

3 Men Given Sentences in Circuit Court

Three men were sentenced, one had a parole revoked and one more entered guilty pleas Wednesday in Marion county circuit court before Judge George R. Duncan.

Those sentenced were: George Higgins, Woodburn route 1, to nine months in the county jail, after pleading guilty to a charge of larceny by embezzlement, involving theft of irrigation sprinkler heads from the Woodburn Boys school, where he was a cottage supervisor until September.

LeRoy Smith, Canby, a suspended six-months jail sentence and three years' probation, on charge of obtaining money by false pretenses.

George F. Herschbach, 1187 Court st., suspended six-months jail sentence and two years' probation, on charge of non-support, following his plea of guilty.

The three-year parole granted Troy H. Perry on August 29, on charge of third degree arson, was revoked and Perry was sentenced to 18 months in the state penitentiary.

A guilty plea also was entered by Robert E. Wilson, Lebanon, on a charge of sodomy, and he was sent to the state hospital for 30 days' observation.

Lyle Dean Workman, Lyle Francis Workman and Jerome Higdem, all of 680 N. Liberty st., were continued to Friday for arraignment on charges of conspiracy, involving an alleged series of fraudulent checks.

WU Students To See Seattle Exhibit of Art

Dr. Cameron Paulin, head of the Willamette art department, and a group of his Oriental art students will travel to Seattle this week end to study the Oriental collection at the Seattle Museum of Art.

Of special interest to the students will be bronzes of the Shang and Chou dynasties in China, which they have recently been studying. The group also plans to visit the Henry gallery and the art department on the University of Washington campus.

Students going on the trip include Diane Proctor, Ellen Reynolds and Barbara Garrett, all seniors of Salem; Lorna Johannaber, junior from Chemawa; Ursula Wilson, Berlin, Germany; Gayna Knywkowska, sophomore from Poland; Allen Wilcox, senior from Albuquerque, New Mexico; Ron Neperud, junior from Silverton; Don McAllister, sophomore and Ross Horn, senior, both of Salem.
