The car is currently on display at the Shrock Motor Co. It is in fine condition, and was stored an estimated 37 years by Chappelle in a barn. (Statesman photo.)

Improvement Of South River Road Discussed

Improvement of South River road from Salem to Independence was discussed at a meeting Tuesday night in Independence of Independence Chamber of Commerce members and members of the Polk and Marion county courts.

Marion County Judge Rex Hartley explained that the state highway commission had not definitely committed itself on widening the road. Recently, however, the commission indicated it might take action on the road early next year.

The Independence delegation revealed a long-range speculative plan which calls for completion of the road into a state highway from Salem, across the new Willamette river bridge through Independence, to Valslet and on to the coast.

Polk county delegates also showed interest in a plan calling for the present Santiam highway to be extended through Stayton, Jefferson to the new bridge at Independence.
