Around Town....

By Jeryme English

GRAND TURNOUT... for the Town and Gown tea meeting on Thursday to hear vivacious Maurine Neuberger, state representative and wife of Senator Richard Neuberger... Nearly 150 women filling the Carrier room of the First Methodist church for the occasion... The only woman representative in the house choosing for her subject, "A Freshman Looks at the Legislature". She carried many of her viewpoints as a representative as well as experiences and humorous incidents which have taken place in the last six weeks... the speaker also talked briefly on the reapportionment bill and the Holy report... Miss Jean Farquharson of the Willamette university music school faculty delighted the guests with three piano selections... The patriotic theme... used in the decor... The striking tea table centered with a handsome milk glass bowl on a stand and filled with red tulips, white stock and freesias... and flanked with blue tapers and tiny red cherries tied to the candelabras... a beautiful white linen cutwork cloth edged in lace... even cherry pies seemed to further carry out the George Washington motif... Mrs. George Rossman and Mrs. Ernest C. Richards presiding at the tea and coffee urns... Mrs. Seward Reese chairman of the tea directorate.

NEIGHBORHOOD TEA... on Wednesday afternoon when Mrs. L. O. Arens and Mrs. Donald Barwick entertained at the former's Rose street home... Assisting the hostesses was Mrs. Zella King, a sister of Mrs. Arens, who is visiting here from Big Bear Lake, Calif.

A birthday dinner... on Sunday when Governor and Mrs. Thomas McNeil entertained at their home in honor of their daughter, Mrs. Wayne Hadley... Covers will be placed for Mr. and Mrs. Hadley and children, Eileen, Allan and Bruce, Mr. and Mrs. Lester D. Green and Danny, Miss Mae Hill of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hadley of Longview and the hosts.

An ice skating... party on Monday celebrated Donna Stone's tenth birthday... she is the daughter of the James C. Stones... Donna invited members of her fifth grade class at Grant school to go ice skating... later in the afternoon Mrs. Stone served the youngsters hot dogs and chocolate...

Rehearsal party... Mr. and Mrs. John W. Evans are entertaining tonight at their country place at Keizer for the pleasure of their daughter, Ramona, and her fiancé, Dean Needham, who will be married Sunday afternoon... the affair will follow the wedding rehearsal... bidden are members of the bridal party and the immediate families... Receive in honor... Alvis Miller, daughter of the Howard Miller, who is a sophomore at Oregon State college, has been announced as the outstanding sophomore girl of the Delta Gamma sorority house... she was selected by a committee of alumnae and presented a crested ring... she is majoring in pharmacy and is secretary of the women's pharmacy honorary on the campus... she is also treasurer of the Delta Gamma chapter house... Headed east... today will be Mr. and Mrs. Paul B. Wallace, who are entraining for New York City for a several weeks stay... they will return by the southern route, stopping in southern Califor a sojourn before coming north... they plan to be away a month or more... Their son-in-law and daughter, the Robert Gormsens, and son, Paul, will occupy their country place, Wallace Orchards, during their absence... Weekend visitors... will be Mr. and Mrs. William Dick of The Dalles, who will be guests of Mrs. Dick's mother, Mrs. Dan Johnston... The Dicks will also attend the Oregon-Washington basketball game in Eugene.

Templetons to Be Honored at Reception

A reception is being planned for Mr. and Mrs. Alec Templeton tonight in the Capitol room of the Senator hotel, by members of the Associated Students of Willamette university. The reception hour is between 7 and 8 o'clock and bidden are Willamette faculty members, students, members of the state legislature and their wives and guests.

Alec Templeton is being brought to Salem for a concert at Salem high school auditorium Saturday night at 8 o'clock. Sponsoring group is the Willamette University associated Students.

Reception for Silver Wedding

A silver wedding anniversary reception is to be given by Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Rose at their home north of Keizer on Sunday afternoon and evening. Friends are being invited through the press to attend between the hours of 3 and 5 and 7 and 9 o'clock.

The couple's daughter, Mrs. Jesse Jones, their son, Fred Rose jr., and Mrs. J. N. Brinkley, Mrs. Otto Yunker, Mrs. Archie Gardner, Miss Betty Brinkley, Miss Sherrill Brinkley and Miss Jane Gardner will assist.

On Ball Committee

Oregon State College—Marilyn Hill from Salem, senior in education at Oregon State college, has been appointed co-chairman of the senior ball decorations committee. The senior ball, an annual affair, will be held in May at Gill coliseum. Miss Hill is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmore E. Hill, 850 S. Liberty, Salem.

Miss Ann Carson, daughter of the John Carsons, will be home today from her studies at the University of Oregon to spend the week end with her parents.

