Seen and Heard...

By JERYME ENGLISH

Mrs. James Joseph Bochsler (Clara Marie Manning) who was married on April 21 at Sacred Heart Catholic church in Gervois. The bride is the daughter of the Fred Mannings of Gervois and the groom is the son of Mrs. Emil Bochsler of Mt. Angel. (Jessen-Miller photo).

WEDDING ECHOES . . . Patricia Viecko and Richard Gahlsdorf exchanging their vows at a week ago Saturday at the First Presbyterian church . . . Many ohs and ahs about the gorgeous floral arrangements . . . masses of white lilies and stock at the altar . . . So colorful the large white baskets, filled with varied shades of lilies and tulips ranging from the pink to purple tones, carried by the attendants . . . open crown halos of lilies and mums in their hair . . . Pat and Dick all smiles as they walked up the aisle . . . and stopping in the foyer, where they greeted the guests as they left the church . . . such a nice custom as no long receiving line to wait in at the reception . . .

The Mirror Room . . . of the Marion hotel the setting for the reception . . . Here again exquisite flower arrangements . . . The tiered cake adorned with tiny pink balls and one of the most beautiful we have seen . . . topped with lilies-of-the-valley and white lilies . . . The cake table arranged before the mirrors . . . a pretty setting to see the reflection of the young girls walking by as they served the cake and Mrs. Kenneth Bell and Mrs. Ray Bassett, who cut the cake . . . The coffee table centered with a handsome bouquet of white roses, lilies and gypsophelia and flanked by white tapers in silver candelabras . . . Outstanding . . . the punch table . . . two large punch bowls at either end and in the center a huge hollow stemmed glass filled with Johanna Hill roses and white lilies . . . In the center of each punch bowl a mold of ice filled with pink carnations . . . The newlyweds enjoying the reception and mingling with their guests for over an hour . . . and then quietly slipping out of the hotel with only a few seeing them off . . . Sara Ann Ohling the recipient of Pat's pretty bouquet . . .

Among the guests . . . So many of the young marrieds on the occasion and much reminiscing . . . Reed and Mary Ana Vollstedt up from Eugene . . . Fred and Betty Bradshaw down from Portland . . . they will be in Salem until the middle of May at the home of her parents, the Leo Childs, until they leave for San Diego, where he will report for navy duty . . . Also from Portland . . . John and Carol Jerman . . . Bland and Beverly Simmons . . . Don and Peggy Pickett . . . he an usher and she assisting at the reception in a becoming pink pique and marquisette frock . . . Donald Burlingham and his pretty blonde spouse, Patricia, also of Portland . . . Mrs. Dorothy Michelson of Portland smart in a black suit and pink chapeau with frothy maline on the brim . . . Elizabeth Johnson in a violet coat and hat home from the University of Oregon for the weekend and squired by Allan Mann of Portland . . . the William Duncans over from Silverton . . . In pretty ankle length summer frocks . . . Mrs. William Shinn's of burnt sugar organdy with all over design of embossed white roses . . . Mrs. Lester Pearlmine, Jr. choosing a white strapless frock with a stole and black velvet bows adorning the full skirt . . . and Mrs. William M. Smith in pink organdy . . .

LILACS PREDOMINATING . . . in the decor for the wedding of pretty, brunette Gloria McClintock and Glen Holden last Saturday at the First Congregational . . . so sweet the bride's imported Swiss organdy and lace wedding dress . . . Gloria carrying white lilies and the same flowers holding her veil in place . . . The feminine attendants all attractive brunettes and wearing yellow organdy frocks and carrying lavender lilies . . . The matron of honor was Gloria's twin sister, Barbara, (Mrs. Phillip Welling) and the bridesmaids were Glen's two sisters . . . Lilacs repeated in the decor of the bride's table . . . arrangements of deep purple lilacs on either side of the cake . . . The groom, best man and ushers so handsome in their white dinner jackets, the first we have seen this season . . .
