Patrol Seeks Enemy in Wonju Sector

TOKYO, Jan. 20—Well-armed infantrymen moved up hill in Wonju front sector as Allied forces launch attack against enemy-held hill in subzero temperature. United Nations troops fought their way back into Wonju as Red forces were routed in snow-mantled east central Korea. The Reds later recaptured the town. (AP Wirephoto to the Statesman.)

5 Men Plead Innocent to Assault Charge

Five men charged with beating a former co-worker pleaded innocent in district court Saturday. They posted $250 bail and hearings were set February 27 and 28.

The five, Donald W. Fish, Carl Zimmerman, Vadon Duncan and James Wilburn, all of Portland, and Jack Robinson, North Hollywood, Calif., were charged with assault and battery against T. G. Dinnell.

They were arrested in Portland Friday after Dinnell swore out a warrant for their arrest claiming he had been beaten when the five attempted to convince him he should return to work for a magazine subscription team.

Fish was accused in another complaint of assault and battery on Lila Hampton.

Insurance-Covered Payrolls Increase

Insurance covered payrolls in Oregon for December, 1950, aggregated $66,359,330, as compared with $56,989,868 for December, 1949, the State Industrial Accident Commission reported Saturday.

The November, 1950, payrolls totaled $71,687,435.

Yoncalla Pair Dies as Car Dives into Creek

ROSEBURG, Jan. 20—(P)—The bodies of a Yoncalla couple, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Henry Morin, were taken today from their car, which was submerged in the icy waters of Canyon creek, 12 miles west of Oakland.

Deputy Coroner M. B. Emmitt said the car plunged off the highway into the five-foot deep stream last night.

Medical Care Plan Increases

PORTLAND, Jan. 20—The Oregon Physicians' service announced that in the third quarter of 1950 Blue Shield medical care plans, including plans from 42 states and the District of Columbia, showed an increase of 1,296,416 new members.

With this additional membership the total of all 76 plans is boosted to 17,846,691, representing 11.83 per cent of the nation's population.

Oregon, with 222,432 enrolled or 14.62 per cent of the population, ranks 11th in the nation, compared with 13th a year ago.

Children Help Dimes Drive Keep Marching

Debra and Cheryl Quillin, 4 and 1 years old, came to March of Dimes headquarters last week and contributed $10 to the fund, campaign officers said Saturday.

In addition to card returns and returns from schools and other groups, the Salem Policemen's union, local 572, donated $69.

A call urging Marion county residents to return their March of Dimes coin cards to Dimes' headquarters as soon as possible went out Saturday from James E. Keys, campaign director.

Keys said the drive, which opened January 15, "must be a success because of the serious need for polio funds." Contributions may be placed in any of the 800 miniature iron lungs located throughout the city.

Plans have been completed for the March of Dimes public dance January 27 at the Eagles hall. There will be two orchestras and two floors of dancing. Tickets are now being sold by Salem Eagles and Elks lodge members and at downtown branches of the U.S. National and First National banks.

New Mobilization Deputy to Outline Defense Program

Earl O. Bushnell, recently appointed mobilization deputy for the Marion county civilian defense program, will outline the defense program at the Salem Chamber of Commerce luncheon Monday noon.

Bushnell is also an operational director in the city of Salem's defense set-up. He is associated with Frank Hrubetz in Hrubetz & Bushnell, a steel fabrication plant.

EX-UMATILLA MAYOR DIES

UMATILLA, Jan. 20—(P)—Jess A. Stephens, former mayor and retired Union Pacific engineer died here today at the age of 70. He was mayor from 1939 to 1949 and was active in school board activities.

He was killed by a train when they saw the train bearing down on them.

Tavern's Beer License Renewed

Bligh Billiards has resumed its beer business, following renewal of its liquor license Saturday.

The Bligh had to suspend beer sales the first of the year, as the city council had deferred action on approval for a 1951 license pending outcome of a court case. The case charging sale of beer to a minor was dismissed in municipal court several days ago.

State Library Buys Viewer For Microfilm

A late model microfilm reader has been purchased for the Oregon state archives, Mrs. Eleanor Stephens, state librarian, announced Saturday.

She said library visitors would have access to a growing collection of important records gathered on microfilm from the national archives, libraries and other government agencies.

Some of the most valuable films include population schedules based on the United States census for Oregon for 1850, 1860, 1870 and 1880.

In addition to acquiring official records on micro-film, the state library has purchased films of Oregon newspapers, including the Spectator, Oregonian, Oregon Journal, Oregon Statesman and East Oregonian.

Loyal Warner Heads Memorial Hospital Board

Loyal A. Warner, Salem automobile dealer, is the new chairman of Salem Memorial hospital board of directors, it was announced Saturday. Warner has served three years on the board.

Other new officers are Charles Heltzel, vice president, and Ronald Hudkins, secretary-treasurer. Only member added to the board at this year's election is Carl W. Hogg, replacing Thomas Dalke, who had served the limit of two consecutive terms.

National Guard Open House Set Thursday

Company G, 162nd Infantry of the Oregon national guard, Saturday invited a public inspection for Thursday night when a two-hour open house will be held at the armory.

Formation and inspection of the company itself will begin at 7:30 p. m. A special drill team will perform for the visitors.

The company will display its military equipment and its entire array of infantry weapons, including 57 mm recoilless rifles, bazookas, 60 mm mortars, 30 and 50 caliber machine guns, automatic rifles, carbines and pistols.

Army films will be shown, including a color movie on the atom bomb.

Capt. W. C. Dyer, jr., company commander, said the open house was planned to acquaint families and friends with the unit's training. He extended a special invitation, too, to men of draft age who are interested in joining the guard.
