Recipe Collector Finds Material for Hobby: Hates to Toss Away Anything

By Maxine Buren

Statesman Woman's Editor We haven't had a discussion of just miscellaneous recipes for a long time, and they accumulate on our desk frequently, because we are one of those people who simply can't throw away a good

Now take fruit cookies for instance. In the kitchen cupboard we recall, there are two packages of assorted candied fruits, chopped and waiting for the Christmas fruit cake we never made. We find a recipe that calls for candied cherries and we know we could substitute 1½ cups for the cherries and the dates in this recipe and we would all be happy.

FRUIT COOKIES

				THU TY	٦
1/2	cup	butter
		brown
1	egg,	beaten
			(reserve	small
	an	(tauoo

½ teaspoon soda 1/4 cup thick sour milk 34 cup nuts, broken 34 cup candied cherries, chopped 34 cup dates, chopped

1/2 teaspoon salt Cream butter and sugar thoroughly, add egg. Add sifted dry ingredients alternately with sour milk, add nuts and fruit with last addition of flour. Drop by teaspoonfuls on buttered baking sheet. If desired, place a nut on each cookie. Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees) 12 to 15 minutes.

Then of course there's a sour cream dressing which should be like mother used to make for cold slaw:

SOUR CREAM DRESSING

1/2 cup thick cream 1/4 teaspoon mustard 2 tablespoons sugar 2 tablespoons vinegar 3 tabl. chili sauce or catsup 1/4 teaspoon paprika Mix all ingredients together, beat or whip until smooth. Chill. As a little variation for preparation of liver, this sounds good:

BRAISED LIVER 1 pound liver, sliced 2 onions, sliced Flour Salt 2 tablespoons butter Pepper

2 cups sweet or sour cream Dip liver in boiling water, roll in flour. Fry slowly in butter until meat is brown. Pour cream over liver. Add onlons, salt and pepper; simmer 30 to 40 minutes, or bake in a moderate oven 350 degrees) 30 to 40 minutes. Serves 6.
