The appearance of spring camp doings by the majors and Coast leaguers, plus the fact that said natives now own their own ball club here, is unquestionably the reason for the query.

But let us not be impatient. Actually it isn't yet time for a load of news on the club. Must remember that even though the majors and PCL'ers are now hard at tuning up chores, most of the smaller outfits haven't yet signed their rosters for 1951. Spring training for them doesn't start until the end of the month or the first part of April. In the case of our local dandies, as Sportscaster Bruce Williams dubs 'em, they'll not swarm into Napa, Cal., until March 31. Some folks feel that inasmuch as not too much news on the Senators has hit the papers in recent days, there can't be too many players on the roster to write about. 'Tain't so. Actually the Solons have 15 men now in the
