

Split in British Laborites Due If Bevan Quits

LONDON, April 21 (AP)—Close friends forecast today Labor Minister Aneurin Bevan will resign—splitting the Labor party and hastening a general election—if Bevan has to pay for their false teeth and eyeglasses.

"Acts of political foolishness might contribute to the downfall of the Labor government," Defense Minister Emmanuel Shinwell warned in a Newcastle speech.

Bevan had announced two weeks ago he would not remain in a government that imposed charges on patients in Britain's socialized health services.

A few days later the government disclosed plans to make patients pay half the cost of dentures and spectacles which previously had been supplied entirely at the taxpayers' expense. The saving is estimated at $70,000,000 a year.

Collie Dog Minus Home

Abandoned pups and kittens are not uncommon this time of year, sad to say, but a shaggy, friendly, black-and-white collie-type dog of full-grown proportions also seems to be in the abandoned class out on Durbin avenue east.

Mrs. L. D. Underwood of 4378 Durbin ave. told the Statesman that the dog appeared in that neighborhood three weeks ago—"and it is so nice with children we hate to have it killed. But we've all got dogs of our own out here."

Valley Obituaries

Mrs. Ella Hamm
SILVERTON—Services for Mrs. Ella Hamm, 51, Molalla route 2, will be held at 2 p.m. Tuesday at the Ekman chapel here with the Rev. Rudy Suter officiating. Interment will be in Miller cemetery.

A longtime Sweet Home resident, Mrs. Hamm had moved to this area recently and died Friday night at Silvertown hospital. She was born in Idaho. Surviving are three children, William of Sweet Home, Frank and Richard of Molalla; two brothers, Harold and Richard Coriell, Indian Valley, Idaho; and a sister, Mrs. Anna Martin, Weiser, Idaho.

Crewman of Missouri Lost Overboard

BALBOA, Canal Zone, April 21 (AP)—A crewman of the U.S.S. Missouri was lost overboard early today when the battleship was 60 miles from Balboa, headquarters of the U. S. navy's Caribbean command said tonight.

Planes and a crashboat searched unsuccessfully for the missing sailor, whose identification was withheld pending notification of next of kin. Details of the accident were unavailable.

The Missouri, the U.S.S. New Jersey and the aircraft carrier Hornet were all berthed here today.

The "Mighty Mo" returning from Korean fighting, is bound through the Panama Canal to an Atlantic port.

Secrecy surrounded the destination of the New Jersey, which came through the canal, Pacific bound, Friday.

The Hornet is Atlantic bound.

The National Geographic Society says early American bicycles were called velocipedes, hobby horses and dandy carriages.
