Bus Walkout Session Ends In Deadlock

SAN FRANCISCO, March 4-(AP) Negotiators in the Pacific Grey-hound bus strike adjourned their session here at 12:30 p.m. (PST) today without reaching an agree-ment. The strike has tied up Greyhound travel in seven western states

A Greyhound line spokesman aid negotiations would be resaid sumed at 11 a.m. tomorrow. That meant commuters in the San Francisco bay area who ordinarily depend on the buses to get to their jobs will have to find other means at least tomorrow morning.

Harry Lerner, spokesman for the Greyhound company, said employer representatives told him the disagreement had boiled down to two major issues. He said he did not know what those issues were Lerner said some 50 points of dispute were at stake when 3,600 drivers and station employes walked out on their jobs Friday, after employers had failed to meet their demands for higher wages and certain changes in working rules.

The strike forced some 14,000 bay area commuters to take to the highways or trains to get to work Friday.

travel for points east had been jammed by the bus strike was not confirmed here.

R. W. Baker, district manager for American Airlines, said there had been a heavy crush of passenger business during the past two months, but "no particularly noticeable change in the past few days."

G. A. Laugh, supervisor of reservations for United Air Lines here, also said the bus strike apnoticeable passenger jam.
