

OCE Choir Will Sing Christmas Vespers Sunday

OREGON COLLEGE OF EDUCATION, MONMOUTH—The traditional Christmas Vespers will be sung by the OCE choir of nearly 50 voices in Campbell hall auditorium here Sunday, December 15.

Following the centuries-old Christmas story, the Vespers will open with a candlelight procession, with a choral reading group narrating the incidents.

Proceeding the processional an organ interlude will be played by Denise Murray of the OCE music department.

A string trio will assist the choir. Players will be Germond Lamkin, violinist, of Salem; Lucy Bellinger, cellist, also of Salem; and Dan Unruh, pianist, of Monmouth. Charles Stowell, of OCE's music department, will direct the trio.

Mrs. Florence Hutchinson, head of OCE's music department, is director of the choir.

Featured on the program will be: Sopranos—Barbara Calloway, Woodburn; Mary Cox, Albany; Janice Crenshaw and Verona Van Clise, Tillamook; Marie Cedro, Tigard; Darlene Glaske, Hillsboro; Kathryn Harbert, Eugene; Marilyn Merchant, Lebanon; Margaret Mockford, Seaside; Donna Olson, Albany; Edith Simpson, Salem; Beverly Watson, Brownsville; Barbara Will, Yachats, and Donna Young, Canby.

Tenors—LaVern Adkins, Sweet Home; Keith Ahrenkiel, Salem; Dick Harry, Astoria; Hollis Hilkfiker, Salem; Ruben Maize, Warrenton; John Pizzuti, DeLake; and Andrew Sandkirk, Bend.

Basses—Leslie Furer, Rainier; Winfred Griffin and Jane Turbey, Portland; Aileen Johnson, Mist; Anna Martin, Milwaukie; Katherine Miller, Aurora; Glenna Parks, Seio; Mary Lou Robinson, Dayton; and Carole Watts, Monmouth.

Basses—Norman Berreman, Corvallis; Keith Holdorf and Homer Olfert, Dallas; Lyle Jansen, Hood River; Hiromi Kimizuka, Hawaii; Jo Anne Palleske, Eugene; LeRoy Prink, Waldport; Melvin Reynolds, Forest Grove; and Sidney Stuller and Seth Underwood, Salem.

Legion Names New Officers In Hubbard

MT. ANGEL—Most regular business was waived by both the Legion and Auxiliary to hasten the opening of the annual Christmas party for the groups Tuesday night in the Legion hall.

The Auxiliary halted only long enough to discuss Christmas baskets for needy veterans. A gift of $5 and several dolls was received from Katherine Gores of Seaside, daughter of the Auxiliary president, for Christmas donations. It was voted to check local needs and distribute toys, food and clothing where needed.

The quota of 75 members was reached and passed Tuesday night. Seventy-eight now are signed up. The Legion post held a brief business session to pass on the amount to be contributed to the Youth Recreation Program and Gifts to the Yanks. It was decided to give $75 to the youth movement and $5 to the veterans' gift fund.

The crowd of about 125 then relaxed for a jolly holiday gathering with refreshments, lunch, entertainments, singing and dancing. The piano-accompanied playing of Mrs. Paul Ryan highlighted entertainment.

Annual Christmas Party of Mt. Angel Catholic Daughters Attracts 200 Members and Guests

MT. ANGEL—The annual Christmas party of the Catholic Daughters of America was attended by 200 members and special guests Monday night at St. Mary's dining hall.

Special guests included the Rev. Cyril Lebond, the Rev. Clement Frank and the Rev. Hildebrand Melchior.

Santa Claus, played by Mrs. Alice Kroll, created much merriment and distributed the gifts which were exchanged. Entertainment numbers included a reading by Mrs. Alfred Schiedler, assisted by Mrs. W. P. Smith, and a comedy skit presented by Mrs. Tony Bigler, Louise Butsch, Mrs. Norbert Butsch, Mrs. A. T. Wilde, Mrs. Albert Uhing and Mrs. Alois Humpert. Both were strongly applauded.

Mrs. Urban Butsch and Mrs. William Fessler were in charge of the games.

Tables were bright with Christmas decorations for the late supper which was served by the committee with Mrs. Urban Butsch, chairman, Mrs. W. P. Smith, Albert Wilde, Mrs. Norbert Butsch, Mrs. Alois Humpert, Mrs. Bernard Schiedler, Mrs. Gene Barrett and Louise Butsch.

Volunteers included Mary Ann Toner, Mrs. Gordon Aman, Mrs. Herman Schwab, Mrs. William Fessler, Mrs. Tony Bigler, Mrs. Keber, Mrs. Charles Bochsler, Mrs. Albert Uhing and Mrs. M. I. Meyers.

A short business meeting in the clubhouse preceded the party. Mrs. Frank Aman reported that 70 boxes of clothing totaling 1800 pounds had been collected in the community for the Korean drive. The clothes were sorted and packed by Mrs. Aman, Mrs. Alois Keber, Elizabeth Keber, Mrs. R. J. Welton and Mrs. Henry Geck for the CDA and Mrs. Louis Weissenfels and Mrs. Joseph Platz, acting for the St. Ann's Altar society. Herman Schwab took the boxes to Portland for shipment.

Other committee reports were made by Mrs. John T. Bauman, on the Day of Recollection retreat attended by 250 women. Mrs. J. A. Kaiser, on the degree rituals held by the local team at Albany and McMinnville, and Mrs. Roy Palmer, on the study club program.

Members voted to cancel the second December meeting as it falls on Christmas day.

G. L. Briedwell To Retire from Silverton Bank

SILVERTON, Dec. 14—Glenn L. Briedwell, vice president of the Coolidge and McClaine bank, an affiliate of the First National Bank of Portland, will retire December 31 under the benefits of First National's retirement and pension plan, it was announced.

A summary of Briedwell's duties will be J. Carey Moore, cashier, who recently joined Coolidge and McClaine following 26 years of banking experience throughout the state.

Briedwell, who is completing nearly 17 years of service at Silverton, said "the many friendships I have made in the Silverton area will always make my memories of the years at Coolidge and McClaine happy ones."

Briedwell previously was vice president of a McMinnville bank for 11 years.

Moore formerly was assistant manager of the Oregon City branch of the First National bank of Portland. He also served at First National's branches in Portland, Merrill, Klamath Falls, Gresham and Astoria. He was president of the Oregon City Rotary club, a position he resigned when he moved to Silverton.

Briedwell is a former president and present director of the Marion county Tuberculosis and Health association, a charter member and past president of the Silverton Rotary club, and a member of the Silverton Planning commission.
