

WOMEN'S

Society * Clubs * Music
The Oregon Statesman

SECTION

On the Social Agenda...

By Jeryme English
Statesman Society Editor

Highlighting the society page today are Oregon's high officials pictured with their families, who will be the center of many social events in the next few months while the 46th legislative assembly is in session.

The Jerris avenue home of Governor and Mrs. Douglas McKay will be the scene of numerous affairs in the coming months with dates to be announced later. Mrs. McKay has resumed her weekly at homes on Tuesday afternoons, holding the first one last week.

The Salem Women's Republican club will hold its meeting on Monday afternoon at the McKay home at 2 o'clock. The guest speaker will be Senator Howard Belton and his subject is "How Taxes Effect You." Precinct committee women have also been invited to hear the senator. Tea will be served following the meeting and Mrs. P. A. Ficke, county chairman, has been asked to pour. Mrs. Charles A. Sprague is president of the club. Mrs. Ralph H. Cooley is in charge of the tea arrangements.

Pattersons to Entertain

President of the Senate Paul L. Patterson and Mrs. Patterson will entertain with an open house on Wednesday, January 24 in compliment to members of the senate and their wives. The affair will be held in the Capital room of the Senator hotel between 5 and 7 o'clock. Also bidden to the affair are members of the board of control and their wives and members of the Washington county delegation at the legislature and their wives.

Teas on Agenda

Two other social events on the January calendar for the legislative contingent is the Town and Gown tea on January 25 and the Salem Woman's club program and tea on January 25. The Town and Gown tea will honor wives and daughters of legislators and will be held at Lausanne hall between 3 and 5 o'clock. The affair is given each session in compliment to the visitors and Mrs. William L. Phillips is general chairman of the directorate.

The Salem Woman's club regular meeting on January 26 will honor wives of legislators and wives of supreme court justices. The affair will be held at the Woman's club at 2 o'clock.

Oregon's governor, Douglas McKay, and Mrs. McKay are pictured here with their two daughters and four grandchildren in the living room of their Jerris avenue residence. Left to right are Mrs. McKay, Eileen Hadley, Mrs. Wayne Hadley, Allan Hadley, Governor McKay, who is holding ten months old Bruce Hadley, Mrs. Lester D. Green and her four months old son, Daniel. The McKay home will be the scene of several social functions during the current legislative session and Mrs. McKay has resumed her weekly at homes on Tuesday afternoons. (Kennell-Ellis photo).

