

Legislative Contingent Honored At Numerous Affairs This Week

By Jerry English
Statesman Society Editor

Social events for the coming week are planned in honor of the legislative contingent with luncheons, teas, dinners and at homes on the agenda.

For Wednesday afternoon is the 12 o'clock buffet luncheon for which the supreme court justices wives will be hostesses at the North Summer street home of Chief Justice and Mrs. James T. Brand. The affair will honor the wives of legislators and special guests will be Mrs. Douglas McKay and Mrs. Earl T. Newbery. Arrangements of spring blooms will provide the decorative note.

Mrs. Brand will greet the guests and receiving with her in the living room will be Mrs. George Rossman and Mrs. Earl Latourette. Mrs. Harold Warner will preside at the coffee urn and assisting in the dining room will be Mrs. Arthur Hay, Mrs. Hall Lusk and Mrs. Walter Toozee.

Pattersons to Entertain
President of the Senate Paul L. Patterson and Mrs. Patterson will entertain with an at home on Wednesday night in the Capital room of the Senator hotel between 5 and 7 o'clock. The affair will compliment members of the senate and their wives, the board of control and their wives, members of the Washington county delegation and the legislative press and their wives.

Assisting the hosts in receiving and about the room will be Senator and Mrs. Dean H. Walker, Senator and Mrs. Eugene A. Marsh, Senator and Mrs. Philip S. Hitchcock and Senator and Mrs. Thomas R. Mahoney.

Town and Gown Tea
Town and Gown club members will entertain with their legislative tea on Thursday afternoon at Lausanne hall with calling hours between 3 and 5 o'clock. This is a biennial affair and one of the largest events given during the legislative session for the out-of-town women.

Mrs. William L. Phillips is heading the directorate for the tea and assisting are Mesdames W. E. Kirk, Ralph Cooley, David Eason, Robert L. Eifstrom, Daniel J. Fry, Jr., T. H. Galloway, Homer Goulet, Jr., Melvin Geist, E. Ned Gerlinger, E. E. Gilbert, Leonard Goldblatt, P. H. Brydon, Henry Hansen, Cora B. Hartzell, Taylor Hawkins, Arthur D. Hay, H. M. Calvert, E. M. Page, Carl Chambers and Miss Lorena Jack.

Woman's Club Tea Meeting
Salem Woman's club members have sent out invitations to their club meeting and tea on Friday afternoon in honor of wives of legislators and wives of the supreme court justices. Hours are from two to five o'clock.

The guest speaker will be George Root, Jr., Portland, interior decorator, whose subject is "What's Happening to Home Decoration, and Why?" Mr. Root was born in Portland and is a graduate of the University of Oregon and received his master's degree at Columbia university. He also did graduate work at UCLA.

For two of the war years, he supervised art for the Southern California school system in the Imperial Valley, then entered the decorating and design field in the Los Angeles area. He came to Portland to visit his parents for a vacation two years ago, and has been decorating for Portlanders ever since.

He opened his own studio in Portland last spring, featuring original-designed and hand-blocked fabrics, as well as fine furniture and outstanding decorative accessories.

Mrs. Ross Coppick, chairman of the art department, will introduce the speaker. For the music, Dean Melvin Geist will sing, accompanied by Mrs. Geist. There will be a short business meeting with Mrs. Howard Hunsaker presiding.

Mrs. Clay Cochran is chairman of the tea hour between 4 and 5 o'clock. Pouring will be Mrs. Douglas McKay and Mrs. Earl T. Newbery. Assisting on the directorate will be Mesdames Carl Chambers, David Cameron, Frederick Eley, James Garson, Claude H. Glenn, Albert C. Gragg, Frank James, Karl Kugel, Walter Spaulding, Walter C. Winslow and Miss Eleanor Stephens.

"Star" Pattern

As worn by KATHRYN GRAYSON in "GROUNDS FOR MARRIAGE"

Design by HELEN ROSE
Design by HELEN ROSE

Matchmaking makes the news in this sheath-plus outfit designed for Kathryn Grayson in M-G-M's "Grounds for Marriage." The simple wool dress, done in the shirtwaist tradition, expresses the modern slim mood. Its plaid apron-overskirt provides a change of costume — and a flip of fullness! Big news, too, is a two-color STAR LABEL transfer included in this pattern. It's proof positive that you are wearing an original Hollywood design!

No. 9 is cut in sizes 10, 12, 14, 16, 18 and 20. Size 16 dress requires 3 1/2 yards 54-inch fabric; the apron-overskirt requires 2 yards 54-inch fabric.

Send 50c for "STAR" PATTERN with Name, Address, Style number and size desired to Star Pattern Department, The Oregon Statesman, Rincon Box 3032, San Francisco.
