Around Town....

By Jeryme English

TEA TIME... on Thursday afternoon at the L. L. Ferguson home on Statesman street when Mrs. Ferguson, assisted by her daughter, Mrs. Mary Thomas, entertained for the pleasure of Mrs. J. Henry Helsler of Berkeley, Calif. Paul Duggan of Berkeley, Calif. The women were in the capital city for the day with their husbands, who gave a lecture in the evening on investments at the Senator hotel... Seventy-five guests called during the afternoon to meet the visitors...

Presiding at the tea... were Mrs. Alfred Mueller, Mrs. Frank Deolittle, Mrs. Arthur P. Sprague, Mrs. Harold Robertson, Mrs. Greta Hiatt and Mrs. Christian Peterson... Assisting were Mrs. Clarence Parker, Mrs. Howard Gardner, Mrs. Claude Tharp, Miss Mayme Smith, Mrs. M. F. Low and Mrs. Lucille Alford... Bouquets of cherry blossoms were used about the rooms and the tea table was centered with a spring bouquet of pink gladioluses, white tulips and yellow iris...

A dinner... and informal get-together on Thursday night at the C. Lester Newman home for a group of friends, who have vacationed on the desert this winter... The affair welcomed home the Richard A. Meyers, who returned Wednesday from a month's trip south... They sojourned for a fortnight in Phoenix and returned home by way of Palm Springs... The travelers also stopped in Las Vegas, Hoover Dam, Grand Canyon, and Tucson.

Honor guest... at a luncheon and shower on Sunday afternoon was Mrs. Richard Kerr Vollstedt of Portland, whose aunt, Mrs. Thomas A. Windishar, entertained at her State street home... Mrs. Vollstedt will be remembered as Donna Mae Windisar of McMinnville... The affair included members of the two families and relatives... A yellow and white color scheme was used in the decor...

To Astoria... today will go Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Miller and Mrs. Miller's sister, Mrs. Vera Lewis... Saturday morning they will attend the wedding of the Miller's granddaughter, Patricia Ann Young, daughter of the Thomas C. Young of Astoria, and Kenneth Munson, USN, Merced, Calif....

A reception will follow at the Hotel Astoria... The newlyweds will spend their honeymoon in Mexico... Visiting... in the capital from Garden Grove, Calif., are Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Button, who are guests at the home of Mrs. Button's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Don F. Smith, at their Spruce street home... The visitors plan to be here a fortnight...

Dean is elected... Mrs. Regina Ewald, dean of women at Willamette university, is the new president of the Oregon association of deans of women she was elected at the recent spring conference in Portland... She has also been appointed chairman of the North Pacific region of the national regional committee of the Deans of Women association by Mrs. Ruth O. McCarm, national association president... she will serve as district chairman for the four Northwest states, Washington, Oregon, Idaho and Montana, for a two year term... Mrs. Ewald will be one of the guest speakers at the City Panhellenic open luncheon meeting on April 28 at the Pine Inn, at which time she will report on the Oregon Dean's conference...

Now a stewardess... with United Air Lines is Bette Tweed, daughter of the I. M. Tweeds, and a University of Oregon graduate... She has been assigned to mainliner flights of United at Chicago... and recently graduated from the company's Cheyenne, Wyoming, stewardess school... In Portland on Sunday to sing at the Holy Child Academy were members of the Cecilians and Boy's double quartet from Sacred Heart Academy... Several other schools also competed in the song festival...

Marion county Salon 8 et 40 members were entertained at a no-host dinner and "come as you are" party Wednesday night at the home of Mrs. Ben Kuensting in Tigard. Covers were placed for thirteen. Mrs. Frank Marshall gave a report on the child welfare conference recently held in Eugene.

Mrs. Fred Gast, third vice-president of the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs was a guest of the Lebanon Junior Women's club on Thursday night. Mrs. Wallace Cowen and Mrs. Richard Klover, members of the Salem Junior Woman's club accompanied her. Mrs. Gast spoke on junior federation work.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Skopli, Jr. will entertain members of their pinocchio club Saturday night at their Crestview Drive home. A late supper will follow an evening of cards.

Snappy Joetties, 9th graders of the YWCA, plan a picnic for Paradise Islands on Sunday at 1:30 o'clock. Grace and Jane Connell of Willamette university will supervise the outing.