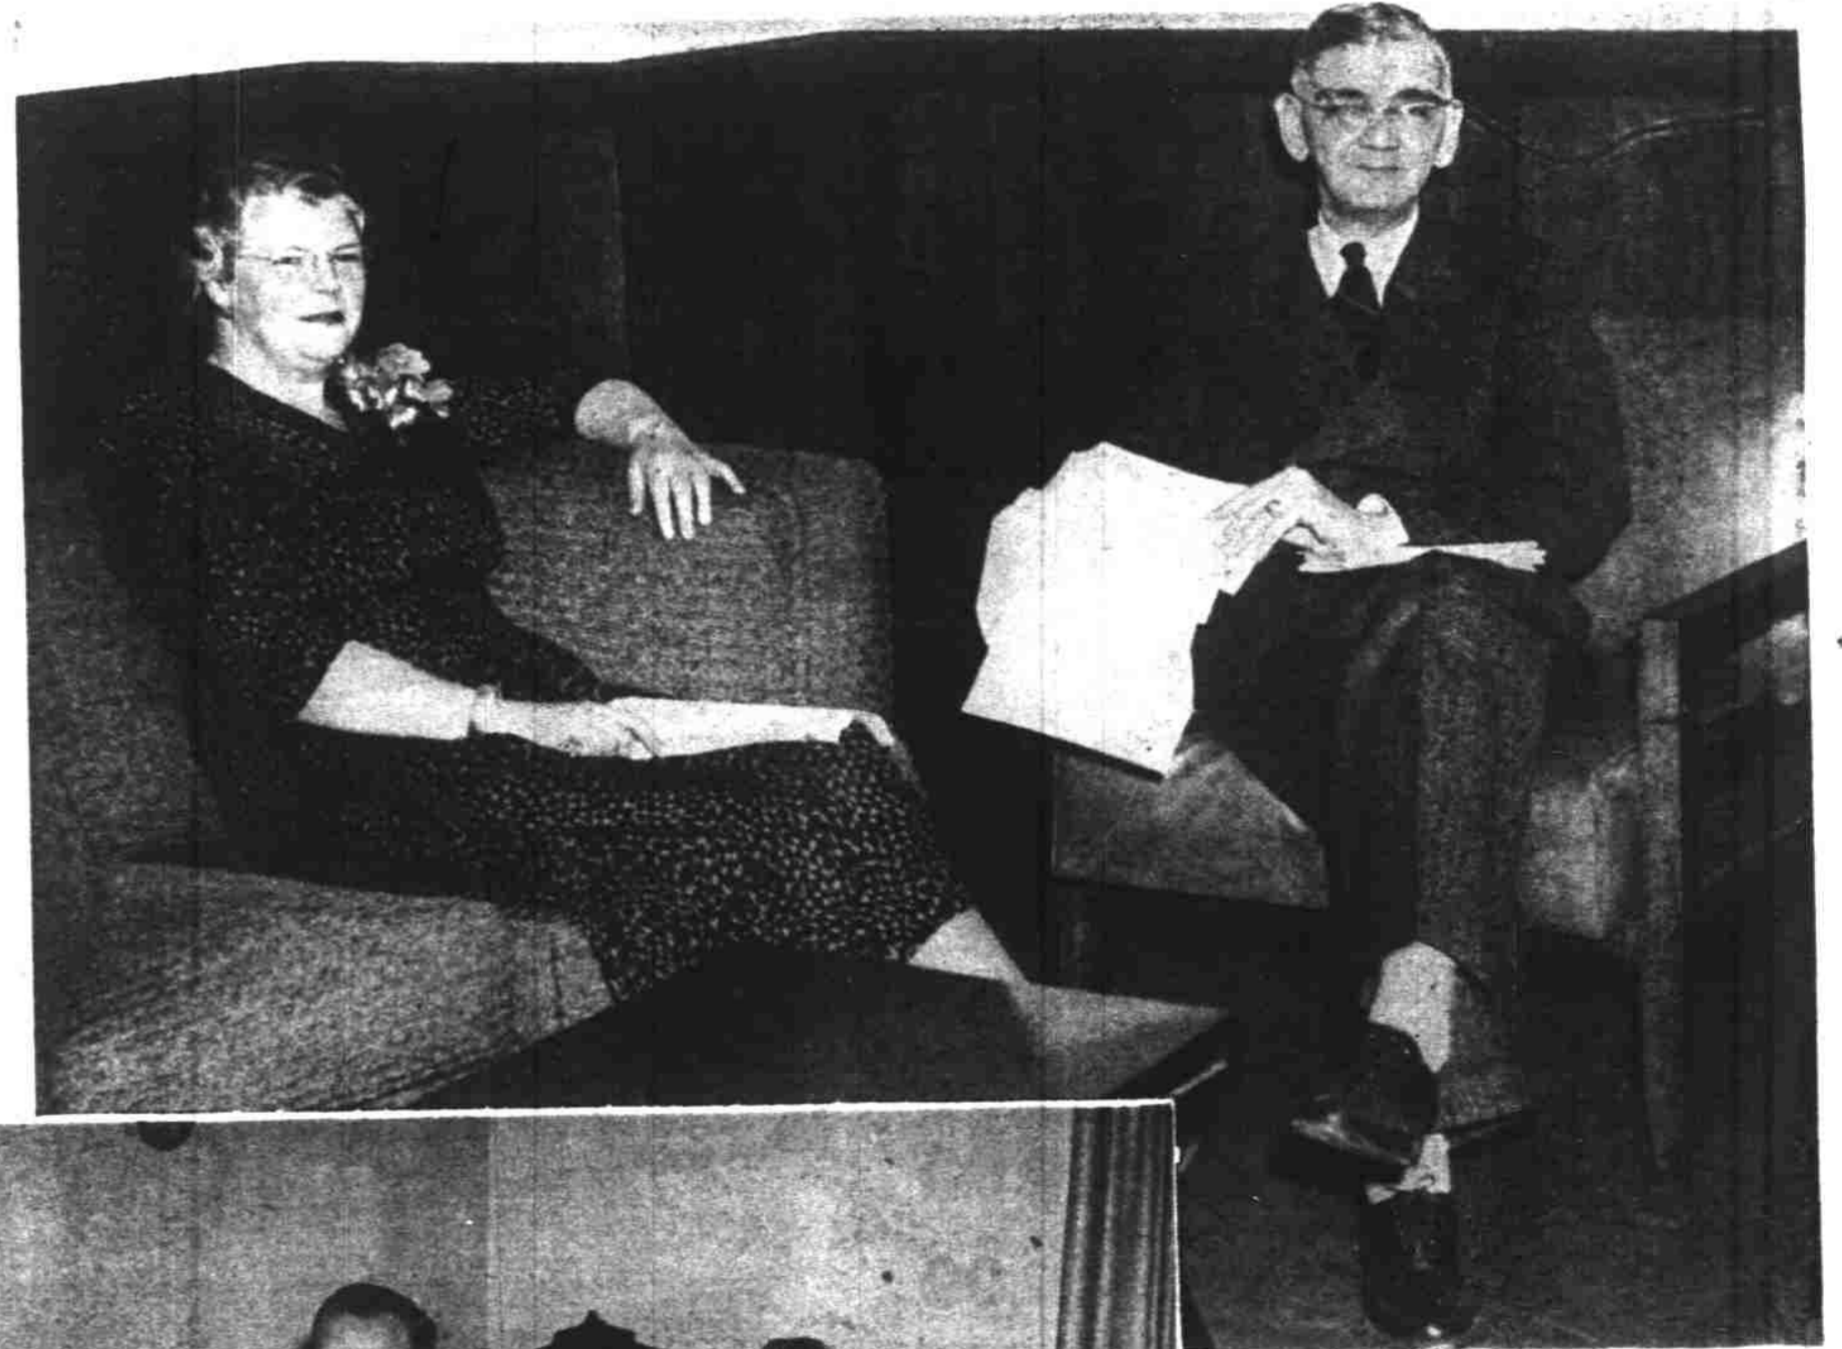

New chief justice of the Oregon Supreme Court is James T. Brand. Here Justice Brand is pictured with Mrs. Brand, and son, Tom, a freshman at the University of Oregon law school. In June he graduated from Stanford university. The Brands' North Summer street home, so centrally located, is always a popular meeting and gathering place for friends and will be the setting for several informal parties during the legislature. (Kennell-Ellis photo).

Guests Bidden to Parties...

The Ben Lomand Park home of Dr. and Mrs. Hugh A. Dowd will be the scene of an informal gathering on Wednesday night when the hosts will show their pictures of Hawaii to members of the Salem Clinic, the staff, their wives and husbands. Later in the evening refreshments will be served by the hostess. Bidden by the Dowds are Dr. and Mrs. D. R. Ross, Dr. and Mrs. Chester A. Downs, Dr. and Mrs. Charles Mills, Dr. and Mrs. Gordon W. Brewer, Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Fisher, Dr. and Mrs. Ralph E. Purvine, Dr. Frank Brown, Mrs. H. K. Stockwell, Mrs. Guy E. Raymond of Winona, Minn., Mr. and Mrs. Lester Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Swafford, Miss Anna Peters, Mrs. Alta Ross, Miss Harriet Smith, Miss Lenore Fyatt and Miss Beulah Graham.

Town and Country Club

Thursday afternoon Mrs. Linn C. Smith has invited members of the Town and Country club to a one o'clock luncheon at her Chemeketa street home. Bridge will be in play after the luncheon hour. Additional guests will be Mrs. Lester Barr, Mrs. Russell LaFontaine, Mrs. Donald C. Roberts, Mrs. Dan Johnston and Mrs. Frank Healy.

President of the Oregon State Senate Paul L. Patterson and Mrs. Patterson above, snapped by the photographer in the president's lounge just after the opening of the 46th legislative assembly on Monday. The Pattersons make their home in Hillsboro, where he is an attorney. Mrs. Patterson is active in civic affairs and serves on the state board of education. For the session they have taken an apartment at the Devereaux. The Pattersons will be hosts to members of the senate and their wives at an informal party on January 24 at the Hotel Senator. (Kennell-Ellis photo).

Secretary of State Earl T. Newbry, Mrs. Newbry and daughter, Shirlee, at the left, in a familiar family scene in their East Rural avenue home. The Newbrys listening to their coed daughter (a sophomore at Oregon State) relating her college experiences. The Newbry home will also be the scene of social affairs during the legislative session. (Kennell-Ellis photo).