The Willamette University Play ers production of Richard Brin sley Sheridan's "School For Scan sley Sheridan's "School For Sean-dal" is to be presented with the cooperation of the Kiwanis club, at Parrish junior hiigh school, May 3 and 4 during the Univer-sity's May Weekend. "School For Scandal" was first presented in 1777 in Drury Lane, England, and has since become one of the great-est comedies of all times. Sheri-dan's satire concerning sentiment and society is witty, choice, and moral according to the age. The dialogue of this comedy of man-ners is sprightly and sparkling. Sheridan was only 25 when he wrote "School For Scandal" which was an instant success. It is a was an instant success. It is a skillful combination of two of his uncompleted plays.

In 1777 the play was nurried into the hands of the actors piece by piece, the last act finding its way to the theater Tive days before the final production. "School Fore the final production.
