

Peaches Make Filling for Nutty Pie

A rich syrup and egg mixture is poured over canned peach slices and baked in this delicious pie. Chopped walnuts are sprinkled over the top to give a crunchy effect. You'll like the contrast of dainty peach slices and the caramel-like filling.

PEACH CARAMEL NUT PIE
2 cups canned peach slices
1/4 cup butter or margarine
1/2 cup granulated sugar
1 tablespoon flour
2/3 cup dark corn syrup
1/4 teaspoon salt
2 eggs
1 teaspoon vanilla extract
Pastry for single 9-inch crust
1/4 cup chopped walnuts

Drain peaches thoroughly. Cream butter with sugar and flour. Blend in corn syrup, salt, lightly beaten eggs and vanilla. Arrange peaches in pastry-lined pie pan. Pour egg mixture over peaches and sprinkle nuts over top. Bake in hot oven (425 degrees) 15 minutes. Reduce heat to moderately hot (375 degrees) and bake 30 minutes longer, or until center is set. Decorate with whipped cream, peach slices and walnut halves, if desired. Serves 6 to 8.

Canape Includes Chives in Topping

Those chives growing out in the garden, will make good flavor for spreading for canapes:

COTTAGE CHEESE CANAPE
6 slices bread
1/2 pound cottage cheese
Chives, chopped
Stuffed olives, sliced
Parsley

Cut bread into stars. Combine cheese and chives, spread on bread. Place slice of olive on each canape, decorate with parsley.

High Yield in Low Yield Area

DES MOINES, Iowa —(P)— A farmer from a normally low-yielding county won second in the Iowa corn yield contest. The man who turned the trick was Frederick Koehler, farming east of Udell in Appanoose County. In a county where yields often have run between 15 to 30 bushels per acre, Koehler produced 141.38 bushels an acre on a 23-acre plot. Koehler said the corn field was in clover the year before. The ground also had been treated with lime and phosphate. He planted a Pfeister hybrid seed and used 125 pounds of 3-12-12 blend fertilizer to the acre and used 125 pounds of ammonium phosphate which he plowed in as he cultivated the corn for the last time.

Costello Makes Front Pages in Hungary

BUDAPEST—Hungarian papers very rarely deal with life in western countries, but the paper "Szabad Nep" in a recent Sunday edition devoted two whole columns to an article on "Underworld Government in the U. S. A."

The article described the recent hearings conducted in New York City by the senate crime investigating committee.

Disease Killing Aussie Rabbits

SYDNEY —(P)— A disease, encouraged by man and spread by mosquitoes, is killing off thousands of unwanted rabbits in Australia. The rabbit-killing disease is myxomatosis.

Rabbits infected with the virus become blind and die of starvation. Australians are encouraging the disease because rabbits are a big pest here. They roam in millions over the sheep country, devouring enormous quantities of grass that could be used for sheep grazing.

Yank Heads State Bank In Ethiopia

ADDIS ABABA —(P)— For the second time since Ethiopia established her new currency in 1945, an American's name is appearing on all paper notes circulating in the country.

The name is that of Jack Bennett, (Washington, D.C.), former U.S. treasury official and later financial adviser on the staff of General Lucius D. Clay in the American zone of Germany.

Crisp new paper bills just put into circulation now bear his signature. Bennett is governor of the State Bank of Ethiopia. This is the bank of issue of all Ethiopian legal tender. The first American's name to appear on Ethiopian paper money was that of George Blowers, former head of the Bank of Monrovia (Liberia) and governor of the State Bank of Ethiopia until 1948.

All of Ethiopia's paper money is printed by the Security Bank Note company of Philadelphia. The metal coins also are minted in the United States.

Museum Houses Armor Hobby

SACRAMENTO, Calif. —(P)— There won't be any guns in a toy library being established here as a Rotary Club project. The warden insists.

The toys are being sent to nearby Folsom State Prison to be reconditioned by the inmates. But Warden Robert A. Heinze crossed juvenile artillery off the list. "A gun is a gun," he says. "They all feel the same when they are pressed into the small of your back."
