Birthdays Week Is Observed

To commemorate the 39th birthday of Girl Scouts and in observance of Girl Scout week several radio programs are on the agenda for this week. The Louisa Freese intermediate troop will present a skit, "How Important Is a Penny," over KOCO Thursday night between 5:30 and 5:45 p.m.

On March 17 the Girl Scouts and Boy Scouts will give a joint program over KSLM at 10 a.m. During the week Mrs. Eleanor Rosevelt will interview the national executive of the Girl Scouts, Mrs. Dorothy Stratton, over a national hookup.

The Senior Girl Scout troop celebrated its 8th birthday and the 39th birthday of Girl Scouts at a dinner Monday night at Nohl-gren's. Mrs. Hal M. Randall is leader of the group and the girls are studying to be service aides. Following the dinner the girls attended the city council meeting in connection with their studies.

The district meeting scheduled for Thursday morning at the YMCA has been cancelled.

A Girl Scout leaders training class was held Tuesday at the First Methodist church. Another class will be given next Tuesday in completion of the training course.

Independence — Clerical Rebekah lodge met here Tuesday and entertained Mrs. Helen Davis, president. Prior to the meeting, a banquet in her honor was held at Monmouth.

Other guests included: George Naderman, grand junior warden of grand encampment; Lora Wood, secretary of association of ladies auxiliary Patriarchs Militant; Vera Neubaur, Salem lodge, and Katherine Olsen, assembly chaplain.

The Dorcas Missionary Society of the Christ Lutheran church will meet on Wednesday with Mrs. A. Gerling with Mrs. G. Gerling as hostess.

YWCA Rejects Bids on New Building

Although bids for the proposed YWCA building have been rejected by the building committee and trustees, it doesn't mean that the YW isn't going ahead with plans for the proposed building.

At a meeting of the board of directors of the YWCA Tuesday morning Mrs. A. A. Schramm, president, announced that after due consideration the trustees and members of the building committee regretfully rejected the contractors' bids, which were opened on February 13, on the proposed building. The contractors, however, have been asked to hold their work sheets until such time building is possible.

The bids were in excess of the present funds available. The firms submitting bids included: T. V. Peterson company, Portland, $75,993; Erwin Batterman, Salem, $498,580; and Robertson, Hay and Wallace, Portland, $582,429. Meanwhile, the YWCA has made application to the National Production Authority to build and plans will continue to raise additional funds for the building.

To Go Ahead With Plans
 Membership at the YWCA is constantly growing as is interest in the various activities of the YW, which means a new building is much in need as the present State Street structure has become inadequate. Members of the building committee are determined to go ahead with the building, but due to high costs and problems of construction arising there will be a delay at this time. On the building committee are Miss Dorathia Steusloff, chairman, William L. Phillips, Reynolds Allen, Mrs. Richard Slater and Charles A. Sprague. Members of the board of trustees are Miss Steusloff, Mr. Phillips, Milton L. Meyers, A. C. Haag and Dr. Frank Brown.

During the business session Mrs. Schramm announced committee chairmen for the year as follows:
 Finance, Mrs. George W. Alling; membership co - chairmen, Mrs. G. Frederick Chambers, Mrs. J. C. Armpriest; personnel co-chairmen, Mrs. Chester M. Cox, Mrs. Robert D. Gregg; publicity co-chairmen, Mrs. William Crothers and Mrs. Bruce F. Pickett; public affairs, Mrs. Robert E. Gangware; Y-Teens, Mrs. Carlton E. Greider; young adults, Mrs. Harold O. Schneider; house, Mrs.

Extension Agent Talks

Mrs. Marjorie White, Marion County home extension agent, discussed the basic wardrobe with accessories, and clothes that are appropriate for women to wear on different occasions at the Friday afternoon meeting of Swegle home extension unit held at the home of Mrs. Mary Swingle, Mrs. Oscar Forgard, chairman, named as her nominating committee for new officers, Mrs. E. E. Brandt, Mrs. Boyd Wilkinson and Mrs. Marno Dalke.

The unit has been assigned the Azalea house project for the spring festival.

Field Director Is Speaker

Miss Beatrice A. Patterson, national field director of the National Federation of BPW clubs, was guest speaker at the BPW workshop Monday night at the Mayflower hall with women attending from Oregon City, Medford, Silverton and Salem. Miss Patterson's subject was "Better Business Women for a Better Business World."

The speaker emphasized four objectives of the club: to elevate the standards of the business women; to promote her best interest in the business world; for cooperation of all business women; and to extend opportunities for education to women.

A tea hour followed and pouring were Mrs. Byron Herrick and Mrs. Arthur Weddle. The committee in charge included Mrs. Marion Wooden, Mrs. Maxine Lawrence, Miss Merl Dimick, Miss Mildred Yetter, Mrs. LuVerne Hardwick and Mrs. Clark McCall.

Miss Patterson was guest speaker at a meeting of all the BPW clubs in the Central Willamette district in Sweet Home Sunday. Present from Salem were Mrs. Marion Wooden, Mrs. Sue Booth, Mrs. Grace Clark, Miss Vada Hill and Mrs. John Versteeg.

Auxiliary at Jones' Home

The country home of Mrs. Ronald E. Jones at Brooks will be the scene of the Salem Lions auxiliary meeting Thursday night at 8 o'clock. The guest speaker will be Mrs. George Rhoten, who will tell of her European travels last fall. Mrs. John Ramage is president of the auxiliary.

Mrs. LeRoy Stewart heads the hostess committee and assisting are Mrs. Roger Hoy, Mrs. Lee Canfield, Mrs. Milan Boniface, Mrs. Howard Jenks, Mrs. C. A. Schaefer, Mrs. Morrell Cray, Mrs. William Scandling and Mrs. Marcus Sesle.

Due to limited parking space at the Jones home auxiliary members are asked to fill their cars.

On Etiquette

By Roberta Lee

Q. Does a woman employee ever call her employer by his first name?
 A. This depends upon their respective ages, length of their acquaintance, and whether or not the office is conducted informally. However, to clients and visitors she must always speak of him as Mr. Gordon.
 Q. What should a girl do if her family cannot afford an elaborate church wedding?
 A. She can plan a very simple ceremony in her own church, and invite only relatives and a few close friends.
 Q. When two men and two girls are eating together in a public place, at a small table, how should they be seated?

 A. The girls should be seated opposite each other.

Auburn — Mrs. Melvin Shaw was hostess for seven members of the Monroe Avenue Sewing club at her home Wednesday afternoon.