Mr. and Mrs. James R. Morrill (Louise Toycon) who were married on March 30 at St. Joseph's Catholic church. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Fred Swanner and the groom is the son of Mrs. R. H. Morrill. (McEwan photo).

Alice Adams to Rule May Day Festivities

A brunette court will rule over the annual May weekend festivities on the Willamette university campus May 4 and 5. Miss Alice Adams of Salem, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore O. Adams, has been elected queen as a result of the student body elections on the campus this week and her princesses are Miss Lu Dene Hargrave, Portland, and Miss Nickie Haynes of Berkeley, Calif.

Miss Adams, who recently moved to Salem, is a member of Chi Omega sorority and is senior class secretary. She has lived in Portland most of her life and next year will teach music at Tualatin grade school. She is a member of the Willamette a cappella choir. Miss Hargrave is a member of Pi Beta Phi sorority and last year was editor of the Wallulah, campus year book publication, and is serving on the publication board this year. She has served as class year leader, sophomore class secretary and a member of the chapel committee.

Miss Haynes is also a member of Pi Beta Phi and is majoring in drama. She has been active in production meetings held at the workshop and this year is radio manager. She was recently tapped a member of Theta Alpha Phi, national drama honorary. She has served as freshman class secretary.

Coffee Chain Hostesses Listed

Sixty women from the YWCA board and membership will start the YW coffee chain on Monday, April 23. Similar affairs will be given the following Mondays, April 30 and May 7. The purpose of the coffee is to augment the current building fund. As building costs have risen the bids were considerable more than the available fund. It is hoped that the coffee chain will not be broken and the additional money raised for the proposed YWCA building.

The first list of hostesses is as follows: Mesdames George Ailing, Robert Anderson, J. C. Armprist, Lester Barr, Wallace Bonesteel, Wallace Carson, John Caughell, G. F. Chambers, William Crothers, C. A. Downs, Robert D. Gregg, Carl Grader, George P. LaBorde, Bruce Pickett, George Rhoten, A. A. Schramm, G. Herbert Smith, Bruce Spaulding, Richard Upjohn, A. E. Ullman, Floyd Utter.

Essays Win Awards for Students

The American Legion Auxiliaries No. 9 and No. 136 cooperatively sponsored an essay contest in Salem schools. The junior division of 7th, 8th and 9th graders wrote on the subject "My Responsibilities As a Citizen of the United States." In this division there were 23 entries from three schools, Leslie junior high school, Parrish junior high school and Sacred Heart school. First prize of $7.50 goes to Sharyn French of Leslie junior high school and second prize of $5.00 to Jimmy Backstrand of Parrish junior high school.

The senior division had eleven entries from two schools; Salem high school and Sacred Heart school. First prize of $7.50 goes to Lee Archibald and second prize of $5.00 to Pat Todd both of Salem high school. The first place essay in each division will be entered in the American Legion auxiliary department of Oregon contest. Judges were Mrs. Bruce Spaulding, Robert Elstrom and Rev. Dudley Strain.

The chairmen of the local Americanism committee are Mrs. D. B. Baker for Unit No. 136 and Mrs. Arthur Weddle of Unit No. 9.

Roy Hatfield Is Speaker

Ainsworth chapter, U. D. Order of the Eastern Star met Wednesday evening at the west Salem City hall, with Mrs. J. Edgar Reay, worthy matron, and Leroy J. Stewart, worthy patron, presiding. Guests who were introduced and honored in the east were past grand matron, Mrs. Paul Hauser; past grand patron, Roy Hatfield; grand representative to the state of Tennessee, Mrs. W. L. Lewis; Mr. and Mrs. Harlow Dixon, worthy patron and worthy matron of Evergreen chapter of Woodburn.

One of the highlights of the evening was a talk by past grand patron, Roy Hatfield. Miss Roberta Graham, entertained with violin selections, accompanied by Miss Marilyn Lorenz at the piano. Members and guests having birthdays in March and April were honored and presented with camelias by the Friendship Girls.

Following the meeting a social hour was enjoyed with refreshments being served by Mrs. Anna Kirkpatrick, Mrs. R. N. Haynes, Mrs. J. Edgar Reay, and Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Walters.
