

Eggs and grapefruit combine in this salad for that day following Easter, when hard cooked eggs become an ob-session with the homemaker. The salad includes:

EGG AND GRAPEFRUIT SALAD

6 hard-cooked eggs

1½ cups diced green celery

2 large firm grapefruit in

½ teaspoon salt ¼ cup mayonnaise Paprika 2 olives, optional 2 tablespoons lemon juice

Pour lemon juice over celery placed in chilled bowl. Refrigerate while preparing other ingredients. Slice 1 hard-cooked egg, and set aside for garnish. Add the 5 eggs coarsely cut, salt, half the mayonnaise and the grapefruit to celery. Mix gently with 2 forks. Heap into grapefruit shells or lettuce cups. Garnish with egg slices. Finish with a dash of paprika. Serve salad dressing on side if desired. Serves 4.

New Synthetic Yarn, Called Feber E Appears in Group of New Bedspreads

By Sue Gardner The new synthetic yarn, called Fiber E appears in a group of new bedspreads now coming on the retail market. The new fiber does not ravel and has a springy nonmatting quality. Its appearance is some what like cotton but it takes a deep-er dye than cot-ton and when used with the latter, the effect is a two-toned weave. The fiber E spreads are durable and designed for use both as bed and studio couch spreads.

One spread with the new fiber is designed for modern, casual ranch type homes. It is made with alternate rows of the clip-ped fiber and looped tufting. An-other spread has a banding of the fiber for a border and crossbanding to outline the top of the bed or couch with a background of seersucker. The colors are deep modern tones.

An unusual tweed texture has been developed in another spread in this collection. The most sophisticated combination is a black and white heathery needletuft texture. It feels soft and velvety to the touch and has a band of black around the bed edge and at the pillow to form a sham effect. The spread is also available in combinations of copper grey, turquoise, brown, red, and yellow with white.

Especially designed for chil-dren's rooms is a light weight spread of wrinkle-resistant pebble cloth with a vivid overplaid. The spread can be matched to drapes in the same color combinations of vivid plaid and neutral backgrounds, which have a new grey and a brown this season. Other pebble cloth spreads are shown with floral, cherry and geometric designs on solid to try. Though untried by us, it sounds good.

Homemade Rye Bread Recipe

RYE BREAD 3 packages granular yeast 1 cup lukewarm water 3 teaspoons salt 2 tablespoons caraway seed 2 cup molasses

½ cup hot water
2 tablespoons shortening
3½ cups sifted flour
2¾ cups sifted rye flour

Dissolve yeast in lukewarm water. Mix salt, caraway seed, molasses, hot water and shortening; cool to lukewarm and add yeast. Combine flour, gradually stir into yeast mixture. Rub a little flour into board to prevent loaves.

Various poems and songs have the Pilgrims landing in America on a "stern and rockbound coast," but sand is much more abundant where they landed than rock.

dough from sticking; turn out onto board and knead until smooth and satiny. Form into a ball; place in greased bowl and coat all sides We have always had a desire to produce rye bread at home, as good as some of those we purchase at the store. Here is a recipe to the try. Though purchase at the store of the ball. Cover; let rest 10 minutes and shape into 2 loaves or balls. Place on baking sheet, sprinkled with corn meal. Cover; let rise in warm place until double in size (1 hour). Brush lightly with cold water. Bake 10 minutes in preheated hot oven (450 degrees); reduce heat to moderate (350 degrees) and bake 25-30 minutes. Cover with brown paper after baking 25 minutes to prevent burning crust. Yield: 2
