Ferrier Favored Man In $10,000 Tourney

GREENSBORO, N. C., March 22 (AP)—Jim Ferrier, the broad-shouldered former Australian amateur champion who now plays golf professionally out of San Francisco, hit the hole in the $10,000 Greensboro Open tournament getting under way tomorrow.

The big fellow scored a clean sweep of all three Florida tournaments, at St. Petersburg, Miami Beach and Jacksonville, to move within $64 of Lloyd Mangrum, the year's number 1 money winner, who has taken down $8,326.

Ferrier's $6,000 pickup in the last three weeks has seen him average 67.8 for 12 rounds. He was at his steadiest in winning the Jacksonville Open on Monday where he fired his fourth straight 68 to romp in by one of the widest margins in years—11 strokes over runners-up Mangrum and Jack Shields of Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

Ferrier's chief contention in the field of 160 that will swing around the 6,630 yard, par 71 starmost Forest country club course will be Mangrum and Sammy Snead, always the man to beat at Greensboro.

Most of the top notchers are on hand for the tournament, which has been lengthened to run through Easter Sunday with four 18-hole days, instead of the usual 38-hole Sunday windup.

Tag Team Mix Next on Mat

His battle royal of this week having been a huge success both for the stipendiary and for the well as interest Matchmaker Elton Owen is following up with another prime crowd pleaser, a tag team match, as his next main event on the armory mat. In the tag teamer, booked for next Tuesday, will be four of the gladiators who provided much of the whoop-de-doo stuff in the royal this week.

On one team will be Arnie Skaaland and George (The Muscle) Dusette. On the other will be nasties Alex (Punishing Pole) Kasaboski and Bulldog Clements.

Two other matches, one featuring the return of Herb (Perpetual Motion) Parks to local action, will be announced later.

Dusette won the royal, but Skaaland, Kasaboski and Clements had their big moments during the evening's action. The Skaaland-Kasaboski brawl was a dandy, and well worth having those two facing one another again.

Walt Achiu will again referee.

CALGARY, March 22 (AP)—Some 30 top-ranking figure skaters from Canada and the United States will compete here this weekend, in the North American figure championships.

The meet gets under way tomorrow. Dick Burton of the Boston Skating club is favored to retain his North American title. He has held the world championship four years in a row.

His strongest challenge is expected from Canadian Champion Peter Firstbrook of Toronto and James Grogan of Tacoma, Wash.

'Greatest I've Seen' - Dickey

LOS ANGELES, March 22 (AP)—"He's the greatest prospect I've seen in my time, and I go back quite a ways," said Bill Dickey, the Yankees' catching coach. "I'll swear I expect to see that boy just take off and fly any time."

Dickey, who does not enthuse easily about anything or anybody, was, of course, referring to Mickey Mantle. And what he said about this 19-year-old refugee from a lead mine was only typical of what every baseball man on the coast is saying.

They say this husky Yankee kid can't miss being one of the greatest. No rookie in this writer's recollection has created the spontaneous commotion that Mantle has stirred up since he reported to the Yanks' school at Phoenix in mid-February.

Mickey, whose 190 pounds are stacked on a solid 5-11 frame, hits with frightful power either from left or right. He'll hurt some infielders before he's through. He is an extremely modest, quiet youngster. He finished high school at Commerce, Okla., only two years ago, and he gives the impression that all this is something of a pleasant surprise to him.

"I don't know which side I can hit better from," he says, seriously. "I'm right-handed, but it seems natural to hit from either side. I guess I've hit left-handed more, but that's because there are more right-handed pitchers."

After watching Mickey lay down a bunt and fly to first, students agree it will be very difficult ever to nail him on the second half of a double play. He did not compete in track and so never has been timed. He looks, offhand, as though he might do the hundred in about 9.8.

The only question in anyone's mind is how long it will take the kid, fresh out of Class C ball to learn to play the outfield the way it must be played in the big show. It was as a shortstop that he hit .383 for Joplin in the Western association last year.

'Lip' Thinks Top-Heavy Rosters Hurt Quality Major Loop Ball

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., March 22 (AP)—Leo Durocher thinks one of the reasons for the low quality of major league baseball is the large quantity of manpower.

The loquacious leader of the New York Giants created a bit of a stir today when he said he planned to carry only 23 men including eight pitchers instead of the usual 10 or 11. The May 25 limit permits a club to carry 25 men.

"What's the use of having fellows on the club just to sit around on the bench?" he asked. "The good team is the one where everybody plays ball and knows what to do. You get more out of a compact group with everybody working than from a bunch with extras hanging around, coming and going. With 25 men on a club, some are bound to sit around doing nothing. That breeds discontentment."

"Take your pitching staff, for instance. Who needs more than eight pitchers, provided they are good pitchers? The only time anyone else gets any chance is in a 9-1 game."

Charles Proves Model Husband

CINCINNATI, March 22 (AP)—Heavyweight Boxing Champion Ed Charles is married, but is not living with his wife, he said today.

There is no trouble, he added. It is because "I've just think it is best to live this way while I am boxing and my being away so much."

Charles' marriage to the former Miss Gladys Gartrell, and the fact that they have a baby, "born" Feb. 12, came to light last night.

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., March 22 (AP)—A home run by pinch-hitter Hal Rice with one on in the third inning gave the St. Louis Cardinals a 2-1 victory over the New York Giants before a crowd of 3,423 today.

CAMP PENDLETON, Calif., March 22 (AP)—Ignited by Whitey Wietelmann's homer, San Diego Padres rallied for five runs in the seventh inning to turn back Camp Pendleton's marines 8-6 in a baseball exhibition here today.

NEW YORK, March 22 (AP)—John L. Davis, an army product who has moved into the light-weight division's top ranks, makes his eastern debut tomorrow night against Eddie Giosa, veteran Philadelphia welterweight, in the main event at Madison Square Garden.

Giosa was summoned hastily to fill in the date today after light-weight Champion Chas. Williams cancelled out of the fight because of a sore right shoulder.

Williams also called off an April 3 date with Calvin Smith in Philadelphia. The Trenton, N. J., Negro says he wants to make sure he is in the best condition for a scheduled title defense against an unknown opponent in the Garden, May 11.

Worsham Team Takes Laurels

AIKEN, S. C., March 22 (AP)—Jack Burke and Lew Worsham tied at 67 here today to top a field of name players in the seventh annual one-day pro-amateur tournament conducted by Aiken's Palmetto golf club.

still one of the boys fishing from a bridge crossing Mill creek off prison grounds.

We are wondering now just what sort of loose regulations govern the movements of prisoners in the state prison? It seems to make no difference that Mill creek is set aside for angling to someone under 18 years of age, and it seems to make no difference that the season is now closed to angling in this area except for bass and catfish. And we know of neither of these fish ever having been caught in Mill creek.

Duck Pond All That's Needed Now

Further conversation on the matter with the aforementioned sergeant of the state police (name withheld at this writing by request) revealed that it was a nuisance to the game law enforcement division of the state police. People noticing the prisoners angling are inclined to wonder just why a person sentenced to prison can fish out of season on a stream closed to everyone but kids under 18, when no one else can fish.

Looks very much to us as if another investigating committee is needed to study the prison regulations. There is also a report from a reliable source of information indicating that at least one of the prison inmates was running a trap line on Mill creek last winter. What really surprises us at the present writing is that the boys out at the annex do not have a private duck lake to round out the season. Trapping in the winter and fishing during the spring and summer leaves a gap in the fall hunting season.
