Mt. Angel Warehouse Patrons Favor Feed Mill Construction

MT ANGEL, Feb. 20—Patrons of the Mt. Angel Farmers Union Warehouse today unanimously favored construction of an ultra-modern feed mill when the proposition was put to them at the annual membership meeting held in St. Mary's auditorium.

The all-day meeting was opened at 10:30 a.m. by President Otto Schlottman. It tapered off in the late afternoon with a directors meeting that re-elected Schlottman as president, placed Bernard Smith in the vice president's chair to succeed Albert Bochsler, and re-named Bernard Kirsch to the triple job of secretary, treasurer and manager.

Earlier in the day members had re-elected all three directors whose terms expired this year. They are Schlottman, Smith and Bochsler.

The new feed mill represents a big improvement in the young but enterprising Mt. Angel farm co-op. It will be built on the site of the present feed mill which is to be torn down. The new unit will include a steam-rolling plant and pelleting machine, bulk feed hoppers, and an automatic scales and sewing machine.

Details of the proposed feed mill were placed before the members by A. S. Fetterman, Portland contractor, who will be in charge of erecting the structure.

Don Gillespie, head of the seed division of the Pacific Supply Co-op, spoke on farm seeds.

The annual report read by accountant H. A. Michaelis showed an increase of 83 members during the past year for a total of 1,198. It also showed a volume of business of $722,546 in the purchasing department and $398,782 in the market department for a total of $1,121,329. This business volume excluded the vetch and clovers sales for which the tabulation has not yet been completed.

Net earnings of the year to be distributed amount to $66,395. Patrons were advised that the 1945 certificates of interest will be recalled and paid this year.

A free plate dinner was provided for all comers in St. Mary's dining hall at 12:30 p.m. About 400 were served with employees of the warehouse and the Farmers Union Oil Co. acting as waiters.
