Arrangements Set For Spelling Bees In Five Divisions

Arrangements were completed Thursday for The Statesman-KSLM spelling contest semi-finals in all five rural school zones of Marion county, and similar plans for the five rural school zones in Polk county were rapidly being finished.

Final arrangements for the other four semi-finals (which include the first-class school districts of Salem, Silverton, Woodburn and Dallas) also are to be announced within a few days.

The 14 semi-final contests, with Webster's Collegiate dictionaries as well as certificates as prizes, will draw entries from more than 100 schools.

Winners will compete in Salem in the grand finals April 20 when the contest sponsors will hold a dinner for the 14 competitors and their teachers. An auditorium is to be arranged as the scene for the final spell-down, the winner of which will receive a $100 war bond. Lesser bonds will go to two runners-up.

The dates and sites for the five Marion county rural semi-finals are as follows (all to begin at 7:30 p.m.):

Santiam Hospital To Open Office On February 5

STATESMAN NEWS SERVICE
STATYON — A permanent office for the Santiam Memorial hospital will be opened February 5 in the Star Theatre building, with office hours six days a week from 9 a.m. to 5:30 p.m., including the noon hour, it was announced this week.

The board of directors has declared that more than sufficient subscriptions have been obtained, in the recent money-raising campaign, to justify proceeding with the preparation of plans, building and equipping of the proposed Santiam Memorial hospital, and designated Monday, April 2 as the date on which first installments on subscription contracts will be due and payable.

A special appeal is made by the board of directors and the workers in the campaign to all who can possibly do so to pay their subscription contracts in full at the time they receive their first notice.

A representative of the firm of architects Road, Schmeer & Harrington of Portland, met Monday night with the medical staff of Santiam Memorial hospital and members of the building and equipment committee to make final minor adjustments in floor plans.

The basic plans published in the recent money-raising campaign have already been approved by the hospital licensing department of the state.

For Size and Shape

Bite-sized hot appetizers begin the buffet meal. Here a chafing dish holds tiny sausage balls, heated in pink tinted applesauce and served on toothpicks. Cheese cubes are bacon-wrapped and also served on toothpicks. Triangles are really little meat pies.

SLICK CUT
Here's a time-saving trick to remember. When you cut up dried fruits, you can do the job quicker and easier, if you'll use scissors and dip the blades in hot water now and then to prevent sticking.

LOOK INTERESTING
The sick child will be more likely to eat nutritious food, if it is served in a novel way. Try molding ground beef into the shape of a log, wrap with bacon and broil.

STUDY FAT
The role of fat in the diet is being studied. The recognized important functions of fat are carrying fat soluble vitamins and supplying essential fatty acids.

EAT HEARTY
Cold blustery winter days call for piping hot nutritious food. A good old-fashioned meat stew with dumplings will be popular with the whole family.

GEAR FOOD
The average homemaker serves meals to several age groups by different nutritional requirements. Therefore, meals should be geared toward meeting the needs of every group.

GIVES ENERGY
Make added hours of outdoor play possible for children by feeding them foods high in satiating value such as meat.

EAT REAKFAST
An English physician blames low protein diets and frequently missed breakfasts for the high tuberculosis rate in Scotland.

WORTH MONEY

USE DESCHUTES for the fluffiest MASHED POTATOES

Deschutes Potatoes

How to do it...

"NETTED GEMS"

1 Drop 2 lbs. pared and cut Deschutes potatoes into 1-in. of boiling water—cover and cook at boiling temperature until done but not mushy. Drain. Shake in pan over heat until dry.

2 Mash Deschutes thoroughly. Add salt and pepper to taste. Push potatoes to one side, add 1 tablespoon butter or margarine and 1/4 cup top milk. Heat at low temperature.

3 Whip hot milk and butter or margarine into potatoes until potatoes are fluffy and smooth. Serve from warm dish. Serves four.
