Aids on Market Make Task of Clothes-Making Simpler

By Sue Gardner
For the woman who likes to sew, there are a number of new sewing aids on the market that will make the task of clothes making much simpler. One of the newest gadgets that will probably replace the old-fashioned pin cushion as well as that bad habit many women have of keeping pins in their mouth while fitting a garment, is a new plastic pin dispenser. You load the little container, that looks like a salt-cellar, with pins, screw on the top and by pressing it down, you have one pin at a time automatically dispensed for your use. An automatic needle dispenser is also available. For the home seamstress who uses a wide vari-

Myra Albert Wiggins, Seattle painter and native of Salem, straightens one of the oils which she is displaying at the Elfstrom galleries this week and next. A reception in her honor is being given tonight at 7:30. All interested persons are invited to the reception and to the exhibit. (Statesman photo)

Sojourners' Guest Day

Guests day was a feature of the Sojourners' dessert luncheon on Thursday at the Salem Woman's clubhouse. Guests present were Mrs. M. Stoutenberg, Mrs. J. R. Calvert, Mrs. William Lieske, Mrs. E. D. Daggett, Mrs. T. F. Ellinger, Mrs. M. D. Ebner, Mrs. H. F. Tiano, Mrs. R. G. Schupp, Mrs. Thomas W. Kelley, Mrs. Carl Jordan, Mrs. Leonard Ansenmacher, Miss Dorothy Cooper, Mrs. Carl W. Emmons, Mrs. Patrick Gillespie, Mrs. W. E. Mead, Mrs. W. T. Small, Mrs. Ray Laky and Mrs. Kenneth Dunigan.

New members welcomed were Mrs. M. M. Rilette, Mrs. Gordon Gillfillan, Mrs. R. R. Younce and Mrs. J. E. Gleeson. The Thanksgiving theme was used in the decor. Mrs. Emmett Reihl gave an antique sterling bell for the use of the club. Announcement was made that the Christmas semi-formal dance will be held December 22 at the Mayflower hall.

Mr. Stringham Guest Speaker

Raymond Stringham, speaker before Soroptimist club at its luncheon meeting on Wednesday, stressed the centuries of Russian greed for domination, and Moscow's faithlessness to treaties and agreements that carry back in an unbroken pattern through fifteen hundred years. During the 25 years of Napoleon's power Russia changed her position and promises five times, the speaker said, breaking alliances as she found them in her way. He brought Russia's story quickly to the acquiring of Manchuria, to World War I, and to the present. "Lenin promised loot and conquest, and the right to kill," the speaker said. "Wherever Russia meets western civilization, we face our destiny. After fifteen hundred years will she stop her conquests? Or will she finish the battle begun 1498 years ago? Our destiny is to decide whether, in the relentless course of history, America will preserve the civilization of the world." Mrs. Stringham was a luncheon guest. President Mrs. H. G. Malsion, announced a showing of the Myra Wiggins' pictures in the Elfstrom's gallery, and the open house on Friday.

Next meeting will be a social one with Mrs. Winifred Pettijohn November 15. Assisting hostesses will be Mrs. Eva Rush, Mrs. Henry Miller, Mrs. Walter A. Barsch, Mrs. F. G. Rankia and Mrs. Nell Brannan.

Following the game . . . they also visited in Tacoma with friends.

Ruef-Artz Nuptials at St. Mary's

St. Mary's church at Mt. Angel was the setting for the autumn wedding of Miss Jean Marie Artz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Artz of Salem, and Peter A. Ruef, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Ruef of Mt. Angel, on Wednesday morning at 8:15 a.m.

Father Cyril Lebold, OSB, Mt. Angel, officiated at the nuptial high mass. Mass servers were Richard Artz, brother of the bride, and Max Ruef, the groom's brother.

Miss Pauline Saalfeld was the soloist and Miss Helen Keber the organist. Bouquets of bronze, orchid and white chrysanthemums banked the altar. Of white satin was the bridal gown enhanced with a heavy beaded lace bodice with the lace insertion extending into the skirt, which ended in a train. Her French illusion veil was edged with lace and rhinestones and cascaded from a crown of seed pearls and rhinestones. She carried a bouquet of American Beauty roses and a rosary.

Miss Laureen Artz was her sister's honor maid and wore an orchid satin gown with gold mitts and matching bonnet. She carried gold and orchid chrysanthemums. Bridesmaids were Miss Lois Ann Artz, sister of the bride, and Miss Gloria Ruef, the groom's sister. Their dresses were of gold satin and they wore orchid mitts and gold bonnets. Their bouquets were of gold and orchid chrysanthemums. Karen Sue Artz, the bride's youngest sister, was flower girl and Dickie Kudva was the ring bearer.

Larry Traeger of Mt. Angel stood with the groom as best man and groomsmen were Eddie Kahut and George Andres. Ushers were John Kilminger, Gale Buckheit, Alex Erwert, Vincent Traeger and James Nosack.

Mrs. Artz chose a desert rose suit with pink and black accessories and corsage of pink carnations for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Ruef wore a black gown with a rose trim and corsage of white carnations.

A reception was held at the Legion hall in Mt. Angel and the wedding breakfast was at the Mt. Angel hotel.

Pouring and assisting were Mrs. George Kudva, Mrs. Frank Hopkins, Mrs. Fred Bennett, Miss Agnes and Miss Marie Silvernagel, Mrs. Clara Hessel, Mrs. Martha Pokorny, Mrs. Bettie Corrigan, Miss Beverly Kubler, Mrs. S. Delores Gamble and Miss Geraldine Traeger.

