Senators Open Training Camp

Luby Plans Double Drills for Outfit

NAPA, Cal., March 30-(Special) The Salem Senators of the Western International league will offi-cially open their 1951 spring train-ing camp here Saturday. Some of the Senator prospects have been working out most of the week, but the full contingent won't be counted by Manager Hugh Luby until Saturday morning, when he issues first roll call.

Once the Senators get started, they'll be a busy bunch, according to Luby. What with only three weeks remaining before the opening of the season April 20, Luby plans twice-a-day drills for his charges, one in the morning and one in the afternoon. The Senators will tune up here for almost 10 days before taking to the road for a series of exhibition games at Stockton, Modesto San Jose and Redding, against professional teams representing those cities. The first game will be at Stockton April 10.

Although Luby has issued nothing official concerning the status of the few holdouts remaining on the roster, he said today that he should have information concerning them "sometime the coming weekend." Unsigned by the Salems are Outfielders Mel Wasley, Wally Yonamine and Pete Tedeschi and Infielders Johnny Hack and Bob Goldstein.

Luby also announced that he was expecting some player help from the Sacramento club of the Coast league "within the next few days."
