

Membership Dinner on Tuesday

Governor Douglas McKay will be the guest speaker at the annual YWCA membership dinner on Tuesday night in the Carrier room of the First Methodist church at 8:30 o'clock. His subject will be "Problems Facing the State as I See Them." The speaker will be introduced by Miss Doratha Steusloff.

Mrs. John Caughell, vice-president of the board of directors, will preside in the absence of the president, Mrs. A. A. Schramm, who is in Denver. The Rev. George H. Swift will give the devotions and the Rev. Brooks Moore the benediction. Musical numbers will be given by Thomas Facy, violinist.

Mrs. Bruce Pickett will conduct a "Montage," or a series of verbal pictures presented in interview form representing the various departments of the YWCA. Appearing on the program will be Norma Hamilton, Tri-Y; Jodie Bush, Y-Teen; Mrs. Arvo Tarem, newcomers and English classes; Mrs. Dwight Phipps, Tri-Y-Teen mothers; Miss Kathleen Davis, business and house girls; Miss Margaret Sanders, education classes and ladies' day out.

War Brides To Organize

A new club, Accent, open to war brides of all nationalities, has been organized in Salem and surrounding communities and Mrs. Elwood Myers was elected president. The first meeting was held Thursday, when officers were elected.

Mrs. Robert Pickrell was elected vice president, Mrs. Donald Addison, secretary, and Mrs. Robert Dant treasurer.

Plans are to meet once a month (probably the second Thursday) at homes of members. Anyone interested in becoming a member may contact Mrs. Robert Pickrell. All war brides in the area will be welcomed.

Combined Circles Meet Wednesday

The general meeting of the combined circles of the Women's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist church will meet on Wednesday in the Carrier room with Circie 4 as hostess. Mrs. Ruth Fugate will preside at the business session at 10 a. m. There will be a luncheon at noon followed by a program at 1:30 p. m.

Mrs. Don Darby will lead the devotions. Mrs. E. M. Tilton, state president of the WSCS, will speak and her subject will be "Our Responsibility Toward the Giver of All Gifts, Stewardship of Personality." Miss Ada Hudson, high school senior, will sing several selections.

Falls City — Mrs. Jack Walsh entertained the Poinsettia club at her home. Luncheon was served to Mesdames Eldon Shepard, James Dickenson, Clarence Lehner, George Kitchen, Chester Embree, John Gilbert, Doyle Lorimer, Jack Marr, Harvey Marr, Ora Wilson and Freda Shoemaker. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Harvey Marr in Monmouth.

WINTERTIME TRAVELERS

Flying east to New York City Monday will be Mr. and Mrs. John H. Johnson, who will combine business with pleasure. They plan to be away nearly two weeks.

Headed south are Mr. and Mrs. James L. Cooke, who plan to make their home in southern California for the coming year. They first will go to Laguna Beach for a sojourn and will also visit several of the desert resorts. They are leaving on Monday and if plans materialize they will be home in the summer for a few months.

South bound on Friday were Mr. and Mrs. Roy H. Simmons, who left for their winter home in Palm Springs. They came north to spend the holidays with their children. Accompanying Mr. and Mrs. Simmons were their daughter, Mrs. Charles Barclay and her children, Gregory and Laurie, who will remain at the desert resort for six weeks. Mr. Barclay will join his family in the south at the end of February for his annual vacation and will accompany them home.

Welcome home for Dr. and Mrs. Carl W. Emmons, who arrived in the capital Thursday from a trip east. They left here the week before Christmas, going south to San Francisco, where they entertained on the Vista Dome for Chicago, where they spent Christmas with Dr. Emmons' mother, Mrs. W. W. Emmons, and his sister, Miss Lucille Emmons. Joining the family in Chicago for the holidays were the Emmons' son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John Syme (Margaret-Jane Emmons) of Corvallis. The latter returning a week ago. Dr. and Mrs. Emmons enjoyed a leisurely trip home through the south taking colored movies of scenic spots en route. Their main stops were at the Grand Canyon, Hoover Dam, Las Vegas, Death Valley and Reno.

Also home from a holiday vacation are Mr. and Mrs. Glenn McCormick and daughter, Glenda Lou, who left Christmas day for a three weeks sojourn in California and Arizona. They returned on Saturday.

Moving Note — The Paul Heaths have sold their East Miller street home and this week are moving to 750 Stewart street, the house formerly occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Willard Wirtz, who have purchased the Clayton Foreman home on Market street. Temporarily the Foremans are at the Senator hotel.

LEGISLATIVE TIDBITS — wives of many of the senators and representatives serving as their husbands' secretaries. It is welcome home for Rep. and Mrs. Melvin Goode of Albany as both are former Salem residents and Willamette university graduates. Melvin has just completed his term as district attorney of Linn county and succeeding him is his law partner, Courtney Johns, also a former Salem resident and Willamette graduate. Mrs. Goode, the former Lois Wilkes, will serve as her husband's secretary. The day we visited with her she was wearing a smart checked coat and green hat. Melvin will make his first appearance at the legislature Monday as
