

Lindsay Takes Medal Honors

Illinois Ace Shows Way, Doherty Tournery

MIAMI, Fla., Jan. 23 (AP)—Methological Marge Lindsay of Deatur, Ill., steamed around the Miami Country club course in 72 strokes, four under women's par, to capture medal honors today in the 19th annual Helen Lee Doherty tournament.

Miss Lindsay was red hot on the front nine as she fired an eagle and three birds to register a 34 and reach the turn four strokes under par. She was less effective on the incoming nine but still matched par with a 38 to outstrip a starting field of 158 in the top women's amateur event of the Florida winter season.

Her failure to sink a three-foot putt at the 18th kept the Illinois girl from equalling the tournament qualifying record of 71 set last year by Marlene Bauer of Midland, Tex. on the 8,068-yard course.

The low 32 in today's medal round will begin match play in the championship flight tomorrow.

Eighteen hole matches are scheduled through Saturday and the finalists will compete for the title Sunday over the 36-hole route.

Among the qualifying shooters were:

Edean Anderson, Helena, Mont., 40-41-81.

Grace DeMoss, Corvallis, Ore., 39-42-81.

Track Moguls Worried Congress Said Prepared to Tax Mutuel System

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., Jan. 23 (AP)—The National Association of State Racing Commissioners was warned today Congress probably would attempt to impose a federal tax on pari-mutuel racing in its efforts to raise funds to meet the expanded emergency budget.

Speaking before the 17th annual convention of the NASRC, Spencer J. Drayton, executive secretary of the Thoroughbred racing association told of a previous attempt last year to impose a 5 per cent federal tax on racing.

Drayton said the house ways and means committee seriously considered the levy, the TRA intervened with telegrams and conferences—pointing out the amount of tax now derived by 24 states from racing—and the proposal was tabled.

"But it is almost sure to come up again and we must put up a unified front when it does," Drayton warned.

Junior Rifle Club Formed

Col. Philip Allison announced Tuesday the formation of a Junior Rifle club under the sponsorship of the Salem chapter of the Isaac Walton league, to be called the Cherry City Jr. Rifle club. The group is composed of boys between the ages of 12 and 18, inclusive. The youngsters will meet on Thursday nights at 7:30 each week.

Rifles of .22 calibre will be used in the preliminary training on the fifty foot indoor range in the IWLA clubhouse. Later instruction will be given on outdoor ranges with heavier weapons. In time, the youngsters will be able to compete against other shooting teams, with the possibility of earning badges and other awards for marksmanship. All shooting will be supervised by an adult. Members of the club must have permission from their parents before joining the group. Sixteen boys comprise the organization at present.

Elected as officers of the club are Clyde Raney, president; Orson Cooley, vice-president; Rodney Jipp, secretary; Jim Ames, executive officer and Charles Field, treasurer. Colonel Allison is chairman of the advisory group of Waltonians which includes Lynne Darnielle, Lyle Phores, J. Harnsberger and Virgil Allen.

Rollin' Along

(Cont. from Free Page) the gate are some terrific drawing cards like Dempsey or Ruth." That comment comes from Tom Walsh—and pardon us for continuing to dwell on him but the man is so buoyant and so chuck-a-block with sportsiana that it's almost a duty to pass his opinions on to you.

Fans Fought for Ducats

Personalities like Dempsey and Ruth," continues the veteran boxing man now promoting for the Globetrotters, "had so much an impact that fans would all but violence to get to the ticket windows and see their idols perform."

Walsh went on to deplore the trend of the present which penalizes performers not averse to being colorful.

"There are too few characters in sports nowadays," observed Walsh. "Supplanting the Dempseys and Ruths are balding beards and 'lucky number' programs. That isn't the answer."

No 'Fix' Among Pros

"We brought up the gambling scandal which has smitten hoops."

"Take college basketball back to the campuses," was Walsh's quick retort.

"And," furthered Tom, "you will note that the professional ranks have yet to record in modern times an actually 'fixed' game, whether it be basketball, football or baseball."

"Why? Because performance is everything to the professional. His performance is the platform on which he stands when making his salary arguments."

"Why should a pro deliberately turn in a sloven performance for a quick grand, thereby jeopardizing his entire career and a crack at the terrific salaries of the pros?"

Well put, Mr. Walsh...
