

Big Throng at Salem Heights Open House

SALEM HEIGHTS — A huge throng of parents and students elbowed through the corridors and classrooms of Salem Heights school at the annual Harvest festival and open house which the Mothers' club sponsored.

Nearly all community organizations participated in the Friday night event. The Woman's club sold aprons, the Little Garden club had a flower booth and the Mothers' club sold refreshments in the basement.

The "Ehaves" Campfire Girls staged a cake walk, the fifth-grade Campfire group had a ceramics booth, and the Bluebirds sold cookies and candy.

There was a waiting line all night at the fish pond which first and second grade room mothers conducted. In charge were Mrs. Del Ramsdell, Mrs. Gardner Jeffery, Mrs. Dean Davenport and Mrs. E. L. Gray, jr.

The third grade had an art gallery and movie with Mrs. Harmon Harvey in charge; third and fourth grade movies with Mrs. John Hubbard supervising; fourth and fifth grade, hot dog concession, Mrs. Leon Riewald; fifth grade, harvest booth, Mrs. Myron Butler; sixth grade, bottle throw, Mrs. Lynn Hammerstad.

Class rooms were decorated with finger paintings by students of lower grades and modernistic

Salem Heights Students Sell Subscriptions

By John Harvey
Statesman News Service

SALEM HEIGHTS — Fifth and sixth grade students at Salem Heights school are selling magazine subscriptions. The school will get 30 per cent of the receipts, which probably will be used to buy a phonograph for the school.

Prizes, including watches, binoculars, radios and wallets, will be given to the students selling the most subscriptions. Every student selling two or more subscriptions will get a prize.

So far, the sixth grade has sold $209.20 worth of subscriptions, while the fifth grade has sold $104.25 worth. Last year the school sold $554 worth, and the goal this year is $600.

Report cards will be issued to students on Tuesday.

Margaret and Virginia Lefery, from Dallas, entered the second and first grades on Monday.

Berna Jean Driver, first grade, has the mumps.

Jon Friesen, from Englewood school, entered the third grade last week.

Sharon Kreiger, third grader, who was injured in a traffic accident a week ago, is in the hospital, and will be out of school two more weeks.

Naomi Martin, fifth grade, won first place last week on KOAC's "Land of Make Believe." Honorable mention awards went to David Bradshaw, sixth grade, and Don Norris, fourth grade.

NEW, MIRACLE ELECTRONIC EAR HIDES DEAFNESS

CHICAGO, (Special)—An amazing new electronic ear which hides deafness and transmits even whispers with startling clarity, has been revealed by a noted Chicago electronic scientist.

He disclosed that this miraculous new discovery has rendered old-style hearing aids obsolete almost overnight, and brings new hope to the 15 million persons in the United States who are hard of hearing.

He reported that this electronic ear enables the deaf to hear without any button showing in the ear and without dangling battery wires.

To acquaint the hard of hearing readers of this paper with this new miracle electronic ear which hides deafness, full details are described in a fascinating booklet, "New Discoveries to Help the Deaf Hear." It will be sent free in a plain wrapper to anyone who requests it. Address: Electronic Research Director, 1450 West 19th Street, 729K Belton Building, Chicago 8, Ill. A penny postcard will do.—Adv.
