

Washington Watchword Appeasement of Reds, Republican Martin Says

WASHINGTON, April 13-(AP)—House Republican Leader Joseph W. Martin, Jr., said tonight the dismissal of Gen. MacArthur shows that "appeasement of communism in Asia is again the watchword" of the Truman administration.

He said the president and his advisers are "flirting with the dangerous idea that you can make a deal with the communists, when everybody knows that no one has ever made a successful peace with the communists."

"The only thing that has ever stopped the Kremlin is a show of strength, a display of will and incisive leadership on the part of those threatened by the Soviet Union," he said.

"Milquetoast leadership is the Kremlin's dish."

The Massachusetts congressman took to the radio tonight to renew his denunciation of Mr. Truman for "the midnight removal of General MacArthur" as allied high commander in the far east.

It was a letter to Martin from MacArthur that led directly to the president's removal order. In the letter MacArthur advocated stronger measures against the Chinese communists. He favored allowing the Chinese nationalists to open a second front on the Chinese mainland.

Martin charged that MacArthur was fired summarily because he tried to tell the American people that Asia is the key to the entire world situation.

Said Martin: "We will never be able to dictate peace on our terms unless we maintain strength in Asia, Asia, with its vast resources and enormous pool of manpower, is the key.

"What we desperately need are policies and a strategy of a truly global nature because we are confronted with a global threat. Anything less than policies of these dimensions can only fail. Anything less can only mean a third world war and untold destruction."

He contended that for five years after the last war, "the administration pursued a frustrating and contradictory policy of containment of communism in Europe and appeasement of communism in Asia," and then last June, "on what appeared to be a sudden impulse, without consultation with the congress, plunged the United States into the Korean conflict."

He said it seemed clear that MacArthur was given an assignment to win that war. But, Martin said:

"I think it is plain to every one of us that things had finally reached the point where not only the general but every American had the right to raise the question of whether we were in Korea to win or to lose."

Portland Firm Low Bidder on Salem Projects

PORTLAND, April 13-(AP)—Contract for a Salem street-improvement job was awarded to Warren Northwest, Portland, today by the state highway commission.

The firm bid $3,488 for widening and paving .15 of a mile of Water street-Commercial street unit of the Marion street bridge section. No other bids were submitted for the project.

The same firm had the only bid of $2,720 for widening and paving .29 of a mile of Lana avenue to Academy street in Salem. It was referred to the engineer.

The commission took under study a proposal that boys with good records at Woodburn Boys school be permitted to work in state parks in the summer.

The commission awarded $6,000,000 worth of highway improvement contracts today and yesterday—the largest figure on record for a single session.

Britain Bid For Red Help On Pact Vetoed

WASHINGTON, April 13-(AP)—The U. S. responded with a firm "no" today to a proposal by Britain to let Red China help write the Japanese peace treaty.

Rebuffed at the same time was a British suggestion that the treaty contain a clause returning Formosa to China. Since Britain recognizes the Chinese communist regime and the U. S. does not this was regarded by American officials as meaning handing the nationalist island stronghold over to the communists.

The state department announced the American stand shortly before Ambassador John Foster Dulles left by plane at 4:35 p. m., on a 10-day trip to Tokyo. President Truman ordered the trip to speed the Japanese settlement. Dulles, republican foreign policy adviser who is the American spokesman in the treaty negotiations, disclosed in advance he hoped to draw further on the "wise counsel" of Gen. Douglas MacArthur respite Mr. Truman's removal of the Far East commander.

Officials discounted the possibility of a wide open split with Britain over the treaty or of a serious delay in working out terms. The view here is that Britain logically is compelled to propose consultations with the Red Chinese government to which Britain has extended formal diplomatic recognition. Also the British labor government is under some pressure from the public at home for a settlement in Asia which would end the Korean crisis and leave the Peiping regime in undisputed sway in China.

Federal Building Controls Eased

National production authority permits for commercial construction projects are "easier to come by" now than when the federal control first went into effect a few months ago, two government officials reported in Salem Friday.

They were Ralph Sullivan, district chief for the department of commerce, and John G. Barnett, NPA industrial analyst, both of Portland. They conferred with Salem Chamber of Commerce officials here.

Sullivan estimated that 95 per cent of building applications in the past month had been approved.

Lt. McNeil Due in Salem From Korean Battle Zone

Lt. (jg) R. K. McNeil, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. McNeil, 610 N. Commercial st., will arrive in Salem today from Korea to spend a 30-day leave with his parents.

Comdr. J. A. Eastwood, termed the Salem unit the best of four he had inspected this week. Other members of the inspecting group were Lt. Comdr. J. K. Jackson and Lt. (jg) D. P. White.

Retailers Against Tax on Businesses

Directors of Salem's Retail Trade bureau went on record Friday against a legislative bill which proposes a tax on net incomes from businesses, trades and professions.

A spokesman said letters will be sent to Marion county state representatives urging defeat of the measure, HB 615.

Ducks, Huskies Collide Today

SEATTLE, April 13-(AP)—Oregon will be the favorite tomorrow in its track meet with Washington but both coaches predict the decision will not be reached until the relay winds up the action.

"We should come up to the relay with a one or two-point lead," said Coach Bill Bowerman of Oregon's Northern Division champions. Washington's Eise Edmondson said "it could be the relay will decide the meet."

DULLES TO SEE MacARTHUR TOKYO, Saturday, April 14-(AP) John Foster Dulles, state department adviser now en route to Tokyo, expects to see General MacArthur, it was announced.

Fall Against Stove Burns Salem Woman

A fall onto flames from an open cook stove hospitalized Mrs. Fred Hester, 70, of 1910 N. 5th st., Friday with second-degree burns on her back.

Flames from the wood-burning stove ignited Mrs. Hester's clothing when a stool tipped over and toppled her onto them. She put them out by jumping into the bath tub, according to city firemen.

Mrs. Hester was reported in "fairly good" condition late Friday night at Salem General Hospital. Relatives reported that she may have visitors.

ing from a business trip to the Black Rock area.

Case was a timber cruiser and buyer. He collapsed at a sporting goods store at Falls City and died before medical aid could be summoned. The body was taken to the Boliman mortuary here. Services will be announced later.
