

Father-Son Banquet Held At Lyons Club

Statesman News Service
LYONS — The annual father and son banquet sponsored by the Womens Society of Christian Service was held at the community club house Thursday evening with Thomas Putman master of ceremonies. The address of welcome was given by the Rev. O. L. Jones of the Lyons Methodist church. Two vocal numbers were given by Mrs. Charles Power.

Gifts were presented to Loren Chamberlain, oldest father present, and Thomas Putman, youngest father, followed by a vocal number by Mrs. Charles Power, Deanne Thompson and Vivian Boyce.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Bressler were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Phil Corbett of Salem. They also visited Mrs. Myrtle Hester who is in the hospital with severe burns.

John Trahan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Trahan, underwent an appendectomy at Salem Memorial hospital Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Jack Christenson Sunday flew to Coldwater, Mich., where her aunt died.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Berry and son, Donald, of Tillamook visited relatives over the week end. They were guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Berry and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Haynes of Mill City.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Allen spent Saturday night and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. George Allen on the McKenzie river near Belnap hot springs.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Morgan, Juanita and John of Glenwood and Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Edwards and Judy Kay of Seattle were week end visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Edwards.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Burmester were Sunday guests in Seaside.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Royce were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Rogers in Portland.

The last meeting of the first aid class was Monday evening with Mrs. Leonard Thoma of Lebanon as instructor. Those receiving certificates were Ivan Smith, Thomas Putman, Monroe Walker, Otto Weidman, Gertrude Weidman, Alice Huber, Bea Hiatt, Alta Bodeker, Reta Cruson, Vivian Boyce, Deanne Thompson, Marion Chamberlain and Eva Bressler.

Flax Festival Plans Advance In Mt. Angel

Statesman News Service
MT. ANGEL — The Mt. Angel Business Men's club voted an advance of $300 to the Flax Festival committee Monday noon to provide a working fund with which to start preparations for the celebration August 10, 11 and 12.

Al Dieker reported the committee had decided to stress the children's angle in the festival, having a junior king and queen, featuring the children's parade and free rides for the youngsters all during the festival.

President Gores announced the blood bank would be in Mt. Angel from 2 to 7 p.m. May 24 and he urged the business men to donate blood to help the town reach its quota.

A final report on the Red Cross drive was made by Gores, who was campaign chairman. He said $932 was solicited, which was all but $67 of the quota of $1000.

Charles Prine Buys Property

Statesman News Service
FOUR CORNERS — Charles Prine has purchased the property known as the battery shop at Mahrt avenue and South Lancaster drive. Prine has remodeled the building, adding a sales room and office on the front. Prine will operate under the name of Prine's auto service. He will install gasoline storage tanks sufficient to operate a two pump station. He also has begun a building in the rear that will be used as an oil refining plant.

Mrs. Charlene Girard, teacher of the mixed fourth and fifth grade at Lincoln school, took her students on a field trip Tuesday to see the Oregon historical caravan at the statehouse.
