Convenient New Gadgets for Home Making Their Appearance on Market

By Sue Gardner

Convenient new gadgets for the home are making their appearance on the market. Among the many items offered for bedrooms, is a new night tray that will fit on any type of bedrail without marring the furniture finish. The tray has a ridge around it to prevent articles from falling off and will hold your book, magazine, alarm clock, eye glasses and water tumbler. It comes in a variety of colors and is 10 1/2 by 6 inches with a one and a half inch railing. It makes a good gift for a convalescent who has spent a few weeks in bed.

Another handy gadget is a telephone attachment for spot-

Miss Tussing Tells Troth at Pi Phi House

The Pi Beta Phi sorority house on the University of Oregon campus was filled with excitement Wednesday night when one of the "sisters," Miss Roberta Ann Tussing of Salem, revealed her betrothal to Joe Bryan Richards, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Richards of Ontario. The pretty bride-elect is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey S. Tussing of Salem.

The engagement news was announced during a cookie shine and a silver tree decorated with silver nutshells, which were enclosed with the couple's names. The wedding is planned for March.

Miss Tussing is a graduate of Salem schools and in June will receive her degree in English from the University of Oregon. She is a member of the Salem Spinners. Her fiancé will also graduate in June from the University with a political science degree. He is now serving as president of his fraternity, Alpha Tau Omega.
