

Miss Johnson Weds Mr. Boehr

WILLAMINA—Miss Patricia Louise Johnson, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Victor E. Johnson of Willamina and Carlton, became the bride of Irwin I. Boehr, jr., of Seattle, March 24, at a double ring ceremony performed by the Rev. E. E. Smith, pastor of the First Baptist church in McMinnville.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white slipper satin gown. Chantilly lace edged the neckline, skirt and train; and the veil was held in place by a Chantilly lace poke bonnet. She carried white calla lilies, freesia and a golden throat orchid.

Mrs. Robert Bainter of Willamina, matron of honor, wore a pansy purple taffeta gown and carried violet stock and call lilies. Two bridesmaids, Miss Doris Jean Childs and Miss Clara Granger of McMinnville, wore Nile green taffeta gowns with poke bonnets; and two other bridesmaids, Miss June Meredith of McMinnville and Miss Beverly Kelsven of Portland, wore gowns of wood violet taffeta, poke bonnets, and all carried bouquets similar to that carried by the matron of honor. The little Misses Joy Luse of McMinnville and Joyce Orr of Carlton were flower girls, and Master Kenneth Luse of McMinnville was the ring bearer.

Dale Johnson, brother of the bride, was best man, and ushers were Jim Ferris and Ed Olson of Seattle, and Kelvin Crafton and Mahlon Horton of McMinnville.

Preceding the ceremony, Professor Harold C. Elkinton of McMinnville at the organ, assisted by Miss Marion Fouse, Sammy Piazza, and Kenneth Beaud, sang.

The reception was held following the ceremony. Mrs. Byron A. White and Mrs. Roy McCourry of McMinnville assisted in arrangements and decorating. Mrs. Fred W. Wolfe of Everett, Wash., aunt of the bride, served the wedding cake.

Miss Lois Johnson and Elizabeth Ahlbeck of Everett, Mesdames E. V. Johnson of Everett, Harry J. Mekus of Longview, Charles B. Stallsmith of Seattle, Roy McCurry and B. A. White of McMinnville, Miss Yvonne Hubbard of Willamina, and Miss Fouse and Mrs. Piazza, Miss Marion Voge of McMinnville, Miss Lois Gould of Sheridan, Mrs. Hazel Dolph of McMinnville, Miss Ann McCune, Miss Anita Horton, Miss Esther Young and Mrs. Wallace Aebi of McMinnville assisted.

Mrs. Melvin Bedeau was hostess to members of Xi Lambda chapter of Beta Sigma Phi at her home on Pringle Road Wednesday. Election of officers was held with the following members elected: President, Mrs. Melvin Bedeau; vice president, Mrs. Donald Parker; recording secretary, Miss Martha Lierly; corresponding secretary, Mrs. William Collier; treasurer, Miss Gladys Quesseth; city council representative, Mrs. C. A. Stoddard; city council alternate, Mrs. Burl Cox. New officers will take office at the first meeting in May. A Mother's day luncheon will be held on Saturday, May 12, for members and their guests. Mrs. Donald Parker is in charge of arrangements. National Exemplar day, May 15, will be observed by the chapter with a no-host dinner for members, their husbands and friends. Miss Gladys Quesseth and Miss Norma Sletton were assistant hostesses.