The newlyweds have gone to southern California on their wedding trip and for traveling the bride donned a red suit with black accessories and a gold top coat. The couple will live in Salem at 610 Union street.

Aldene Frey Tells Troth

Mrs. Elsa Frey is announcing the engagement of her daughter, Aldene, to Phillip M. Boyd of Salem, son of Mrs. A. M. Boyd of Toronto, Canada. The wedding will take place on November 24 at the Christ Lutheran church.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Salem schools and is employed at the public utilities commission. Her fiancé attended schools in New Brunswick, Canada, and is now employed at the Capital Journal.

Card Party to Benefit Juniors

Salem Court of The Junior Catholic Daughters of America is sponsoring a benefit card party next Wednesday, November 15, at 8 p.m. in Catholic Center. Tickets are being sold by the members and on Saturday, November 11, a booth will be set up in Millers store where tickets may be purchased by the general public. Bridge, pinocle, 500 and canasta will be played.

On Sunday, November 12, the Juniors will gather for their regular monthly Holy Hour services at St. Joseph's church at 7 p.m. Following the services a Court meeting will be held in the parish hall. Joan of Arc Troop will be hostess for the social hour at the close of the meeting.

The Penny Blue Birds of Richmond school enjoyed a tour of the Salem police station and the Hill Candy Kitchen on Thursday afternoon. Twenty were in the group.

About That Time

Cranberries Take Their Place Among More Useful Berries; in Pie, Dessert

By Maxine Buren
Statesman Woman's Editor
Cranberries, a few years ago a mere ingredient for sauce or jelly, have taken their place among other berries for use in many dishes during the winter. Either canned or fresh cooked, the cranberries can be used in these ways:

CRANBERRY CANAPES
1 package cream cheese 1/2 cup cranberry jelly or sauce
Milk to moisten Crackers
Soften the cheese with the milk, whip until fluffy with a spoon. Spread crackers with the jellied sauce, top with a swirl of the creamed cheese.

Turkey or chicken combine with the cranberries when made into sandwiches. Place the sliced chicken or turkey on bread spread with cranberry sauce, put on more thin meat slices and another piece of bread.

Jellied cranberry sauce, combined with mashed bananas give good flavor to toast. If to be broiled, spread bread which has been toasted on one side, with cranberry sauce, add thinly sliced banana, sprinkle with brown sugar and cinnamon and broil slowly until bananas are lightly browned and sauce bubbling. You can mix cranberry sauce and mince meat and make a quick relish. Add mince meat of 1 cup sauce to 1/4 cup mince meat and 1/4 cup chopped walnuts. Box together and you have a nice relish.

As a meat sauce make this
CRANBERRY HORSE RADISH RELISH
1/2 cup jellied cranberries 1 teaspoon horseradish
3 tablespoons French dressing
Crush jelly, combine all ingredients. Make a cup of relish and it's good to serve on beef or fish.

To make a wintertime dessert pudding, prepare cupcakes of gingerbread batter, using your own mix or a prepared mixture. Ice generously with cream cheese and pour over it a sauce made of 1 teaspoon grated orange rind mixed with a can or cup of cranberry sauce. You can heat the sauce if you like. Two pies prove the worth of this berry as a dessert. One again features the combined flavors of cranberries and bananas:

CRANBERRY BANANA PIE
1 can (or cup) cranberry sauce 2 tablespoons butter
3 egg yolks, well beaten 1 teaspoon vanilla or almond
1 tablespoon cornstarch 1 baked 9-inch pie shell
1/4 teaspoon salt 3 ripe bananas

Bring cranberry sauce to a boil. Mix together egg yolks, cornstarch, and salt. Add hot cranberry mixture slowly, stirring constantly. Remove from heat and add butter and vanilla. Cool. Cover bottom of pie shell with small amount of cooled filling. Peel bananas and slice into pie shell. Cover immediately with remaining filling. Pie meringue on filling. Bake in a moderately slow oven (325 degrees) about 15 minutes, or until browned. Makes 1 pie.

Meringue
3 egg whites 6 tablespoons sugar
Beat egg whites until stiff. Add sugar gradually and continue beating until mixture will form peaks. Makes enough meringue for 1 9-inch pie.

CRANBERRY CREAM PIE
1 envelope unflavored gelatin 1 1/2 teaspoons vanilla
1/2 cup water 1/2 teaspoon almond extract
1/2 cup sugar 1 cup heavy cream
2 tablespoons cornstarch 1/2 cup chopped walnuts
1/4 teaspoon salt 1/2 cup jellied cranberry sauce, cubed
1 cup hot milk 1 baked pastry shell
3 egg yolks, beaten

Soften gelatin in cold water. Mix sugar, cornstarch, salt. Add to scalded milk; cook until thick, then cook 15 minutes longer, stirring constantly. Stir a small amount of mixture at a time into beaten egg yolks. Return to double boiler and cook a few minutes longer. Add gelatin. Add extracts and cool. Fold in whipped cream when gelatin begins to jell. Add almonds and cubed cranberry sauce. Spoon into baked pastry shell. Chill.

Scholarship Coeds Feted

All freshman women attending Willamette university on scholarships were honored at a fireside Wednesday evening at Lausanne hall. The informal event was sponsored by Cap and Gown, senior women's honorary.

Dr. Martha Springer of the biology department was guest speaker. Dean Regina Ewalt and Miss Olive Dahl, Cap and Gown advisers, were present and with active of the group talked informally to the honored guests.

The Three Links club members will have a covered dish turkey dinner today at 12:30 at IOOF hall.

Mrs. Robert Brooks has been named as the new advisor of the Tri-Y Abby Graham chapter.
