

At The Spinsters Christmas Charity Ball...

Women's Section
SOCIETY • CLUBS • MUSIC

Hotel Senator was the setting for the Spinsters charity ball on Christmas night. Above Mrs. Roy Edgerton taking tickets from Evelyn Johnson, P. Dixon Van Ausdell, Jr. and Mrs. Van Ausdell.

A foursome chatting between dances left to right are Georgie Oberbauer of Portland, David Crockett, Edwin Peterson and Frances Barua. (All candida of the Spinster dances by Morrell Gray.)

Snapped on arrival at the Spinsters ball are Janet Kirk, John Crockett, Ronald Jones and Anne Carson. All proceeds went to the Marion county polio fund.

Social Tidbits . . .

Mrs. Douglas McKay, wife of Oregon's governor, has announced that she will resume her weekly at homes on Tuesday afternoon, January 9. Mrs. McKay is at home each Tuesday during the winter and spring months to Salem and out-of-town friends.

On Wednesday night's calendar is the old fashioned no-host shower and buffet supper which will honor Mr. and Mrs. James R. Linn, who recently lost their home by fire. The affair will be held at the Marion hotel at 7 o'clock and is being arranged by a group of their longtime friends. Friends of the couple wishing to attend are asked to call the Marion hotel for reservations.

The Trotters club dance will be an event of Friday night at Crystal Gardens with Bill DeSouza's orchestra playing between 10 and 1 o'clock. The committee includes Mr and Mrs. Carl Soss and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Gottfried.

A holiday bride was Mrs. Perry Dwight Quisenberry, Jr., who was Barbara Rose Hendrickson before her wedding on December 27 at the First Presbyterian church. The newlyweds will live in Salem. The bride is the daughter of the Harry L. Hendricksons of Portland and the grooms parents are the P. D. Quisenberrys. (Edris Morrison portrait.)

Holiday Travelers Return, Others Leaving . . .

By Jerome English, Statesman Society Editor

Expected home New Year's day from a three week's plane trip to Mexico will be Peter Morse, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul W. Morse, and his cousin, Thomas Steeves, son of Mrs. Conrad Paulson. They spent Christmas in Irapuato with Mr. Morse's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Rafael Venegas (Sarah Morse). The two young men also visited in Mexico City, Acapulco and other scenic points in Mexico. While away both celebrated their birthdays, Peter on December 17 and Tom on December 29.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto J. Wilson are leaving by train Tuesday for a week's sojourn in San Francisco. While there they will attend the 1931 preview showing of the Buick.

Mrs. L. A. Rowan and sons, Bill, Max and Kim Beaney, left Thursday for San Pedro, Calif., to join Captain Rowan, who is stationed at Fort McArthur. The marriage of Captain Rowan and Mrs. Cedra T. Rowan took place in the south on December 3. She spent Christmas here with her parents, the W. W. Chadwicks.

A Watch Party . . .

For the younger contingent will be the New Year's eve party for which Roberta Sears, will be hostess at the country home of her parents tonight. Thirty guests have been bidden. There will be dancing during the evening, followed by a midnight buffet supper. Balloons and New Year's favors will provide the decor.

Sitting at one of the tables between dances are Don White, Nancy Snyder, Del Kleen and Irene McLeod.

Sarah Jane Backstrand and Blair McCabe take tickets one hour and greet Sally Donkin and Tom Paulus.

Honor guests at a holiday reception on December 26 were Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Walsh, Jr., of Los Angeles, who were here Christmas week with his mother, Mrs. Raymond Walsh, who was hostess for the reception. (Kennell-Ellis photo.)

Pictured leaving the dance floor (center above) are Crystal Huntington and her fiance, Henry Dixon of Portland.