Moormans Are Honored on Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. August Moorman celebrated their 50th anniversary on Sunday, February 18, by renewing their marriage vows at a mass at 8:30 at St. Vincent's de Paul church, Salem, with Rev. John J. Reedy officiating, at which their grandsons, Gerald and Richard Moorman, were mass servers, and their granddaughter, Patricia Moorman, was the organist. The couple's marriage took place on February 13, 1901.

A reception was held in their honor in the afternoon from 2 to 5 o'clock at St. Vincent's parish hall, with some 150 guests present. Decorations were carried out in gold and silver, with a large wedding cake, candelabras of yellow candles, daffodils, iris and acacia, and gold ribbon. Mrs. Moorman was dressed in black, wearing a gold orchid corsage, and a necklace given to her own mother by her father at the time they were engaged some 85 years ago.

Mr. Moorman, who came to the United States as a boy of 15, went back to Germany to get his bride in 1901, and they came to Melrose, Minn., where they resided for 15 years, and then came out west and lived at Colton, Wash., until 1920 when they moved to Salem and have been residents here since that time. The family home is on Silverton road.

They have two sons and three daughters, Joseph and Bernard, Marie and Mrs. Patrick Manning of Salem and Elisabeth of Portland, and ten grandchildren, all of whom were present at the reception.

Out-of-town guests were friends from Corvallis, Vancouver, Wash., Portland, Woodburn and Mt. Angel, also Mrs. Henry Von Wahlde of Chicago, a niece who was present at their marriage in 1901. Miss Marie Inwalle of San Jose, Calif., and the Misses Rose and Theresa Voss of Cupertino, Calif.

Assisting at the reception besides the sons and daughters with their wives and husbands, were their granddaughter Patricia, their grandson, Robert Moorman, Mrs. Henry Von Wahlde, Miss Marie Inwalle, Misses Rose and Theresa Voss, Miss Audrey Christman, Miss Bernice Ruettgers, Mrs. Earl Manning, Mrs. William Schreiner and Mrs. Alvin Manning. Musical selections were given by Miss Helen Bowers and Eugene Saunders of Portland.

John Waddington, Portland Artist, will have a one-man show at Lincoln County Art Center, Delake, February 25 through March 17, which will include some 50 water colors and oils of Oregon and California scenes and a few portraits. He will have another one-man show at the Maryhill Museum of Fine Arts in June.

High School Choruses in Program

"Symphony and Song," a concert by the Salem high school orchestra and choruses will be presented Tuesday, February 27, at the high school auditorium. This concert is free, and all parents and friends of the more than 250 students participating are cordially welcome to attend.

Featured by the orchestra will be the "Pizzicata Polka" by Strauss which is one of the numbers on the all-northwest orchestra program for this year. Also on the orchestra portion of the program will be McKay's "Newfoundland Suite" and the "Mozart Violin Concerto in G Major" with Roberta Graham as the soloist.

Several ensembles will perform numbers prepared for the district music contest to be held early next month in Eugene. Among these groups are the Seniorsettes, Valkyries, and Melodettes; girls' sextettes which have sung for many Salem banquets and community functions. The Debouaires, string trio and the Salem high string quartet will play. The quartet has been invited to perform at the Northwest Music Conference in Missoula, Mont., late in March. The Salem high choir, Girls' glee and mixed chorus will each sing a group of numbers. Victor B. Palmason directs the Salem high orchestra and string groups. Howard F. Miller is the vocal director.

Open House for Mrs. Ritchie

The North 24th street home of Miss Elva Lovre was the scene of an informal open house on Wednesday afternoon and evening in honor of Mrs. Ray Ritchie, who is retiring from her position with the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co. Hostesses for the affair were Mrs. Ritchie's co-workers at the telephone company.

Seventy-five called between the hours of 2 and 5 o'clock and in the evening from 7 to 11. A centerpiece of red carnations centered the coffee table and pink carnations were arranged on the mantel.

Pouring and assisting during the afternoon were Mrs. Robert Victor, Mrs. Flynn Fought, Mrs. Clara Eckhout, Mrs. Arthur Bailey and Mrs. Kenneth Bayne. In the evening pouring and serving were Mrs. Jess George, Mrs. Alice Jonas, Mrs. Marie Bertram, Miss Louise Pettit, Miss Mildred Simons, Mrs. Arlene Vaughn, Mrs. Ray Bairy and Mrs. Amanda Anderson. Miss Emma Belt passed the guest book.

Sojourners Plan Dinner

The George Washington theme was featured at the Sojourners dessert bridge on Thursday afternoon at the Salem Woman's club-house. Guests attending were Mrs. James H. Allenby, Mrs. Robert Kralicek, and a new member welcomed was Mrs. Leonard Bruce. Plans were made for the semi-annual no-host dinner to be held March 2 at the Woman's club with Mrs. Chester A. Ladd in charge.
